We have put in alfalfa as a first crop, but the land is admirably adapted for potatoes, sugar beets and small grain; in fact it will grow everything except corn." Asked as to the spirit of the farmers, he said that the majority of them are well satisfied with their holdings and were making good. They principally came from Iowa and Nebraska, and in one part of the country the lows settlers were so strong that the locality was known by the name of the lows flats. A little to the north of Morrill he said the district was known as the Dutch flats. It was settled by Dutch or German settlers some years ago, but only a few of the early pioneers have remained and their lands are now being taken up by the people of the eastern part of the state of Iowa.
