ASSOCIATION REJECTS YEISER Vain Fight is Made to Have Attorney

Made, Member. John O. Yeiser came forth into promi nence in a fairly sensational way at the lose of the convention yesterday of the Nebraska State Bar association, the rejection of his candidacy for membership, being the theme of two hours' parliamentary debate and wrangle. The convention itself did not act on his application. It was the executive council, which is composed of the officers, which acted, and whose rejection under the constitution as it now stands, is

This seemed to sew up Mr. ! Yelser's friends. They attempted to whip his zatanic majesty around the stump in a number of ways, but a ruling by President Ryan, or a point of order from the flour, put a kibosh on every one of half a dozen ngenious attemps made by James E. Packers' Lawyers Attack Dismissal of Suit in Equity

Defendants Insist Bill Was Supplemental to Injunction Proceedings and Trial Should Proceed. CHICAGO, Dec. 28.-Attorneys for the indicted meat packers who are accused of having formed, in the National Packing company, a trust for restraint of trade, to day appeared before Judge Kohlsaat in the United States circuit court and attacked the government's dismissal yesterday o the dissolution suit in equity against the National company. Attorney George A. Buckingham told the court that it was the packers' post tion that the equity suit really was a sup plemental bill to the injunctional pro ceedings several years ago before Judge Grosscup and was in the nature of a con tempt charge.

Assistant United States District Attorney James R.
