James Robinson of McPherson County Released After Serving Nine Years of Life Term-Ken-

alson Case.

(From a Staff Correspondent.)

LINCOLN, Neb., Dec. 11 -(Special)-W. F Haddix, who has been a convict at the state penitentiary for four years, was pardoned by Governor Shallenberger today. Haddig was sentenced by the district court of Custer county to serve twelve years for murder in the second degree, on the charge of killing a man named Butler on a farm near Mason City. The liberated man has a wife and eleven children. He will start for home and live with his family on his 20-acre farm. He and Butler quarreled over the trespice of Butler.

The governor pardoned James Robinson of McPherson county who killed the foreman of a ranch. Robinson has served nine. years, sight months and four days, includ-The had been appointed receiver of a ranch and had discharged the foreman He alleged that the foreman tried to kill him with a knife. twice through the suprerse court and was fumiliar with the facts and that he would refuse to join in a request for a pardon. The convict was supported at the hear-ing by his wife and Warden Tem Smith of the penitentiary, the latter saying that he had made a trusty of the prisoner; that the prisoner had waited on the table oc-cupied by the worden and his family. The statements of fait given to the governor by the prisoner were faitly contradicted by the statements of the county attorney, and his attempt to show that he killed in self defense was completely rebutted.
