Little or No Change in Status of Business.

Prices at All Leading Centers Still Display Tendency Toward Greater Wenkness and Buyers Are Holding Back.

NEW YORK, Jan. 7 -- R. G. Dun's Weekly There is little or no change in the status of the larger trades. Contraction of output continues in iron and steel, but the outcouraging.

An import demand is again in evidence, principally for good lots of country hides, and this has had a strengthening effect on BRADSTREET'S REVIEW OF TRADE Weather Stimulates Demand for All Seasonable Goods.

NEW YORK, Jen. 7 .- Bradstreet's today untrywide cold weather, especially severe west and south, has stimulated de-mand for heavy winter wearing apparer, and combined with usual clearance sales has made for a rather better than average clearance sales are reported.

In industry quiet still rules. Iron and steel are dull and pig iron stocks are accumulating. Cold weather has helped coal consumption, and sales are active of bituminous coal at the west and of anthracite at the east. No shortages of supply are reported, however.

The leather trades are quiet and reports of a widespread stoppage of work in tanneries give firmness to stocks of finisham learance sales are reported.
