

OMAHA LIVE STOCK MARKET

Cold Weather Shuts Off Bulk of the Receipts.

NOT ENOUGH TO MAKE A MARKET

The Small Amount of Stock of All Kinds Arriving Meets with Quite Ready Sale at Good, Strong Prices.

Receipts for the week ending Jan. 2, 1911. Cattle, Hogs, Sheep. Estimated Monday, 1,200; Tuesday, 1,200; Wednesday, 1,200; Thursday, 1,200; Friday, 1,200; Saturday, 1,200; Sunday, 1,200.

The following table shows the receipts of cattle, hogs and sheep at South Omaha for the year to date compared with the corresponding year.

Table with columns for Year (1910, 1909, 1908, 1907, 1906, 1905, 1904) and rows for Cattle, Hogs, Sheep, and Total.

*Sunday, *Monday and Christmas. Receipts and disposition of live stock at the Union stock yards for twenty-four hours ending at 2 o'clock p. m.:

Table showing receipts and disposition of live stock at the Union stock yards for twenty-four hours ending at 2 o'clock p. m.

CATTLE—Receipts of cattle were extremely light this morning, only about a dozen cars being in sight.

Quotations on cattle: Good to choice beef steers, $10.00 to $11.00; fair to good beef steers, $9.00 to $10.00.

Quotations on hogs: Good to choice hogs, $10.00 to $11.00; fair to good hogs, $9.00 to $10.00.

Quotations on sheep: Good to choice sheep, $10.00 to $11.00; fair to good sheep, $9.00 to $10.00.

Stocks and feeders: Receipts of stock and feeders were light, with prices generally steady.

Local Securities: Quotations furnished by Burns, Brinker & Co., 409 New Omaha National bank building.

Legal Notices: A Guarantee of Business Property—The Persistent and Wise Patronage of The Bee Advertising Columns.

Legal Notices: Stockholders' meeting of the Union Land Company.

Legal Notices: Notice of the annual meeting of the stockholders of the Union Land Company.

Legal Notices: Notice of the annual meeting of the stockholders of the Union Land Company.

Legal Notices: Notice of the annual meeting of the stockholders of the Union Land Company.

Legal Notices: Notice of the annual meeting of the stockholders of the Union Land Company.

Legal Notices: Notice of the annual meeting of the stockholders of the Union Land Company.

Supreme Court Syllabi

1. Opinion against Loomis-Wiles Co. v. C. C. Appeal from Douglas. Reversed and cause dismissed. Plaintiff to pay costs in district court. Letton, J.

2. The process of injunction cannot be availed of by a private citizen to abate a public nuisance, unless he suffers special or peculiar injury therefrom, aside from that suffered by the general public.

3. Evidence examined and held that it fails to show that any special injury or damage to the plaintiff's property will result if the proposed sidewalk is laid according to the plan now contemplated by the defendant.

4. An order defining the right to vacate an appraisal of property for judicial sale on the ground that the appraiser's valuation was too low will, in the absence of a bill of exceptions embodying the evidence given at the hearing, be presumed to be correct.

5. The failure of a county clerk to include in his certificate a statement of the Junior to those for the satisfaction of which the defendants' land is to be sold, and his failure to attach the actual seal to said certificate, do not prejudice the owners of the equity of redemption and should not prevent the confirmation of a sale otherwise regular and lawful.

6. An owner, by a written contract, agreed to pay a real estate broker a commission of 5% if he should sell his 50-acre tract of land for $15 per acre.

7. A real estate broker suing and solely relying on a special contract for his commission cannot recover upon a quantum meruit.

8. An owner, by a written contract, agreed to pay a real estate broker a commission of 5% if he should sell his 50-acre tract of land for $15 per acre.

9. A real estate broker suing and solely relying on a special contract for his commission cannot recover upon a quantum meruit.

10. A real estate broker suing and solely relying on a special contract for his commission cannot recover upon a quantum meruit.

11. A real estate broker suing and solely relying on a special contract for his commission cannot recover upon a quantum meruit.

12. A real estate broker suing and solely relying on a special contract for his commission cannot recover upon a quantum meruit.

13. A real estate broker suing and solely relying on a special contract for his commission cannot recover upon a quantum meruit.

14. A real estate broker suing and solely relying on a special contract for his commission cannot recover upon a quantum meruit.

15. A real estate broker suing and solely relying on a special contract for his commission cannot recover upon a quantum meruit.

16. A real estate broker suing and solely relying on a special contract for his commission cannot recover upon a quantum meruit.

17. A real estate broker suing and solely relying on a special contract for his commission cannot recover upon a quantum meruit.

18. A real estate broker suing and solely relying on a special contract for his commission cannot recover upon a quantum meruit.

19. A real estate broker suing and solely relying on a special contract for his commission cannot recover upon a quantum meruit.

Supreme Court Syllabi

20. Opinion against Loomis-Wiles Co. v. C. C. Appeal from Douglas. Reversed and cause dismissed. Plaintiff to pay costs in district court. Letton, J.

21. The process of injunction cannot be availed of by a private citizen to abate a public nuisance, unless he suffers special or peculiar injury therefrom, aside from that suffered by the general public.

22. Evidence examined and held that it fails to show that any special injury or damage to the plaintiff's property will result if the proposed sidewalk is laid according to the plan now contemplated by the defendant.

23. An order defining the right to vacate an appraisal of property for judicial sale on the ground that the appraiser's valuation was too low will, in the absence of a bill of exceptions embodying the evidence given at the hearing, be presumed to be correct.

24. The failure of a county clerk to include in his certificate a statement of the Junior to those for the satisfaction of which the defendants' land is to be sold, and his failure to attach the actual seal to said certificate, do not prejudice the owners of the equity of redemption and should not prevent the confirmation of a sale otherwise regular and lawful.

25. An owner, by a written contract, agreed to pay a real estate broker a commission of 5% if he should sell his 50-acre tract of land for $15 per acre.

26. A real estate broker suing and solely relying on a special contract for his commission cannot recover upon a quantum meruit.

27. A real estate broker suing and solely relying on a special contract for his commission cannot recover upon a quantum meruit.

28. A real estate broker suing and solely relying on a special contract for his commission cannot recover upon a quantum meruit.

29. A real estate broker suing and solely relying on a special contract for his commission cannot recover upon a quantum meruit.

30. A real estate broker suing and solely relying on a special contract for his commission cannot recover upon a quantum meruit.

31. A real estate broker suing and solely relying on a special contract for his commission cannot recover upon a quantum meruit.

32. A real estate broker suing and solely relying on a special contract for his commission cannot recover upon a quantum meruit.

33. A real estate broker suing and solely relying on a special contract for his commission cannot recover upon a quantum meruit.

34. A real estate broker suing and solely relying on a special contract for his commission cannot recover upon a quantum meruit.

35. A real estate broker suing and solely relying on a special contract for his commission cannot recover upon a quantum meruit.

36. A real estate broker suing and solely relying on a special contract for his commission cannot recover upon a quantum meruit.

37. A real estate broker suing and solely relying on a special contract for his commission cannot recover upon a quantum meruit.

38. A real estate broker suing and solely relying on a special contract for his commission cannot recover upon a quantum meruit.

Supreme Court Syllabi

39. Opinion against Loomis-Wiles Co. v. C. C. Appeal from Douglas. Reversed and cause dismissed. Plaintiff to pay costs in district court. Letton, J.

40. The process of injunction cannot be availed of by a private citizen to abate a public nuisance, unless he suffers special or peculiar injury therefrom, aside from that suffered by the general public.

41. Evidence examined and held that it fails to show that any special injury or damage to the plaintiff's property will result if the proposed sidewalk is laid according to the plan now contemplated by the defendant.

42. An order defining the right to vacate an appraisal of property for judicial sale on the ground that the appraiser's valuation was too low will, in the absence of a bill of exceptions embodying the evidence given at the hearing, be presumed to be correct.

43. The failure of a county clerk to include in his certificate a statement of the Junior to those for the satisfaction of which the defendants' land is to be sold, and his failure to attach the actual seal to said certificate, do not prejudice the owners of the equity of redemption and should not prevent the confirmation of a sale otherwise regular and lawful.

44. An owner, by a written contract, agreed to pay a real estate broker a commission of 5% if he should sell his 50-acre tract of land for $15 per acre.

45. A real estate broker suing and solely relying on a special contract for his commission cannot recover upon a quantum meruit.

46. A real estate broker suing and solely relying on a special contract for his commission cannot recover upon a quantum meruit.

47. A real estate broker suing and solely relying on a special contract for his commission cannot recover upon a quantum meruit.

48. A real estate broker suing and solely relying on a special contract for his commission cannot recover upon a quantum meruit.

49. A real estate broker suing and solely relying on a special contract for his commission cannot recover upon a quantum meruit.

50. A real estate broker suing and solely relying on a special contract for his commission cannot recover upon a quantum meruit.

51. A real estate broker suing and solely relying on a special contract for his commission cannot recover upon a quantum meruit.

52. A real estate broker suing and solely relying on a special contract for his commission cannot recover upon a quantum meruit.

53. A real estate broker suing and solely relying on a special contract for his commission cannot recover upon a quantum meruit.

54. A real estate broker suing and solely relying on a special contract for his commission cannot recover upon a quantum meruit.

55. A real estate broker suing and solely relying on a special contract for his commission cannot recover upon a quantum meruit.

56. A real estate broker suing and solely relying on a special contract for his commission cannot recover upon a quantum meruit.

57. A real estate broker suing and solely relying on a special contract for his commission cannot recover upon a quantum meruit.

Supreme Court Syllabi

58. Opinion against Loomis-Wiles Co. v. C. C. Appeal from Douglas. Reversed and cause dismissed. Plaintiff to pay costs in district court. Letton, J.

59. The process of injunction cannot be availed of by a private citizen to abate a public nuisance, unless he suffers special or peculiar injury therefrom, aside from that suffered by the general public.

60. Evidence examined and held that it fails to show that any special injury or damage to the plaintiff's property will result if the proposed sidewalk is laid according to the plan now contemplated by the defendant.

61. An order defining the right to vacate an appraisal of property for judicial sale on the ground that the appraiser's valuation was too low will, in the absence of a bill of exceptions embodying the evidence given at the hearing, be presumed to be correct.

62. The failure of a county clerk to include in his certificate a statement of the Junior to those for the satisfaction of which the defendants' land is to be sold, and his failure to attach the actual seal to said certificate, do not prejudice the owners of the equity of redemption and should not prevent the confirmation of a sale otherwise regular and lawful.

63. An owner, by a written contract, agreed to pay a real estate broker a commission of 5% if he should sell his 50-acre tract of land for $15 per acre.

64. A real estate broker suing and solely relying on a special contract for his commission cannot recover upon a quantum meruit.

65. A real estate broker suing and solely relying on a special contract for his commission cannot recover upon a quantum meruit.

66. A real estate broker suing and solely relying on a special contract for his commission cannot recover upon a quantum meruit.

67. A real estate broker suing and solely relying on a special contract for his commission cannot recover upon a quantum meruit.

68. A real estate broker suing and solely relying on a special contract for his commission cannot recover upon a quantum meruit.

69. A real estate broker suing and solely relying on a special contract for his commission cannot recover upon a quantum meruit.

70. A real estate broker suing and solely relying on a special contract for his commission cannot recover upon a quantum meruit.

71. A real estate broker suing and solely relying on a special contract for his commission cannot recover upon a quantum meruit.

72. A real estate broker suing and solely relying on a special contract for his commission cannot recover upon a quantum meruit.

73. A real estate broker suing and solely relying on a special contract for his commission cannot recover upon a quantum meruit.

74. A real estate broker suing and solely relying on a special contract for his commission cannot recover upon a quantum meruit.

75. A real estate broker suing and solely relying on a special contract for his commission cannot recover upon a quantum meruit.

76. A real estate broker suing and solely relying on a special contract for his commission cannot recover upon a quantum meruit.

Supreme Court Syllabi

77. Opinion against Loomis-Wiles Co. v. C. C. Appeal from Douglas. Reversed and cause dismissed. Plaintiff to pay costs in district court. Letton, J.

78. The process of injunction cannot be availed of by a private citizen to abate a public nuisance, unless he suffers special or peculiar injury therefrom, aside from that suffered by the general public.

79. Evidence examined and held that it fails to show that any special injury or damage to the plaintiff's property will result if the proposed sidewalk is laid according to the plan now contemplated by the defendant.

80. An order defining the right to vacate an appraisal of property for judicial sale on the ground that the appraiser's valuation was too low will, in the absence of a bill of exceptions embodying the evidence given at the hearing, be presumed to be correct.

81. The failure of a county clerk to include in his certificate a statement of the Junior to those for the satisfaction of which the defendants' land is to be sold, and his failure to attach the actual seal to said certificate, do not prejudice the owners of the equity of redemption and should not prevent the confirmation of a sale otherwise regular and lawful.

82. An owner, by a written contract, agreed to pay a real estate broker a commission of 5% if he should sell his 50-acre tract of land for $15 per acre.

83. A real estate broker suing and solely relying on a special contract for his commission cannot recover upon a quantum meruit.

84. A real estate broker suing and solely relying on a special contract for his commission cannot recover upon a quantum meruit.

85. A real estate broker suing and solely relying on a special contract for his commission cannot recover upon a quantum meruit.

86. A real estate broker suing and solely relying on a special contract for his commission cannot recover upon a quantum meruit.

87. A real estate broker suing and solely relying on a special contract for his commission cannot recover upon a quantum meruit.

88. A real estate broker suing and solely relying on a special contract for his commission cannot recover upon a quantum meruit.

89. A real estate broker suing and solely relying on a special contract for his commission cannot recover upon a quantum meruit.

90. A real estate broker suing and solely relying on a special contract for his commission cannot recover upon a quantum meruit.

91. A real estate broker suing and solely relying on a special contract for his commission cannot recover upon a quantum meruit.

92. A real estate broker suing and solely relying on a special contract for his commission cannot recover upon a quantum meruit.

93. A real estate broker suing and solely relying on a special contract for his commission cannot recover upon a quantum meruit.

94. A real estate broker suing and solely relying on a special contract for his commission cannot recover upon a quantum meruit.

95. A real estate broker suing and solely relying on a special contract for his commission cannot recover upon a quantum meruit.

Supreme Court Syllabi

96. Opinion against Loomis-Wiles Co. v. C. C. Appeal from Douglas. Reversed and cause dismissed. Plaintiff to pay costs in district court. Letton, J.

97. The process of injunction cannot be availed of by a private citizen to abate a public nuisance, unless he suffers special or peculiar injury therefrom, aside from that suffered by the general public.

98. Evidence examined and held that it fails to show that any special injury or damage to the plaintiff's property will result if the proposed sidewalk is laid according to the plan now contemplated by the defendant.

99. An order defining the right to vacate an appraisal of property for judicial sale on the ground that the appraiser's valuation was too low will, in the absence of a bill of exceptions embodying the evidence given at the hearing, be presumed to be correct.

100. The failure of a county clerk to include in his certificate a statement of the Junior to those for the satisfaction of which the defendants' land is to be sold, and his failure to attach the actual seal to said certificate, do not prejudice the owners of the equity of redemption and should not prevent the confirmation of a sale otherwise regular and lawful.

101. An owner, by a written contract, agreed to pay a real estate broker a commission of 5% if he should sell his 50-acre tract of land for $15 per acre.

102. A real estate broker suing and solely relying on a special contract for his commission cannot recover upon a quantum meruit.

103. A real estate broker suing and solely relying on a special contract for his commission cannot recover upon a quantum meruit.

104. A real estate broker suing and solely relying on a special contract for his commission cannot recover upon a quantum meruit.

105. A real estate broker suing and solely relying on a special contract for his commission cannot recover upon a quantum meruit.

106. A real estate broker suing and solely relying on a special contract for his commission cannot recover upon a quantum meruit.

107. A real estate broker suing and solely relying on a special contract for his commission cannot recover upon a quantum meruit.

108. A real estate broker suing and solely relying on a special contract for his commission cannot recover upon a quantum meruit.

109. A real estate broker suing and solely relying on a special contract for his commission cannot recover upon a quantum meruit.

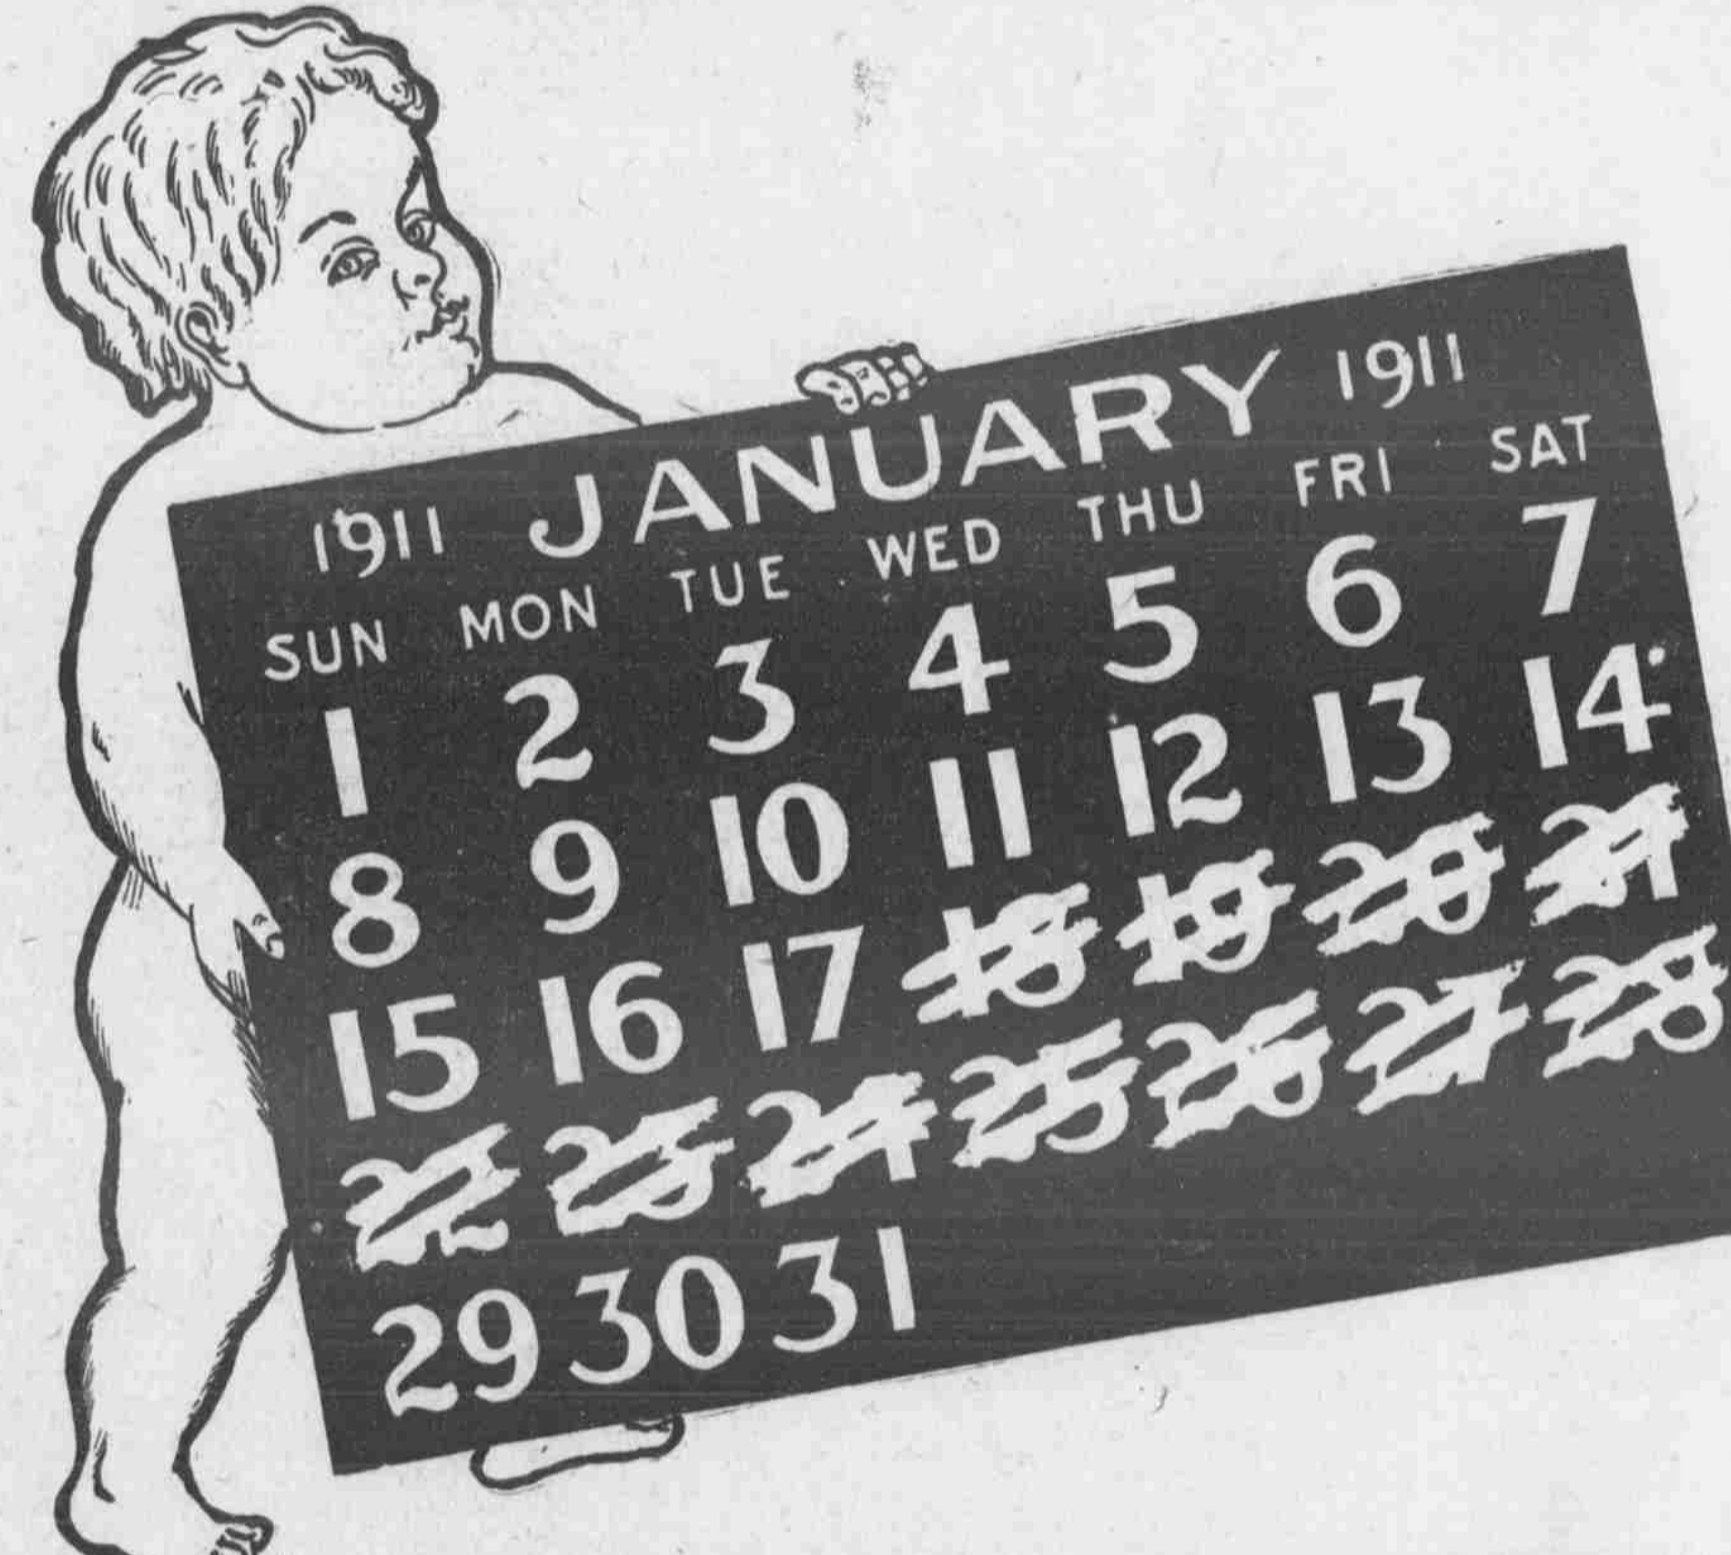

110. A real estate broker suing and solely relying on a special contract for his commission cannot recover upon a quantum meruit.

111. A real estate broker suing and solely relying on a special contract for his commission cannot recover upon a quantum meruit.

112. A real estate broker suing and solely relying on a special contract for his commission cannot recover upon a quantum meruit.

113. A real estate broker suing and solely relying on a special contract for his commission cannot recover upon a quantum meruit.

114. A real estate broker suing and solely relying on a special contract for his commission cannot recover upon a quantum meruit.

Remember the Dates Omaha Land Show January 18 to 28, 1911

The visit will show how to make this and many other years both happy, prosperous. It will show you the possibilities of the New West. It will show you how to farm in the New West and the Old West. It will furnish accurate data regarding investment opportunities. It will provide entertainment and amusement as well as information. There will be exhibits from Nebraska, South Dakota, Wyoming, Montana, Idaho, Utah, California, Oregon and Washington.

The Omaha Bee and The Twentieth Century Farmer

wish to convince the people about the wonderful possibilities of the west, and they are backing up the Western Land-Products Exhibit because they realize that an exhibit of this kind will show people more of the real truth about this wonderful section than any amount of pure talk; and their real interest in the upbuilding of this empire is due to the fact that they realize that it is upon the west that Omaha must depend for its future progress and greatness.

LAND INFORMATION BUREAU. So many of our readers have written us from time to time, asking us for reliable information as to soil, climate and value of land in localities in which they were thinking of locating or buying for investment, that we have decided to establish a Land Information Bureau. This bureau will make investigations and gather data, so that it will be able to either answer inquiries direct, or give parties wanting information the names of reliable persons to whom they can write. When writing, address Land Information Bureau, The Twentieth Century Farmer, Omaha, Neb. Price of Admission 25 Cents—takes you all through the show.