

That soft, yielding feeling that comes with a walk over a finely textured rug is one of the delights of being entertained in a well-furnished home. One likes to stroll across carpets that cling and detain. As you sink into the soft, firm textures you are challenged by the beauty and design. In our rugs one feels a delay like the touch of a fond mother. During the January Green Seal of Quality sale all our rugs are being sold at astonishingly low prices. They are in hundreds of latest styles, patterns and designs.
