Mrs. Anna Carney and John Carney, jr., were the chief witnesses for the state their testimony being practically the same as that given by them at the hearing of John Kemmerling on the contempt of court charge.

They swore that a few days after the information charging contempt against Kemmering was fited and while Kemmerling was in hiding they were in Gross' office for the purpose of pressing a claim for $1,000 for injuries sustained in a street car accident by a daughter of Mrs. Carney. They repeated their statements that in their presence Gross talked to Kemmerling over the telephone, criticizing the juror for not keeping quiet.

When court adjourned at 5 o'clock Thursday afternoon examination of John Carney, jr., just had been completed. The hearing will be resumed this morn-

Lumbermen are to Seek Reason for High Retail Prices.

LEVEL OF 1907 IS MAINTAINED

Consumer Given no Benefit of Reductions Prevailing as Result of Cuts Made Because of the Panic.

Retail lumber prices throughout the west are to be the subject of investigation by the national organizers of the manufact irers and whilesalers,

The producers of the lumber industry are seeking to restore building operations and the consequent consumption of lumber to a point where the condition from over stocking will be relieved. It is their conention that present retail prices, inconsistently high in relation to cost, are responsible for restriction of consumption. Steps to be taken when the findings of this investigation are completed have not been determined upon.
