

INDICTMENTS BY GRAND JURY

Wholesale Murder Charged in Los Angeles Explosion Case.

OVER TWO HUNDRED WITNESSES

Labor Leaders Are Summoned from San Francisco Who Were Supposed to Have Known Three Suspects.

LOS ANGELES, Jan. 6.—The grand jury in the Los Angeles Times explosion case returned twenty-two indictments yesterday.

Wholesale murder, the outcome of a dynamite plot, is understood to be the charge set forth in all the indictments, but it is believed that not more than three or four men are named in the true bills.

The return of the indictments today was the culmination of a disaster that excited the people of Los Angeles to a degree that for a few days bordered almost upon panic, and resulted in the offering of rewards aggregating almost $100,000.

The subject of union labor, which the Times and its proprietors had opposed, was injected into the situation and when the special grand jury was impaneled on October 2, it was immediately confronted with two conflicting theories.

One of these supported by the findings of an investigating committee appointed by Mayor Alexander, was that the Times plant had been blown up by dynamite conspirators. The other, presented by a committee named by the state buildings trades convention, then in session here, was that the Times was responsible.

Forty Witnesses Summoned.

More than forty witnesses, the majority of them identified with the union labor movement, were summoned from San Francisco and other cities. In addition labor union officials were summoned. In all, the grand jury examined more than 300 persons, who in the opinion of detectives, could throw some light on the alleged murder plot.

Among the labor leaders summoned from San Francisco were Chief E. T. Tvetmo and Anton Johannsen, who were supposed to have known J. H. Bryce, M. A. Schmidt and David Kaplan, three suspects in the case, who were in this city for a few hours after the explosion, but subsequently disappeared.

According to the detectives, Bryce, Schmidt and Kaplan were the three who purchased from a San Francisco powder firm the dynamite used to destroy the Times, and part of which was later found in the infernal machine planted under the residence of Felix J. Zechandlaar, secretary of the Merchants and Manufacturers' association. This organization had opposed the extension of labor unions in this city.

Two days ago, an additional reward of $2,000 was formally offered by the County Board of Supervisors for their capture.

NEW MYSTERY IN LONDON

Body of Murdered Man Found with Peculiar Marks on Each Cheek.

LONDON, Jan. 6.—Another element of mystery developed today in the inquiry into the death of Joseph Beron, whose mutilated body was found on Clapham commons last Sunday. The murder is attributed by the police to the Houndditch anarchists' burglary gang, two members of which were killed in the raid on their den Tuesday. The physicians who examined Beron's body said that they found on each cheek a wound clearly cut in the form of the letter "S". The police declare this deliberate cutting did not cause death, was quite symmetrical and obviously symbolical of a secret society. They had never seen anything of the sort before. The inquest was adjourned to January 30.

The police accept the theory that Beron was killed by the members of an organization, who left the sign of their order upon the body of the victim. The police are not satisfied that "Peter the Painter" was one of the two men killed in the Sydney street battle and are now working on the theory that he is alive and still at large. Throughout the night 300 armed officers searched the district of the east side and another spectacular fight is feared should the fugitive be cornered.

BONILLA ESTABLISHES BASE

Honduran Revolutionary Expedition Arrives at Bay Island—Next Move Anxiously Awaited.

PUERTO CORTEZ, Honduras, Jan. 6.—By wireless from New Orleans, Jan. 6, the Honduran revolutionary expedition headed by Manuel Bonilla today arrived at Bay Island and established a base of operations on Ruanan Island, one of the group lying 100 miles from this port and forty miles from La Ceiba.

The next move of the revolutionists is anxiously awaited by the Davila administration. The actions of the expedition are keeping every one puzzled.

TEGUCIGALPA, Honduras, Jan. 6.—Advices from Puerto Cortes say that the gunboat Hornet, which in the service of Manuel Bonilla, who recently proclaimed himself president of the republic, has started back to New Orleans.

In his message to congress yesterday President Davila said that on the invitation of the United States government Honduras would send financial assistance to the United States.

POLICE CAPTAIN SHOT IN ROOM

Paroled Convict Sought in Connection with Assault on Spokane Officer.

SPOKANE, Jan. 6.—While sitting in his home about 9:30 o'clock tonight, Police Captain John Sullivan was shot by an unidentified person, who fired through the window. Sullivan was taken to a hospital and it is said he cannot recover. He was formerly chief of police.

The police are looking for a convict whose capture and conviction for robbery was brought about by Captain Sullivan and who was recently paroled against the vigorous opposition of the police captain. He is alleged to have declared that he would "get" Sullivan.

PRIESTS SACRIFICE LIVES

Aid Students and Teachers to Escape from Burning College Building.

GRANBY, Que., Jan. 6.—Brothers Daniel and Louciers, superior and assistant superior of St. Joseph's college, lost their lives in a fire which destroyed the college building last night. Both remained in the burning building aiding thirty-three students and twenty-nine teachers to escape. Brother Daniel finally jumped from a window and was fatally injured, while Brother Louciers perished in the building. Students and teachers had to flee from the flames in night attire. As the thermometer was about 25 degrees below zero they suffered severely. The college building, which cost $1,000, was ruined.

Engine Driver and Fireman Killed in Wreck in Kansas

Heavy Passenger Train Drawn by Two Engines Strikes Freight on Curve.

MULVANE, Kan., Jan. 6.—Northbound passenger train No. 18, on the Atchison, Topeka & Santa Fe railroad, due in Kansas City at 7 o'clock yesterday, was wrecked on a curve about a mile and a half south of here at 10 o'clock tonight.

A freight train was trying to make a siding in the Mulvane yards when the heavy passenger train drawn by two engines ran into its rear. The passenger was going at the rate of about fifty miles an hour and because of the curve, the passenger engine did not see the lights of the freight until almost on it.

The fireman and engineer of the lead engine of the passenger were killed. The dead: JOHN RHELDERS, engineer, Newton. O. H. ZERNSTEIN, fireman, Newton. Not a passenger was injured.

The wreckage took fire and three baggage and mail cars burned, but the contents were saved. The rest of the passenger train was saved, as passengers train crew and residents of Mulvane pushed the coaches back, one by one, from the burning cars. The last car saved was a baggage car which was burning at one end.

The chemical engine of the Mulvane fire department was rushed to the scene behind an automobile and succeeded in saving this car. Two bodies which were being transferred by express in one of the burned cars were saved with great difficulty as the wreck occurred in a fifteen-foot embankment. An unidentified brakeman of the freight train is missing.

Mrs. Lillian Turnbull Finishes Her Story

Claimant Says Lucky Baldwin Introduced Her to Charles Fair as His Wife.

LOS ANGELES, Cal., Jan. 6.—Mrs. Lillian Turnbull resumed the stand today and held her own against the attorneys who are opposing the contest of her daughter to obtain $200,000 of the late "Lucky" Baldwin's estate.

Under cross-examination she recalled not only a number of persons to whom the turfman had introduced her as his wife, but remembered at least two to whom she had introduced him as her husband.

"Mr. Baldwin introduced me as Mrs. Baldwin to Mr. Charles Fair and a milliner named Ray Wilson," said Mrs. Turnbull, and then she started counsel for the estate by remarking that she had not named either Fair, or the milliner, because her own attorneys had told her not to mention them until the cross-examiner asked the question.

The attorneys for the estate relinquished the witness after a cross-examination lasting in all, nearly seven days. Dr. J. W. Truseworthy, who, Mrs. Turnbull said, attended her at the birth of her child, was the next witness.

Pomerene Will Be Senator from Ohio

Joint Caucus of Democrats Nominates Canton Man on the First Ballot.

COLUMBUS, O., Jan. 6.—Atlee Pomerene of Canton will be elected United States senator from Ohio at a joint session of the general assembly next Wednesday, as a result of action taken today at a joint caucus of democrats. Pomerene won the caucus nomination on the first ballot when he received forty-five votes, the exact number required.

Next Monday he will be inaugurated as lieutenant governor of Ohio. Although his term in the senate begins in March he will serve as lieutenant governor, which capacity he presides over the Ohio senate until the end of the present session, which may extend until after May 1. His successor as lieutenant governor will be appointed by Governor Harmon.

AGED COUPLE BURNS TO DEATH

Bodies of Mr. and Mrs. Chris Nelson Found in Ruins of Home in Yankton.

YANKTON, S. D., Jan. 6.—(Special Telegram.)—Burned almost beyond recognition, the charred bodies of Mr. and Mrs. Chris Nelson, an aged couple, were taken from their burned residence last night by Yankton firemen. The old man was found seated on the side of his bed already dead and frightfully burned. His wife was not found until the house collapsed, when long hooks brought it to light from out of a heap of live coals. Nothing is known of the origin of the fire, the house being in full blaze when first discovered by neighbors.

MISS PANKHURST IN NEW YORK

Militant Leader Says British Women Will Get Ballot Within Year.

NEW YORK, Jan. 6.—Miss E. Sylvia Pankhurst, daughter of the leader of the British militant suffragettes, and who has been imprisoned because of her activity in the cause in the streets of London, is here to instruct American women in the latest English methods of bringing about women's suffrage.

"Will the English women get the ballot?" she was asked. "They will," was the prompt reply. "We will get the ballot in a year's time."

Joseph G. Robin Turns His Shoulder on Aged Parents

NEW YORK, Jan. 6.—"What's the matter with you anyway?" asked Joseph G. Robin, the fallen banker, today, of the gray-headed couple who say they are his parents. Annoyed, ill at ease, by turns smiling and scowling, he refused to have anything to do with them, or even to admit that his parents were in this country. In his denials his sister, Dr. Louise Robinovitch, who has been constantly beside him, took the same firm stand. In Brooklyn a newspaper reporter found a humble old pair named Robinovitch, who thought Robin might be their son. Detectives brought them to the criminal courts building today, questioned them about their family history and then arraigned to have them meet Robin.

"No," said he, "I don't want to see them, and nobody can make me. They're nothing to me."

It was necessary to lead him to the district attorney's office with assurance that he need answer only a few questions. Once there, Mr. and Mrs. Herman Robinovitch were brought into the room. The woman had the quicker eyes.

"My son, my son," she cried, half in Yiddish, half in English; "this is my son, and she made as if to embrace him. Robin smiled and turned his shoulder.

"Ask him, if he is not my son," she protested to the district attorney. It was then that Robin started the room with his abrupt question. The woman, who says she is his mother, shrank as if she had been struck, and broke out in lamentations.

Her husband, whose sight is not of the best, and who understands no English, had been peering anxiously at Robin. The old man took a step closer, looked him narrowly between the eyes and affirmed positively:

"This is my son. I know him."

Senator La Follette Takes Stand in the McMurray Inquiry

Wisconsin Man Testifies that Senator Gore Told Him of Offer of Bribe in May.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 6.—Despite the protests of the attorneys for J. F. McMurray, the Oklahoma lawyer, Senator Gore succeeded in having Senator La Follette put on the stand today before the special investigating committee appointed by the house.

Senator La Follette testified that Senator Gore had told him early in May, before the latter's disclosure to the senate, that Jacob Hamon had offered him a money consideration if he would let up in his opposition to the McMurray Indian land contract.

Senator Gore said he wanted to prove by Senator La Follette that he had talked over with him the matter of the alleged attempt at bribery, before making his public statement on the floor of the senate.

END OF THE PARLOR MATCH

Representative Mann Introduces Bill Prohibiting Transportation of Phosphorus Sticks.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 6.—The "parlor" match ordinarily used in the United States is to be prohibited in the future if a bill introduced today by Representative Mann of Illinois becomes law. The bill prohibits the transportation of white or yellow phosphorus matches under the penalty of a fine of $100 and imprisonment for three years.

To prevent any concern from acquiring a monopoly of other processes Mr. Mann's bill provides that any manufacturer may secure from the circuit court a writ compelling the owner of the patent rights of other processes to grant a license to the manufacturer at a reasonable figure.

Recent investigations by the government have shown that the use of phosphorus in the making of matches is attended with such danger to the health of the employees that President Taft urged in his message legislation looking toward a betterment of conditions.
