RECEPTION AT WHITE HOUSE

Weather Condition Cuts Down Attendance at Annual Function.

MRS. TAFT IN RECEIVING LINE

Presence of Three Members of Roosevelt Family in Blue Room Attracts Attention—Diplomats First in Line.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 2.—The New Year's reception in the White House was held today under weather conditions that tended to cut down materially the number that usually passes the receiving line in the blue room.

It was the second New Year's reception of the present administration. Mrs. Taft, who has gained much strength during the last year, stood with the president at the head of the line during practically the entire time the reception was in progress.

The presence of three members of the Roosevelt family in the blue room attracted attention. Mrs. Nicholas Longworth came early with her husband and brought with her Miss Ethel and Kermit Roosevelt, and all remained until the last of the citizens had been received.

Another family group was composed of the president's three brothers, Charles F. Taft of Cincinnati, Henry W. Taft of New York and Horace D. Taft of Watertown, Conn.

The White House was made attractive as usual with a wealth of floral decorations and Christmas greens. The marine band in full dress uniforms was drawn up in two sections in the main corridor and throughout the receiving the music was continuous.

Diplomats in the Lead.

The foreign ambassadors and ministers and the members of their families and suites were as usual given precedence. Many already had reached the White House and were waiting in line in the state dining room when four flourishes of the bugles announced the descent of the presidential party from the upper apartments. The president and Mrs. Taft were preceded by six aids. Then came the vice president and Mrs. Sherman and the members of the cabinet and their wives.

Baron von Hengelmüller, the Austria-Hungary ambassador, dean of the diplomatic corps at Washington, was first to pay his respects to the president and Mrs. Taft. He was attired in full court costume. The baroness was detained in the embassy by illness.

A full half hour was given over to the reception of the diplomats and the scene as they passed through the Red and Blue rooms to the East room was a most brilliant one. Practically every civilized nation was represented.

Ambassador Bryce of Great Britain who returned via Europe only yesterday from a trip through South America, held a little impromptu reception of his own in the East room, after paying his respects to the presidential party.

Miss Heade Army Lever.

As for many years, General Nelson A. Miles, retired, headed the long line of army officers who came in full dress uniforms. With him walked General Leonard Wood, the chief of staff of the army. All of the officers stationed in or about Washington were present.

Admiral Dewey was at the head of the naval contingent. He was followed by Admirals Wainwright and Potter, Commander

Robert E. Peary was in line with his fellow naval officers.

Following the army, the navy and marine corps delegations the president received departmental officials and the doors were thrown open for the reception of the general public. The president received 5,622 people, 500 more than last year.

Production of Lead, Copper and Zinc

Output of Lead in United States is Largest in Its History—Copper Consumption at Maximum.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 2.—The United States geological survey today made public figures on the 1910 production of copper, lead, zinc and tungsten in the United States. The copper output falls considerably short of the 1909 production, but is above any previous year. The 1910 figures for blister and lake copper are 1,079,000 pounds against 1,082,624 pounds in 1909. The consumption of copper in the United States was the largest on record, reaching 200,000,000 pounds. Exports were also about 200,000,000 pounds.

For 1910 Arizona again takes the lead among the copper producing states and territories. The lead smelting industry had a busy year, the total output exceeding that of 1909 by a comfortable margin. The total production of refined lead in the United States from foreign and domestic ores was approximately 49,600 short tons, worth at the average New York price, $4,322,018 as compared with 46,112 tons in 1909. Missouri retained first place among the lead producing states.

The total production of zinc in the United States in 1910 broke all records, totaling 37,428 tons, worth at average price, $5,981,584 as compared with 26,760 tons in 1909.

There was strong demand for tungsten ore throughout the year and the production rose to 1,254 short tons, valued at $322,592.

Zyasko Defeats Lemm.

BUFFALO, N. Y., Jan. 2.—Stanislaus Zyasko, the Polish wrestler, this afternoon defeated John Lemm, the Swiss, in two straight falls, the first in one minute and thirty seconds and the second by default. In the first Lemm lifted the Pole clear off the floor, but lost his balance and fell backward with his bulky opponent on top of him.

Prospective English Peers All Draw Disappointments

LONDON, Jan. 2.—Much surprise was occasioned by the absence from the New Year honors issued tonight of any new peerages. The political prophets had predicted an unusually large list of peerages, the names of Richard B. Haldane, secretary for war, and others having been mentioned. Some conservative papers have talked of the appointment of as many as twenty or thirty new peers.

The omission is susceptible to two possible explanations. Either the king would not sanction, or Premier Asquith was reluctant to recommend the creation of peers while the difficult question relating to the House of Lords remained unsettled. Doubtless many unionists will jump at the conclusion that the prime minister failed to obtain the required guarantee

Senator Lodge Will Address Members of Bay State Legislature

This Speech Will Be His Sole Reply to Attacks Made on Him by Governor-Elect Foss.

BOSTON, Jan. 2.—An account of his eighteen years' stewardship as one of the Massachusetts representatives in the upper branch of congress will be given tomorrow night by Senator Henry Cabot Lodge in an address in Symphony hall to those members of the legislature who favor his re-election for a fourth term.

The friends of Senator Lodge assert his address will be the effort of his life. All agree the senior senator has reached the crisis in his political career.

The address comes on the eve of the convening of the legislature, which two weeks from tomorrow will vote on the senatorship. The meeting tomorrow night is in response to a request by representative members of the legislature. The address will be Senator Lodge's sole reply to numerous attacks especially those of Governor-elect Eugene N. Foss.

While Senator Lodge is addressing the majority of the republican members of the legislature, the democrats of the house will hold a caucus in the state house for the purpose of selecting a candidate for speaker and perhaps to plan a legislative campaign that may include the senatorship.

SIDNEY, Neb., Jan. 2.—(Special Telegram)—Fred Huxell, aged 27 years, a Union Pacific engineer, was fatally injured here this morning by being knocked down by the local switch engine while walking in the center of the railroad track. The wind and snow was blowing a gale and the steam from the engine shut out the view of the engine's approach. LEATHER FRAUDULENTLY LOADED WITH GLUCOSE

Hide Products Impregnated with Chemicals to Increase Weight Are Injured in Texture.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 2.—Fraudulent "loading" of leather by the use of glucose and other materials is being practiced to an immense extent to the great detriment of lower quality of shoes, according to information laid before congress by Dr.

Wiley, the chemist of the department of agriculture. Dr. Wiley has gathered a collection of samples of this loaded leather and has pronounced the work "a simple fraud."

"Especially is sole leather loaded," said Dr. Wiley. "Glucose adds to the weight of the leather and of course when you go out into the wet and snow, the glucose, which is soluble, runs out and the water runs into its place. There ought to be some law to prevent the practice."

Five Small Children Are Burned to Death

Fire Started by New Year Celebrators at Pottsville, Pa., Destroys Three Houses.

POTTSVILLE, Pa., Jan. 2.—The five children of John Markasavage lost their lives today at Minersville, near here, in a fire which destroyed three houses. The children ranged in age from 2 months to 8 years.

The origin of the fire is credited to a New Year's celebration by boarders in one of the houses, an upset oil tank, it is said, starting the blaze. When the fire was discovered Mr. Markasavage and his wife ran into the street, and being unable to speak English, gave rescuers the impression that there were no children in the house and they made no effort to enter the place. The father, however, unmindful of the flames dashed back into his home, but failed to reach the little ones. He was seriously burned.

Farther south, along the Guatemalan border, it is reported the revolutionists, 500 strong and including many Americans armed with modern rifles, two field pieces and a plentiful supply of ammunition, are preparing for a march through Santa Barbara to Tegucigalpa, the capital.

ATTORNEY SCORES D'AULBY

Public Prosecutor Says Accusations in Some Instances Have Been Proved.

TOURS, France, Jan. 2.—The public prosecutor in summing up his argument today at the trial of "Count" d'Aulby de Getigny, who is charged by the Duchesse Choleul-Praslin, formerly Mrs. Charles Hamilton Paine of Boston, with swindling her out of $200,000 through the sale of spurious pictures, admitted that the charge in connection with the picture "Astipone," which the Paines bought for $18,000 had not been proven, but he insisted that the accusations in connection with "Corots" and the "Mignard" had been well established. He asked for the conviction, therefore, of d'Aulby de Getigny, whom he considered a "high flying swindler and adventurer, who lived luxuriously by throwing powder into the eyes of his victims."
