Preacher Deplores Waning of Devotion at Christmas Time

Rev. John Matthews Points at Empty Seats in First Baptist Church with Warning Words.

Twice during the service at the First Baptist church last night Rev. John Matthews, the pastor, took occasion to deplore a lack of recognition of the sacredness of Christmas. In exhorting the people to attend the midweek prayer meeting Mr. Matthews said a special effort to attend should be made by all, as there is danger of small attendance during the holiday sea-

Southwest Farmers Ride in Automobiles. Do You?

They buy them out of their profits-they live like lords-they bank a profit every season-they raise fine crops and fine families-they often break ground one year and double its value within six months; they have something growing in the ground almost every month.

The Southwest is your ideal future home. Stop plugging like a slave at a city desk or in a foundry or a factory, and go down into a land of certainties. Take your savings with you and exchange a hopeless life of drudgery for freedom from debt-and worry.

Plenty of good farm land can still be bought at a low price; every year that you delay you'll pay more. Write right now for free information. I'll give you facts and figures.

IMPORTANT:--The Rock Island's Agricultural Bureau will show you w you can make money from the very start by raising the crops which best and quickest and cheapest on the land which you choose, this assistance, and the proper amount of application you are sure to a splendid success of your venture. State how much you can invest, where you want to go and what you want to grow.
