BIG HORN AT THE LAND SHOW

Basin Names Able Committee to Arrange Exhibits Here.

H. G. SHEDD WILL BE CHAIRMAN

Prof. Buffum's World-Renowned Discovery, Winter Emmer, Will Be Among Products on Exhibition at Auditorium.

BASIN, Wyo., Dec. 6.—(Special.)—It has been decided that the Big Horn Basin shall be well represented at the Western Land Products exhibit to be held in Omaha, January 15-25, 1911.

This is considered a good opportunity to let the people of the central states know of the wonderful opportunities to be had in the Big Horn Basin in the way of farm lands in the midst of other undeveloped natural resources of undoubted value.

Other Able Men on Committee. Mr. Crowe has extensive land interests in all parts of the Big Horn Basin.

FLEGE DEFENSE STARTS CASE

First Witness Placed on Stand After State Rests in Case.

INKLING OF COURSE WILL TAKE

Two Witnesses Placed on Stand, but About Twentieth Are Yet to Be Examined in Behalf of Flege.

PONCA, Neb., Dec. 6.—(Special Telegram.)—The state in the Flege murder case today rested after the introduction of final evidence including the weapon with which the dead was said to have been committed and the clothes worn by the dead woman.

The defense introduced testimony of one witness before court adjourned until tomorrow, which did not outline definitely the course of the defense in the case.

Henry Heindrichs, Jr., was recalled and asked whether he had noticed the automobile of the defendant on the afternoon of June 20 as to its leaking, he said the auto had not been leaking and was not when he saw it.

Henry Lesman was recalled and asked about the presence of Albert Eichtenkamp and William Flege at the coroner's inquest on the morning of July 1. He said they were and that they were near each other.

County Attorney Kingsbury was recalled and asked about the cartridges before mentioned and stated that he had seen them and had three in his possession, which he produced, and they were offered as exhibits.

Eugene Cook, deputy sheriff of Dixon county, produced the clothing removed from the body of Louise Flege, which was placed in evidence, after which the state rested.

Counsel for the defense requested a recess to arrange the order of witnesses, as they had expected some twenty-five or more. An hour was given by the court for this purpose.

Heindrichs' Testimony. On reassembling the court, on its own motion, ordered the testimony of Herbert Heindrichs, relating to a conversation with the defendant at the German hall, near Emerson, in reference to Flege keeping company with his sister and promising trouble if anybody else went with her, in March, 1910, struck out because the state failed to show it to be relevant and did not use it to establish anything in this case.

The court then instructed the jury to neglect any and all evidence which was ordered stricken from the record. The defense called some nine or ten witnesses to be sworn.

Jacob Koch, a young German, who worked for Christ Soren at the time of the murder, said that he heard just one loud shot the day of the murder, about 2 o'clock, and that the noise heard came from the direction of the barn on farm house. He said the wind was blowing in the direction from him toward the Flege home.

Margie Robert, a girl 15 years old, said when she drove past the Flege place on June 20 she saw no one about the place except a man driving a team out in the field and that he was about in the middle of the field. She started from home at 2:30 o'clock that afternoon, as she looked at the clock before she started tomorrow morning.

Adjudgment was taken until tomorrow morning.

FEATURES OF ESTIMATES

including New York postoffice construction, $20,000 for Oklahoma City postoffice completion, $20,000 for completing reconstruction of Richmond (Va.) postoffice and court house, $1,250,000 for a site and commencing the erection of a postoffice building in Washington, D. C., and $500,000 for commencing erection of a building for the State, Justice and Commerce and Labor departments in this city; $500,000 for building two revenue cutters, for which $100,000 was appropriated previously.

For Canal Defense.

For the defense of the Isthmian canal the estimates asked and ask authority for $19,550,000 in all for this fortification project, with a view to completion within three years. This work will include sites, emplacements, guns, carriages, searchlights, camps and posts and is based on the joint board of army and navy officers' report.

The estimates also carry provision for the erection of a part of the canal zone as a naval establishment of the defense. The total appropriations asked for the canal service reach $54,928,547.

For examinations, surveys and contingencies of rivers and harbors, for which there may be no special appropriation, $10,000 is asked. The total rivers and harbors estimates for the work in the next fiscal year aggregate $22,027,361, which is a reduction of $1,753,000 by direction of Secretary Dickinson, and as against $1,200,000 appropriated for the same purposes in the current fiscal year.

For Ellis island immigration station, New York, $300,000 is asked.

Abernathy Charges Investigated. WASHINGTON, Dec. 6.—Charges which have been made against United States Marshal "Jack" Abernathy, former Colorado companion for several seasons of Colonel Roosevelt, have been investigated by a special agent of the Department of Justice and are now in the hands of Attorney Wickham. The attorney general will not discuss the subject. Abernathy has one year more to run. The charges are not of a political nature.

Corps of Dentists for Navy. WASHINGTON, Dec. 6.—A corps of thirty dentists is to be a permanent part of the navy. The action of the house committee on naval affairs today is affirmed by the house. The committee favorably reported the bill entering into effect the dental corps as acting assistant surgeon.

Charles Bryan Says Liquor Interests Are Keeping Busy

Growing Signs, He Declares, They Are Making Attempts to Organize Legislature.

(From a Staff Correspondent.) LINCOLN, Dec. 6.—(Special.) Upon leaving Lincoln tonight for a two weeks' business trip through Oklahoma and Texas, Charles W. Bryan gave out the following statement:

"There are multiplying signs that the liquor interest will try to organize the senate and house in the Nebraska legislature, to the end that the will of the people as expressed in favor of county option and the initiative and referendum be defeated. I think it important to the welfare of the state generally, as well as to the interests of the democratic party, that the senate and the house be organized by the county option democrats. To permit the opponents of county option and the initiative and referendum to organize the legislature might mean not only the defeat of these reforms, but would mean also that these fights must be carried into the presidential campaign of 1912. The liquor interests have already damaged the democratic party sufficiently. They should be forced to keep their hands off the legislature, and the best way to keep them off is for both branches of the legislature to be organized by men who are committed to county option and to the initiative and referendum, against both of which reforms the liquor interests are conspiring."

Democrats Insist They Keep Their Jobs

Number of Them Think Republican Governor Should Reward Them After Election.

(From a Staff Correspondent.) LINCOLN, Dec. 6.—(Special.)—Amusement, vedettes among republicans quieter among democrats who are not hankering for appointive positions under the incoming administration, is heard at the state house and on the streets over the attitude taken by democratic office holders toward the appointments already made by Governor-elect Aldrich. Democratic office holders generally are putting up a roar over what they charge is the partisanship of the governor-elect. They declare that he promised to be nonpartisan in his selections, whereas he is turning down most of the hoards of Shallenberger incumbents who are asking for places.

Mr. Aldrich's pre-election declaration was that he would make the best selections possible without regard to politics, and this has been interpreted to mean that he would appoint many democrats.

Superintendent D. S. Woodard of the hospital for the insane at Lincoln, is one of the disgruntled. A day or so ago he gave vent to his grievance as he walked up from the depot, valise in hand. He argued that the governor-elect was going clear back on his promise to be nonpartisan. He was extremely bitter in his remarks. He explained the value by saying that he had been to Aurora, and friends at the asylum declared he had made a trip to David City in the hope of persuading Aldrich to retain him for the best interests of the institution. The superintendent had been an ardent worker for the democratic candidate for governor until after the election, whereupon he declared he had always been against Mayor Dahlgren.

TOMB FOR MRS. EDDY'S BODY

Final Decision that Interment Will Be at Cambridge.

DIRECTORS CONTROL THE CHURCH

Self-Perpetuating Body Appointed by Founder of the Organization Assumes Direction of Aff-irs.

BOSTON, Dec. 6.—Final arrangements for the funeral of Mrs. Mary Baker Eddy, the head of the Christian Science church, who died at her home at Chestnut Hill on Saturday night, will be perfected until the arrival of her son, George W. Glover, who is expected here from Lead, S. D., some time tomorrow.

It was decided today that the body of the leader will be buried in Mount Auburn cemetery, Cambridge.

In the meantime the directors of the church, Archibald McLellan, Stephen A. Chase, Allison Stewart, John V. Dittmore and Adam H. Dickey, have taken full charge of the church management, and the scope of their powers includes matters of organization, of finance and of discipline.

They are supreme in the mother church and control branch churches. All were the personal nominees of Mrs. Eddy and they are a self-perpetuating body. Mr. McLellan is editor of the periodical gotten out by the Christian Science publishing house—the daily Monitor, the weekly Sentinel and the monthly Journal and Herald (German)—and is a native of Moncton, N. B.; Mr. Chase is treasurer of the mother church and a resident of Fall River; Mr. Stewart is the publisher of Mrs. Eddy's works and was born in Pennsylvania; Mr. Dittmore, who is clerk of the organization, comes from Indianapolis, and Mr. Dickey, recently appointed to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Ira O. Knapp, was Mrs. Eddy's private secretary for many years and came from Kansas City.

At the mansion at Chestnut Hill where the body lies in an upper chamber, there are no outward signs of grief. There is no crepe on the door, the window shades are up and the members of the household come and go as usual. The undertaker has performed his duties, with the exception of laying the body in a casket.
