GRAIN AND PRODUCE MARKET

Wheat Situation is Favorable to Bear Sentiment.

VALUES FOR WEEK ARE LOWER

Northwest's Stocks Are Ample Enough to Make Storage Space Scarce—Purchases in the Country Are Liberal.

OMAHA, Dec. 17, 1910.

Gossip on the wheat situation was favorable to the bear side, traders pointing to the liberal movement as primary points and the weakened cash situation. Values for the week just ending shows a loss of about 1¼c. It is the general opinion that the market will rule very quiet until after the holidays.

Bulls in corn have very little to encourage them beyond the stubborn action of the market which has held fairly firm in face of a bearish crop situation and free early movement of the new crop.

The statistical view on wheat continues of a bearish character. At some markets northwest, particularly, stocks are great enough to make storage room scarce and purchases in the country continue liberal. Rains were reported in the dry sections of the south wheat belt. Cash values locally were ½c lower.

The corn market was again dull and inactive, but had a heavy tone. Speculators are watching the movement, which is heavy, and a general one, and seems to be limited only by the number of cars which can be obtained. The cash market was very heavy, with values ranging unchanged to ½c lower.

Primary wheat receipts were 675,000 bu. and shipments were 234,000 bu., against receipts last year of 451,000 bu. and shipments of 227,000 bu.

Primary corn receipts were 802,000 bu. and shipments were 480,000 bu., against receipts last year of 712,000 bu. and shipments of 827,000 bu.

Clearances were 49,000 bu. of corn, 2,000 bu. of oats and wheat and flour equal to 167,000 bu.

Liverpool closed unchanged on wheat and unchanged to ¼d lower on corn.

CHICAGO GRAIN AND PROVISIONS

Features of the Trading and Closing Prices on the Board of Trade.

CHICAGO, Dec. 17.—With the Australian supply of wheat the largest on record and with primary receipts in this country greatly in excess of a year ago, the market here eased off a little today. The close was at a net decline of a shade to ¾c. Corn and oats both finished ¼@¾c to ¼@⅝c under last night. In provisions, latest figures were unchanged to 10c up.

At no time during the day was there any aggressive buying to lift up values in the wheat pit. The apparent reason was the official report of the crop of New South Wales bearing out assertions from merchandising quarters that the Australian yield is a large one and with 15,000,000 bushels carried over from the previous year makes the supply there the heaviest on record. On the other hand primary receipts in the United States were extremely liberal compared with twelve months back, so much so as almost to equal the volume of corn. The tone of the market as the day wore on was in the main fairly steady. May ranged from 96¼ to 96⅞c and closed ¼c off at 96¾c.

Corn weakened because the week's receipts here were nearly 2,000,000 bushels more than were shipped out. May sold from 47¼ to 47⅝c and finished ¼@¼c off at 47⅜@47⅝. Cash demand was decidedly slack. No. 2 yellow closed at 50½@51c.

The Northwest sold a good deal of cash oats to local December shorts today, and predicted large arrivals here next week. May fluctuated between 33⅝ and 34⅛@34¼ with final sales ⅛@¼c down at 34c.

Provisions became strong and weak by turns. In the end there was a net rise of 2½ to 10c in pork; lard was unchanged to 3c higher and ribs were up 2½ to 5c.

WEATHER IN THE GRAIN BELT

Slightly Cooler, with Cloudy and Unsettled Weather.

Temperatures have moderated slightly within the last twenty-four hours in the eastern states, but it still remains cold in that section, and zero weather is again reported along the Canadian border. There has been quite a decided change to warmer in the lake region and upper Mississippi valley, and it is slightly warmer generally in the lower valley and gulf states. A very decided drop in temperature is shown on the middle Rocky mountain slope and temperatures are lower generally everywhere west of the Missouri river. Light snows are falling in the lake region; it is raining in the west gulf states, and unsettled weather prevails in the upper valleys between the Missouri and Mississippi rivers. A very light rain was falling at Sioux City at 7 a. m. Cloudy and unsettled weather will probably continue in this vicinity during today and will be followed by fair tonight and Sunday, with slightly colder tonight.

Dry Goods Market.

NEW YORK, Dec. 18.—DRY GOODS—Trading in cotton goods for future delivery is at a slow pace, but values are generally holding steady, with insufficient pressure from sellers to enhance the depression. Mill agents feel that prices are as low as they can go without adding to the losses mills will be called upon to bear from continued production, and they are disposed to wait for the turn of the year and see if the attitude of the buyers will not change. The goods under order are all wanted, and anticipations of deliveries on contracts for domestics and other staples are not uncommon. It is clear that stocks are not burdensome in distributing hands.

The retail holiday trade is active and the consequent release of capital may stimulate early buying in the new year. Reorders of fancy wash goods and ginghams are being tendered. Wide sheetings and tickings are very firm. Bleached sheetings are quiet and trading is light.

Prints are being shipped on old orders and fancy prints for spring are growing in favor. Napped cottons continue steady. Sales of print cloths at Fall River last week amounted to 80,000 pieces, of which 35,000 were for spot delivery. There has been a better business in underwear and hosiery and seasonable goods are moving out steadily.

Cotton yarns hold fairly firm on a moderate amount of business. Export trade continues quiet. Careful attention is being given by manufacturers of cotton goods to the danger of accumulating stocks from high price cotton and if there is not a sharp movement in the demand for merchandise soon after the turn of the year curtailment will be resorted to in New England and the south.

That goods are wanted is shown by the frequency with which orders at low prices are declined.

CATTLE—The market was practically bare of cattle today, there being nothing of any consequence in sight. For the week receipts have fallen considerably short of last week's record and also of a year ago. The week, however, started out with very liberal receipts and as eastern markets were unfavorable, prices at this point suffered a sharp decline during the first half of the week. Later on as it became apparent that receipts were none too large to supply the local demand there was a gradual recovery until the loss was practically made up.

The beef steers coming this week have consisted very largely of cornfeds, the best heavy cattle selling up as high as $6.60, with a bunch of yearling steers and heifers as high as $7.15. The few range cattle that arrived met with very ready sale at satisfactory prices.

Although the market on cows and heifers was weak and lower yesterday, the market at the close of the week is about where it was last week. Good cows and heifers have sold fairly well, but the common and canning kinds which have been in very liberal supply have not been quite as active sellers as usual.

Ordinary light and medium weight stockers and feeders have been a little hard to move recently and the feeling on that kind is a little lower. On the other hand desirable kinds of cattle are closing fully as good as last week or even a little better. For this season of the year the trade in stockers and feeders has been very satisfactory throughout the week.

Quotations on native cattle: Good to choice beef steers, $6.20@6.75; fair to good beef steers, $5.40@6.20; common to fair beef steers, $4.50@5.40; good to choice cows and heifers, $4.50@6.25; fair to good cows and heifers, $3.75@4.50; common to fair cows and heifers, $3.00@3.75; good to choice stockers and feeders, $4.50@5.60; fair to good stockers and feeders, $3.80@4.50 common to fair stockers and feeders, $3.25@3.80; stock heifers, $3.00@4.15; veal calves, $3.50@8.25; bulls, stags, etc., $3.25@6.00.
