

Christmas

Orchard & Wilhelm,
Specials for Saturday's Selling Only

Rocker

(Like cut) shaped wood seat, well braced, golden oak finish, neat, rich looking, comfortable rocker at a very special price for Saturday only, each—

$1.85

Bric-a-Brac

A Saturday special that will interest all; a collection of art objects that will make pretty gifts—including candle shades, picture frames, ash trays, vases, jardinières, etc.—that sold up to $1.50 each; on sale for Saturday only, each 69c

Toy

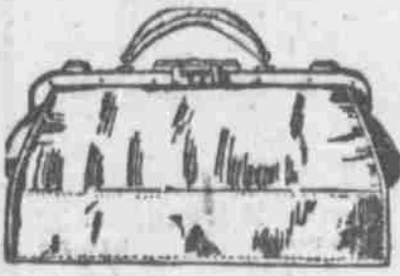

Department

Saturday Special—Doll Collapsible Folding Go-Cart with hood, steel frame, upholstering of imitation leather; an unusual bargain for Saturday only, each 85c

Basement Specials Hand Bags

(Like cut) Genuine cowhide, with full leather lining, solid brass back and hinges, natural or russet, Saturday special, at, each $5.35

Kettle Cover Holder

And set of covers, made to hang on wall—holder is of heavy wire with non-rusting tin coating. This handy kitchen set sells for 60c; for Saturday only, set. . . 35c

December Magazines

The Century for December with the first installment of Prof. McGiffert's "Martin Luther and His Work," Arthur Stanley Riggs discusses "The Commerce of Spain," and William George Jordan has a paper on "The House of Governors." Anna O'Hagen describes the herms of the Colony club for women and among contributors of short stories are L. Frank Tooker, Mary Austin, J. R. Stafford and Lillie Hamilton French. There is a second installment of Mr. Hieben's "The Dweller on the Threshold," and an agreeable oddity in the imaginary conversation carried on by Maurice Hewlett with his own creation, "Senshouse."

The Christmas number of Scribner's contains many beautiful illustrations and there is another installment of General Punton's Cuban experiences. Ernest Seton Thompson narrates his search for caribou in the second chapter of "Arctic Frontiers," and writers of short stories are Thomas Nelson Page, John Fox, Jr., G. B. Lancaster, Katherine Holland Brown and Richard Harding Davis. Mr. Arthur Conan Doyle contributes "The First Cargo," and there is another installment of F. Hopkinson Smith's serial.

In the Christmas Harper's Henry Van Dyke has a story "The Mansion," Mr. Howells contributes "The Impossible, A Mystery Play," and other writers of short stories are Amelia River, Margaret Spalding Gurry, Thomas Janvier and Belle Radcliffe Laverack. There is another installment of Mrs. Doan's novel, "The Iron Woman," and Richard Lagallienne writes "In Defense of Old Songs." Walter Prichard describes "The Real Dismal Swamp," Lee Wilson Dodd proves the wisdom of unplanned travel in "Chance the Cicero," and E. S. Martin contributes "Reflections of a Beginning Husband."

The Atlantic Monthly for December opens with a discussion of "The Tariff and the Tariff Commission," by F. W. Taussig. Gamaliel Bradford, Jr. contributes "A Hero's Conscience, a Study of R. E. Lee," Francis T. Bowles writes on "One Way to an American Marine," and William S. Hoelster has a paper, "The Matter with Us." There are short stories by Kathleen Norris, Atkinson Kimball and Arthur Cotton and Mrs. Wharton contributes a piece of verse entitled "The Comrade." There is another installment of John Galworthy's serial, and Golden Welles' "A Diary of the Reconstruction Period" is continued.

The December Bookman contains the usual chronicle and comment and review of important new books. Ella Parker Butler and Frederic J. Sherman contribute the verse of the number, while there are short articles by Isaac F. Marcosson, F. M. Colby, Gardner Teall, Edna Keaton, Frederic Taber Cooper and Parley Cunningham.

Lippincott's for December opens with a novel by Edith Robinson, "There Was Once a Queen," and among contributors of short stories are John Scott Reed, Nevil G. Henshaw, Hulbert Footner, Ella Middleton Tybout, Eleanor Mercein Kelly and Caroline Wood Morrison. There are poems by "John Carter," Florence Earle Coates, John Kendrick Bangs, Aloysius Coll and Theodosia Garrison, and "Walnuts and Wine," the department of humor, will afford the reader many a good laugh.

The Christmas number of the Strand Magazine contains fictional contributions by W. W. Jacobs, E. Phillips Oppenheim, F. Anstey, E. M. Jameson, Horace Annesley Vachell and others. A study of the life and work of Mr. David Belasco is contributed by Wendell Phillips Dodge, while Charles Hawrey contributes his "Reminiscences." A. Drysdale Davis writes on "Fashions That Have Failed," and the vaudeville actor, Mr. R. A. Roberts, describes "The Art of Quick Change."

In the Wide World Magazine for December Prof. Carruthers gives a description of his journey "To Bokhara and Beyond," and Hook Carnegie writes of a visit to "The Island That Was Forgotten." John G. Rowe discusses the mystery of the Blue Hope diamond and the three serials, "An Honeymoon on the Zambesi" and "Naturalist in New Guinea" are continued.

In the December American A. J. Nock leads off with an article describing the tax laws in New York. Miss Turbell discusses "The Mysteries and Crucibles of the Tariff" and William Allen White contributes "Insurrection of Insurgency." The fiction is contributed by Marion Hill, Charles A. Fisher, Fred R. Beckett, Octavia Roberts, Ernest Poole and Frances Hodgson Burnett.

In the Metropolitan Magazine for December Prof. Henshaw C. Parker and Bro. Moore Brown give an account of their attempt to climb Mount McKinley last summer. Arthur B. Reeve writes on "Triumphs of Medicine," and F. Chambliss-Overton contributes an article on the Portuguese revolution. There are stories by the Boston American, Milton, Harrison Rhodes, Neith Boyce and others.

Adventure for December opens with a short story by James Barr and among other writers of short stories are C. Langton Clarke, Charles Alden Seltzer, Albert Kinsman, T. Donovan Bayler, Missie Milne and Jonathan Hadley. There is a complete novelette by E. R. Mitchell and articles by William Davier Ashley and Ralph H. Isham.

The Popular Science Monthly for December contains the following articles: "The Hange of India, Lassen," by Dr. David P. Barrows; "Classics and the College Course," by Prof. John J. Stevenson; "Some European Conditions Affecting Emigration," by Prof. Arthur Clinton Sogness; "Genius and Stature," by Charles Kassel; "Certain Characteristics of the South American of Today," by Prof. Hiram Bingham; and "The Birthplace of Man," by Prof. S. W. Williston.

The National for December contains the usual review of "Affairs at Washington,"

CULP-LANGWORTHY CLOTHES SHOP

THE CORNER STORE

In the City National Bank Building

OMAHA

An Apology and Announcement

WE OPEN THIS MORNING, but not as we most desire.

For the present the fixtures we use are wholly temporary. The ones ordered for our beautiful store room are the most costly and handsomest that have ever been installed in any city of this size in the United States—but unfortunately they will not be finished until February.

But our stock, however, is all in and the people of Omaha will be surprised when they visit our shop and gaze upon the magnificent holiday assortment of men's clothing, hats and haberdashery which can be found only in cities such as New York and Chicago.

Our Shop will be recognized as the "Authority on Men's Wear," which will mean that our merchandise will be only of the very Highest Standard in Quality and Style.

"Authority on Men's Wear"

Richards Acquires Joe Cudahy Home

Deal is Finally Accomplished Friday and Announcement is Authorized.

The sale of the Joseph Cudahy home to Dr. Forest Richards, cashier of the Omaha National bank, is an accomplished deal, Mr. Richards authorizing an announcement Friday afternoon. The home is located on the southwest corner of Thirtieth and Dodge streets and is a handsome white colonial mansion. The consideration is not given out.

NEGRO SNATCHES PURSE

Miss Metta Rasmussen is Badly Frightened, but Loses No Money.

Miss Metta Rasmussen, 133 North Thirty-fifth street, was attacked and robbed by an unidentified negro Thursday night near Thirtieth and Beward streets. The negro snatched Miss Rasmussen by the wrist, snatched away her purse and sped down the street. The purse contained nothing more valuable than a bundle of receipts and personal cards. The girl was uninjured save for her fright.

Xmas Photos

A dozen good photographs makes a remembrance for 12 friends, nothing cheaper or better. The Studio Grand is the only first-class Studio in Omaha, making High Grade Photos at Low Prices, $5.00 and $6.00 Cabinets $3.00 per dozen.

STUDIO GRAND
Open Sundays, 1406 Farnam St., Across the Street From Paxton Hotel.
D. J. MORTEL, Manager.

To Dissolve the Union of stomach, liver and kidney troubles and cure biliousness and malaria, take Electric Elixer. Guaranteed. 50c. For sale by Boston Drug.

You can buy Jewelry cheaper here---

Bold assertion, but positively true. We don't ask you to accept our word for it, but we do ask that you visit our store.

Great Bargain in Toilet Sets.
Latest pattern, finest quality—Comb, brush and mirror, worth $9 and $10, only 13 of these left. The rarest bargain of the season.

$5.75
Diamonds on Credit
Our terms are extremely liberal and our prices extremely low. Don't think of buying on credit without consulting us.

Diamond Rings, $10, $15, $22, $25, $30, $35 up

Fritz Sandwall Jewelry Company

Third Floor Paxton Block. We live high, but sell goods low.

If sickness comes in the early morning hours....

Let us help you get the doctor and the nurse in a hurry. After telling your physician or nurse to wait for a taxicab, phone us, giving the name and address of the physician or the nurse as well as your own, so that our chauffeur will have no trouble making good time.

Many have tried this plan and praise our quick service in very high terms. Our address is—

Omaha Taxicab and Auto Livery Co.
2024 Farnam Street and Rome Hotel, Omaha, Neb.
Both Phones: Douglas 4678; A-3678

TWENTIETH CENTURY FARMER, TWENTIETH CENTURY FARMER
The Best Farm Paper. One Dollar Per Year.