VOL. XL-NO. 30.

OMAHA, SUNDAY MORNING, JANUARY 8, 1911.

SINGLE COPY FIVE CENTS.

Political and Social News by Cable and Correspondence from the Old World

BRITONS LOOKING

Churchill, Liberal Leader, Outlines a Program for the Asquith Ministry.

HAVE THE VOTES TO GET ACTION Government Can Put Through Any Reasonable Legislation.

NOTABLE REFORMS ARE PLANNED Include National Insurance and Reform of Poor Law.

PLURAL VOTING TO BE ABOLISHED

Great Estates Are Being Cut Ep and Sold Throughout the Kingdom, the Duke of Belford Now Selling.

BY PAUL LAMBETH,

LONDON, Jan. 7 .- (Special to The Bee.)-The election being over and the liberals having been assured of numerical strength in Parliament sufficient to carry out pretty nearly any program they may decide upon, the people may depend upon securing any reform within reasonable bounds which they may ask for. Lest there might be and doubt on the subject Mr. Churchill, as of the liberal leaders, has come out with an emphatic declaration as to the program of the party. Speaking at Parkstone recently he said in the course of an address which was applauded enthusiasti-

"After the veto has gone it is my hope and belief that the new Parliament may come together as no Parliament has yet great problems which stare us in the face fuel and destroying plants. The people in emperor, and the second consisting of ant stationed at Metz, named Backhaus, and to consolidate and fortify the strength, the peace and the glory of our common parish priest and some with the curate, with secret ballot, the franchise being excountry. After all, deep and wide as are resulting in bitter feeling. The defendant tended to all nationals over 25 years of our party differences, strong as are the won the suit. contrasts of feeling and conviction, of temdiversity our political life, the overwhelming majority of British men and women stand true and clear for peace abroad, for law and order at home, for the reconciliation of races within the kingdom, for the in a trap through the streets of Ballina unity and consolidation of the empire, for and their extraordinary behavior attracted Z and three votes to electors over 45 years They lost $3.500. Lieutenant Backhaus, a supreme and unchallengeable navy, for a the attention of the police, who placed of age. better, a fairer and more scientific oron of the social life of the people, and for industrial progress.

Hopes for Good Work.

"We stand for all that, and I have hopes the reform of the poor law, in the development of national resources, in the training of our youth, in relieving the imperial sidered plans of devolution, in the work of Gruesome Story reconciling the two islands by giving Ireland a Parliament for the management of purely Irish affairs, in prison reform, even the reform of our electoral laws and the redistribution of constituencies-it is my hope that the new house may find in great deal more common ground than is

"I think that it is the wish of every one of us that the coronation of the king should display to all the world, not only the abiding loyalty of the British empire to the institution of monarchy and its attachment to the person of the sovereign, should also make manifest the deep and fundamental unities which underlie the clamorous conflicts of British national life, that there should be a season to his place. More Augustical life, that there should be a season to his place. More Augustical life, that there should be a season to his place. More Augustical life, that there should be a season to his place. More Augustical life, that there should be a season to his place. of rejoicing and of amilty, of concord and good feeling in which liberal and conserva- him pocket-money. Arrangements of this tive, churchman and nonconformist, shall kind are quite usual in this country. bear their part, in which Weishmen and Scotsmen shall be conspicuous, and from daughters, went to live at the farm, and which Ireland shall not be excluded."

make up their minds to the liberal solution farm again. of the great problems of the day-abolition | One night recently, he tried to kill them of the veto of the House of Lords, disestablishment of the Weish church, maintenance of free trade, grant of self-govern-

May Abolish Plural Voting. It is more than probable that the priv-Hege of plural voting will be abolished by the new Parliament. Under the system it is possible for a man to legally vote four or five times.

How necessary it is for the government the results of the elections in the county constituencies. An analysis of the polls in daughter, her throat cut, and on the other a cellar to a ring fastened in the wall. On these divisions proves that but for the bed the child of five, lay mounting. plural voters the tories not only would not M. Aussenac left the room to look for the trial was held, were several implements have gained a single seat, but would have lost several. In the five sexts wen by them, and in fifteen of the twenty-five held on the politings which took place on December 7 and 8, the plural voters outnumbered the majorities enormously in

Menzies Estate to Be Sold. The Perthablic estates of Sir Nell Mengics will be sold at auction in May, con- the window. fisting of Bannock Lodge estate, of about anour, 20.000 acres. Aldwark manor, near whole story. York, which has been in the family of Lord Walsingham for centuries, is to be sold by action next year. The property Four Heroines extends to some 2.400 acres and includes the picturesque village of Aldwark. The duke of Belford has decided to offer a part of his Devoushire estate for sale next May. The whole of his house and shop property at Tavistock and at Plymstock and Creston, will be disposed of white valuable tots of accommodation and building land at those places will also be offered, together with numerous farms in the purishes of Tavistock, Brentor, Lamerton, Milton Abbot, Petertavy and Plym- house at Mourison, near Tondella, where conducted in a friendly spirit, we have stuck. He is one of the greatest landowners in the country, owning in all over $4.000 lady friends courageously endeavored to idea that an open exchange of views, folzeros, besides valuable property in the city, effect her rescue. Rearing ladders to the lowed by an understanding on the mutual Over 10,000 was realized at the first day's upper windows they entered the blasing economical and political interests of the sale at Tunbridge Wells of about 5.000 acres house, and presently were seen to return two countries, would be the best means of of Lord De La Barr's Buckhurst estate, to the window bearing the girl in their removing any distrust arising from the

A Thackersy cenenary commemoration fund has been formed in Calcutta, the city of the novelist's birth. Leonard Jenwas boptized, January 12, 1813.

Been in Parliament.

ALWAYS REPRESENTED WEXFORD Village Fend Cause of Outrages and

Court Trini-Two Brothers and a Sister Become Insune at Same Time.

BY THOMAS EMMET.

BUBLIN, Jan. 7 .- (Special to The Bee.)he Redmond family to which the Irish a distinction almost unparalleled in Parl'amentary history.

William Archer Redmond, who was se lected for the representation of East Tyrone, an Ulster constituency, is the son of the leader of the Irish party. He bears the name of his grandfather, who for many years represented Wexford in Parliament. Already members of the family for three generations have sat in Parliament, and for their native county of Wexford, namely, John Redmond and his brother, William Redmond their father and their great uncle.

Grief in Village Feud. How a village feud, brought about through the people taking sides over a dispute between a priest and a curate, led to outrages was told at the hearing of a slander action brought here by John Smyth, Patrick O'Reilly and others against James Smith, a Ballyhally farmer. Drung branch of the United Irish league stag are eliminated as factors in the legis-One of the plaintiffs stated that eight or lation of the province. Two chambers are ten outrages were committed in Drung, provided for, the first consisting of eigh-The outrages included window breaking, teen representatives; either ex-officio or breaking into a Catholic chapel, injury to elected by the various trades or profesfarm implements, tossing hay, burning sions, and of eighteen designated by the and is laid by a German artiflery fleutenthe parish took sides, some with the members elected by universal suffrage

Insanity Hits Whole Family. A family of two brothers and a sister named Kilcullen, the eldest 25, suddenly lost their reason the other day in Mayo. office, or are engaged in legal practice, or The brothers were seen driving furiously them under arrest.

for the due correction of the abuses of aroused suspicions and when a doctor was protestant and Jewish communities, repwealth and monopoly, for religious equality called in the two men were declared to be resentatives each of the agricultural or- shortly afterwards returned to his garriinsane. At their house, six miles away, about the time that the brothers were ar- representative of the University of Strassthat the new House of Commons may find rested and she and the two men were rein great schemes of national insurance, in moved to the asylum the same evening. A year ago another brother became in-

of Peculiar Tragedy Caused by Money

all these immense and necessary labors a Uncle Makes Property Over to His Niece, Then Murders Her to Get it Back.

> PARIS, Jan. 7 .- (Special to The Bee.) and the suicide of a man whose wife and to all official careers in the army or civil daughter had been murdered Jean Chanel, service. To the two young criminals in a prosperous farmer, who had lost his wife four months ago, made a deed of to his niece, Mme. Aussenac, who was tion, in return to support her uncle and to give Mme. Aussenac, with her husband and two did all in their power to console the old Addressing an assemblage at Dundee, he man. By French law a deed of gift is irsaid: 'They have tried conclusions with us revocable. He found out that if his niece once too often. This time they are knocked and her daughters died he would become a fail in the flat, had to force their way Swiss Women clean out of the ring. They have got to their heir. He would be the owner of his in Each door was locked, and as each by putting poison in their soup; prompt medical aid balked the poison plot, but did not alter Chanel's design to commit murder ment for ireland and abolition of piural The head of the house was off on a business trip at the time. It was night when Aussenac returned. All was dark at the farmhouse, and the door was locked. M. Aussenac banged at it and listened. At first he heard nothing, then he heard his formatory, Mielschin, are alleged against younger daughter's voice call to him. He the director and eight subordinates. They the shutters were not closed upstairs. He with a horse whip, beating them with climbed up the side of the house, and got stocks on the soles of the feet and kneeto abolish plural voting, which operates into his daughter's bedroom. On the floor caps, of placing chains on the wrists and so unfairly against linewis, is shown by was Mme. Aussenac. Her head was ter- ankles of boys suspected of attempting to ribly battered; on the bed lay the elder escape and of chalning another youth in > uncle. Chanel had run up to the garret. M. Aussenac searched room after room—the dipline in the establishment. These ingarret last of all. But as he burst in there he heard a shout of savage triumph. The window of the garret was open. Aussenac ran to the window, looked out, and ran downstairs again. He unlocked the farm door, and there, upon the stone in front of It, he found the murderer. But, the old man was dead; had thrown himself out of stag recently, the imperial chancellor said;

Next morning a villager found the body and alleged negotiations with that country pe.000 acres; Foss estate, 6.370 acres; Cam- of M. Aussenac in a pond. He could not on the subject of limiting naval arma-Talledh-a-Bheithe, 10,000 acres, and Crag- himself, leaving a letter which told the dare say, well known that the British gov-

Brave Portuguese Women Attempt to Rescue Sick Girl and All Perish.

LISBON, Jan. 7 .- (Special to The Bec.)-A destructive fire broke out in a dwelling amonts. But in the informal pourpariers, an invalid girl lay in bed helpless. Four always laid emphasis on the fundamental

Just, however, as it appeared that their navies. The very continuance of such an venture was to meet the reward of success exchange of views gives evidence of the in spite of the flames which developed the friendly intentions prevailing on either side. nings, has been commissioned to execute small company, the building collapsed it may gradually remove the distrust which a marble bust of Thackery, to be placed bodily, and the five women, uttering plercin St. John's church, Calcutta, where he ing acreams, were enguifed in what was ernments, but, unhappily, often in public literally a flery furnace.

REDMOND FAMILY A WINNER KAISER KIND TO

Conquered Provinces to Be Given Constitution Embodying Home Rule Principle.

TAKEN AS A SIGN OF PROGRESS Will Have an Appointive and an Elective Chamber.

PLURAL VOTING IS PROVIDED FOR eader, John Redmond, belongs has had Electors Over 35 Two Votes, Over 45 Three Votes.

HEADS OF THE CHURCHES GET IN

Chancellor Discusses the Naval Program of the Empire with Reference to Proposals of England.

BY MALCOM CLARKE. HERLIN, Jan. 7 .- (Special to The Bee.)-Progress is gaining here slowly but steadily. This is shown by recent events. One is practically granting a constitution to the conquered provinces of Alsace Lorraine, which was wrung by Prussia from France forty years ago. The other were petty officers in the imperial navy. The proposed constitution for the conquered province of Alsace-Lorraine pro vides for home rule and manhood suf-The defendant was secretary of the frage. The federal council and the Reich-> ecclesiastical or scholastic service. Two votes are allowed to electors over commune over three years, or held land on which they have resided for the year or pursue a permanent trade or agricul-

The ex-officio members of the upper ganizations, the chambers of commerce their sister became suddenly demented and the proposed new labor chambers, a phatic request from Count Metternich for local authorities.

Naval Engineers Sentenced. At a naval court-martial held at Kiel servitude each for brutal Ill-treatment of hours, while in a fainting condition On the following day the man died.

Hazers Favored. That hazing is not only winked at, but encouraged, is shown by the fact that Emperor William has commuted the sentence of a week's "imprisonment" passed on two Bonn students for "ragging" to a From Lompian comes the story of a week's "detention." The sentence of imquestion, both of whom belong to the 'nobility," that is to say, people who fol-

> Police Chase a Voice. The police have failed to find the owner of the voice which was heard in the flat of the eccentric old lady, Frau Hoffman, who was later found dead in her bed-

The police, summoned by the neighborn who had heard a scream and the sound of was broken open the police heard a voice protesting in the room beyond. The mysterious person is supposed to have escaped by the back stairs. The mystery was pursued no further, the body not being discovered by the police, who abandoned search for a week

Cruelty in Reformatory. Terrible punishments in the boys' recould not get in at the ground floor, but are accused of having whipped the boys the table of the court here, where the alleged to have been used in securing disciuded a cat-o'-nine-talls, manacles, handcuffs and chains. The defense is that stern measures were necessary to keep the boys under control.

Germany's Naval Program Discussing naval limitation in the Reich-"As regards our relations with England ernment has repeatedly advanced the idea strength, of the navies of the several The Hague conference. Since then Eng- or tennis. land has repeatedly referred again to the idea, without, however, making propositions which could have been either positively accepted or rejected. We likewise fall in with the desire cherished by England of avoiding rivalry in regard to armcomparative strength of their armies and opinion."

FOR BIG EVENTS For Three Generations the House Has | ALSACE-LORRAINE | New Navy Planned to Balk Any Move in the Adriatic.

AUSTRIAN COUNT UNDER ARREST Is Charged with Swindling a German

> Officer at Cards-Dream of a Bishop, Put Into Print, Causes Trouble.

BY EMIL ANDRASSY VIENNA, Jan. 7 .- Special to The Bee.)ustria's naval program is not being pushed with an idea of helping out Germany in any collision she may have with England, but solely for the purpose of forstalling any attempt Italy may make dominate the Adriatic and take Trieste. This statement comes from high sources While both Italy and Austria are member of the Triple Alliance and are nominally at least friends, the feeling is growing here that Rome aspires to be recognized as the mistress of the Adriatic and would welcome any shifting of the cards which would give her Trieste. Austria realizes that she must have t fleet equal to that of Italy if she is to hold her own. This is the reason for the ambitious super-Dreadnaught program.

Count Under Arrest High play at rouge et noir in a London hotel has led to the arrest in Vienna of was the conviction of two savages who the young Count Gishert Wolff Metternich, aged 24, a nephew of the German ambassador in London Count Metter nich, who is at present engaged as secretary to a motor-car factory, three months ago married a favorite Viennese musical comedy actress.

As he has been a Prussian subject, he was transferred into the charge of the German police. The charge against him is alleged complicity in a gambling swindle He alleges that while on leave in London last summer he made the ecquaintance of the count, together with two other men age, provided they have resided in their Accompanied by his new friends, Lieuten ant Backhaus took in the "sights" of London. They dined at a hotel and after din ner played at rouge et noir, using matches ture on their own account, or hold public as counters.

At first the lieutenant won. It was then ternich should hold the bank together. having no money to pay his share, the count handed a cheque for the whole sum son at Metz. On receiving later an eminformed the police.

obtained a valuable pin on credit from a forest. So far he has not been captured. two engineer petty officers of the torpedo London jeweler by falsely representing boat were sentenced to seven years' penal himself to be a member of the German embassy, and that he fraudently withheld a stoker, causing the latter's death. Petty the proceeds of the sale of a norse belong-Officer Wroschke sent a recruit named ing to a lady in Berlin. The count's own Brandt in the furnace till the latter fainted. statement with reference to the rouge et Then he was brought out and abused for noir affair is that both he and Lieutenant Bishop's Dream Makes Trouble The dream of a Servian bishop has had some rather awkward consequences. In a letter to a friend Bishop Nikandor of Nisch said that he dreamt that a great revolution had taken place in Servia and double murder, the suicide of the assassin prisonment would have closed the roads Prince George remained master of the situation and became king of Servia. The bishop's friend published this letter, and an agitation against the bishop was commenced in Belgrade and Nisch, Finally responsible for his actions.

He thereupon lost his position, but in his own diocese a movement has been commenced for his reinstallation. Demonstrations in favor of the blahop, who enjoys great popularity, are also being made.

Protest Against Holiday for Men

Firm Employing Many Workers Put in an Embarrassing Position by the Protest.

ZURICH, Jan. 7 .- (Special to The Bee.)-Swiss housewives and maidens want no Saturday half holiday for their men. firm employing many men in this city recently decided to give its employes a half holiday on Saturday. Now practically all the wives and flances of the men have signed a petition asking that the Saturday half holiday should be withdrawn, on the ground that the men spend their liberty and money away from home, with disastrous results to family life and to the family exchequer.

The petition points out that Sunday has always been a holiday in Switzerland, and asks why a useless half holiday in the week should be added. To understand this should be stated that by the federal aws there is no compulsory closing of shops, cafes, places of amusement, etc., on the Sabbath, but that each canton is free to do as it pleases. In some of the cantons the cafes are obliged to be closed scricks, 5,000 acres; Corriewarkie, 5,000 acres; survive his wife's death, and he drowned ments, I wish to point out that it is, I during divine service, but this is not the rule in other cantons, while in the chief towns shops and cafes can remain open at that an arrangement stipulating the the will of their proprietors. As a general rule, the Swiss people go to church on powers would essentially contribute toward Sunday mornings, and afterwards tend Perish in Flames consolidating international relations. Engconsolidating international relations. Eng- their gardens and orchards, go to a mati-

DUTCH FORTIFICATIONS COST MANY MILLIONS

Neutrality of the Kingdom to Be Preserved by Substantial De-

THE HAGUE, Jan. 7 .- (Special to The See.)-The Dutch government has published an extract from the secret report on nuritime defenses in which it declares that the system of defense must give complete guarantees for the maintenance of Dutch neutrality. The fortifications of Texel are to be modernized, those of the port of Ymulden and of the Nieuwe Waterweg are to be completed, and the fortifications Naugen and Ellewoutsdyk are to be sup-

AUSTRIA IS WATCHING ITALY BRIAN TO CURB

Premier Expresses Fear that the French National May Drink Itself to Death.

WILL DRAFT A DRASTIC MEASURE Opera Bouffe Procedure by Eye Witnesses of Tragedy.

MURDERER EASILY GETS AWAY Rural Police Methods Shown Up as Utterly Foolish.

FUNERAL OF A FAITHFUL DOG Hearts of Long Dead Rulers Kept In Caskets in the Cathedral of St. Benis, Having a Special Room.

BY PAUL VILLIERS. PARIS, Jan. 7 .- (Special to The Bee.) - The liquor question promises to become a dominant issue in this country. It is likely before long the government will draft a drastic measure to reduce the number of drinking places, which are increasing at an alarming rate. Premier Briand has intimated his intentions both in the legislature. in interviews and in private. He recently said France was in danger of drinking itself to death. Penunuts Move Slowly. An extraordinary story of rural police nethods comes from Pontcarre, a little summer resort situated near the Forest of Armainvilliers, where a tramp murdered an old woman who kept a small inn. Hearing the old woman's screams, her neighbors, instead of giving the alarm, went off to fetch her husband in a village a mile away leaving the woman to her fate. The husband thought he had better tell the local watchman and went off to the latter's ouse. In his turn the watchman decided he must inform the mayor, who was working at Edourd de Rothschild's chauteau, in the neighborhood. At once the mayor set out for the scene, acompanied by the agreed, he says, that he and Count Met- Watchman, a commercial traveler who happened to be in the village and a shopkeeper Through the windows of the murdered roman's inn they could see the murderer rifling the rooms, but the mayor refused to Their strange answers and conduct chamber include the heads of the Catholic, to their opponents. Lieutenant Backhaus act until the gendarmes arrived. When the saw little more of his companions, and tramp came downstairs the party saw him stepping over his victim, who lay dead. Only after the guardians of public order had watched the violation of the law for the repayment of the $1,750 advanced to twenty minutes did the watchman decide burg and several representatives of the him. he conceived certain suspicions and to take action, crying: "Open in the name of the law," and beating on the door. But It is stated that further allegations are the murderer opened a back window and nade against Count Metternich- that he escaped easily into the black depths of the Funeral for Police Dog. The Seventeenth brigade of the city po lice got up a funeral for the police dog, Leo, shot dead by an Apache. Leo, who was the pet of the brigade, was working with his comrade and friend, the mastiff, Prince, on the fortifications late at night under the massive stonework of the disused fortresses the two dogs halted before a gap recently torn through wooden palings. They examined the spot, and then returned to the police, showing signs that something was amiss. Two officers returned to the gap and decided to go through. Leo and Prince went with them. The policemen had not gone many steps when surprised by a revolver fusillade. Satisfied that they had to do with outlaws, the officers slipped the leashes of the bishop was subjected to an examina- the two dogs. The firing went on for a tion, resulting in his being declared not few seconds, but it did not stop the two dogs, which leaped for the fence and made towards one of the men who was shooting This man almost succeeded in getting away, but after a chase the police seized

Another man who was held by the police policeman who had him in charge generally had absolute mastery over the dog, he could not make him let go of the man's wrist, which he had seized in his strong

The policeman was at a loss to under covered that Leo was lying dead. Leo had been shot by the Apache, who was first captured. His comrade, Prince, had mistaken the thief's identity, and grappled with the other man. At the police stat on it was found that only one of the men was man, who had used his revelver because he mistook the police for thieves. Hearts of Dead Kings. In the cathedral of St. Denis there is French monarchs. The name of each sovereign is engraved on the pedestals. There was no pedestal reserved for the heart others bore the initial "N." without a the patients recovered after treatment. crown. The casket was in gold. M. Boiss; d'Angias suggests, with some support from other authorities, that this is the heart of Four-Year-Old Napoleon, placed there by one of those who served him at St. Helena, and having been taken from the body, after the

Mixed Marriages Agitate the Dutch

Member of Union Parliament Offers a Bill to Stop Blacks Marrying Whites.

CAPETOWN, Jan. 7 .- (Special to The Bee :- In South Africa there is just now a recrudescence of the color question and in bill forbidding marriage between whites and colored persons. The heads of the properly the right of his father. Anglican and Roman Catholic churches de clare that if the amendment be carried they will nevertheless solemnize such marriages Other churches, except the Dutch, will probably act in a similar way. The government is trying to kill the amendment, but a large body of Dutch opinion demands the enactment of this restriction.

The Dutch church is promoting a private bill to amelgamate the different sec-

LIQUOR TRAFFIC Stealing of a Piece of Telephone Wire Causes Anxiety.

POLICE FEARFUL OF ANARCHISTS Cardinal Merry Del Val Still High is

Favor with the Pope, Who Frets Under Solicitude of His Friends.

BY CLEMENT J. BENNET. ROME. Jan. 7 .- (Special to The Bee.)strand of telephone wire one-half mile ong, connecting the Quirinal and the Perziano Castle, was stolen a few nights Reported Suicide of Revolutionist is ago. Hence the king will not be able to go hunting around the Perziano Castle. The police claim that they could not guarantee the king's safety unless they had telephones at their disposal. There are several theories floating about in connection with the so-called theft. One is that the anarchists did it. Another has it that practical jokers fiddled with the wire for the sake of a sensation. Still another theory is that one of the servants made away with the wire so as to prevent the hunt, which means work for royal servants, who must toll day and night when the king and the outside public gets a glimpse of

While the theorizing has been going on, to replace the stolen strand. Haif a dozen official reports on the subject have been other day printed detailed accounts of the submitted already.

Merry Del Val Still Solld.

The Vaterland, a leading Catholic organ published in Vienna, declares that signed because he declared many of the Cardinal Merry del Val enjoys the undiminished confidence of the pope, and that a flogging. the only basis for the rumors of the impending resignation of the papal secretary there was a conspiracy among the prisonof state is that several elder cardinals are ers to rise en masse, and that after the taking a more active part in the work of the secretariat.

This, the Vaterland says, is not a sign that the pope's confidence in Cardinal Merry del Vai has decreased, but may be explained by the necessity of taking ounsel with experienced men, in view of the present difficulties of papal diplom-

Contrary to the orders of his medical adviser, the pope insisted upon celebrating midnight mass on Christ-He said he had done so for priest. that he could not hear to be idle for distely after De Plehve's death. even an hour. He often has said that an clerk could easily attend to.

Importing Cheap Ment. American packers for the importation of of the assassination, was arrested. 6,000 tons of Argentine meat early in 1911. The mystery began to get deep when the The object is to compel the lowering of police endeavored to prove that Sazonoff, the prices of fresh beef, which is now who was generally reputed to be the asselling at prohibitive prices. There are sassin, and the prisoner were really one ople here who can afford to have meat and the same person. The prison

Causes Boarders to Do Queer Stunts

Men and Women Victims of an Accident in the Kitchen Astonish All Beholders.

BERLIN, Jan. 7 .- (Special to The Bee.)-The last issue of a medical journal at that, although the police had arrested Munich contains an article describing the Sazonoff, the latter, by the aid of his colstrange scenes for which the unwitting leagues, was enabled to escape and for scating of henbane by guests at a boarding some time, while the police were sending bouse was responsible. Twenty-five vishouse was responsible. Twenty-five visdog, Prince, was also arrested. Prince iters and some employes were given horseseized him with ferogity, and although the radish for dinner with which the henbane root was accidently mixed and all were poisoned.

stand this, but on looking around he dis- ling statue; another on her hands and knees ernor of the prison an order to deliver over servant placed twenty-five hot-water botan Apache. The other was a night watch- ties in her own bed instead of those of lost his memory and bought useless things room which contains the hearts of some in shops. The proprietor of the boarding house carried a tureen of soup into his of Louis XVII, but in the middle of one of plained how they had all been poisoned by sent to Siberia. Unfortunately for the the rows a pedestal rather larger than the henbane. This affects the brain, but all police, Sazonoff was said to have been seen

Voted at Election DYING AMERICAN

Disfranchised Father Allowed to Put In Ballot Through His Small Son.

LONDON, Jan. 7 .- (Special to The Bee.) Sidney Walter Francis appeared on the dying man told him that he was a Roman register in mistake. The father protested Catholic. strongly at this treatment, so the authorihe Union Parliament a Dutch member has ties teld him that his little boy would be introduced an amendment to the marriage allowed to vote instead. And the youngster was allowed to cast the vote that was in Egypt. CAIRO. Jan. 7.—(Special to The Bee.)-Lord Kitchener has left for Khartum envaute for a shooting trip to Uganda. He will reach Mombass by the middle of tions of the church. A feature of the March. He expressed great pleasure at at Flushing. The total cost of the scheme lose their membership if they migrate north served under bim while he was inspector probably leave India and pay a visit to is estimated at about $15,000,000.

> KITCHENER OFF FOR UGANDA English Field Marshal Greeted in Flattering Manner While

of the Cape, barring the northern colonies.

ITALIAN RULER IS PUZZLED PRISON HORRORS SHOCK RUSSIANS

Fearful Stories of the Barbarity of Officials Find Their Way Into Print.

FLOGGING A COMMON PRACTICE Physician Resigns Rather Than Be a

SAZONOFF SAID TO BE LIVING

Party to Cruelty.

Denied. DIARY EXPOSES POLICE METHODS

Chief and Governor of Prison Said to Have Been Summoned to the Palace to Receive Order. for Release.

BY GEORGE FRASER.

ST. PETERSBURG, Jan. 7 .- (Special to The Bee.)-Once in a while the lid is lifted the horrors of the Russian prison system and the method of the Russian secret poto one has thought of ordering new wire lice. Several of these instances have recently become public. The newspapers the flogging of 100 prisoners in the Vologda. jail because they complained of their food, It was stated that the prison physician reprisoners were in no condition to undergo

> The prisons administration state that discovery of the plot the governor of the prison gave orders for corporal punishmen to be administered to two convicts. As a protest against this three convicts severed an artery and three others took overdoses of morphia.

In consequence of further rioting fiftynine convicts were ordered to be chartened with rods. The minister of justice has ordered a strict inquiry into the whole affair, Sazonoff May Be Living.

One of the prisoners who committed suiyears, ever since he became a cide was alleged to have been Saxonoff, The compromise was that he the man who was at the bottom of the by holding the divine service in his successful plot to assassinate M. de Piehve. om would do a great deal of good. Re- Despite the official prison statements of cently his household staff has sought to Sazonoff's death revolutionaries deny that relieve him by doing much of his routine Sazonoff had died, and still claim that he work. He has complained of this, saying was never imprisoned, but escaped imme-

M. de Piehve was killed in a St. Petersidie man is the most miserable of beings. burg street by a bomb on July 28, 1904. It He insists upon writing letters that a is quite clear that the assassin was Sazonoff and that he was assisted by a man named Sikovsky. It is also known that a The municipality is negotiating with man, who was found wounded at the time scouting with a cyclist police patrol. Just once a week, others only once a had been given out as Porozneff and the following diary gives some idea of Russtan police ingenuity. July 28—Assassin caught red-handed, July 29—Identified as Poromeff. July 30—Died of hemorrhage. July 31—Made confession causing 1,000 arrests.

August 1—Died unidentified.

August 4—Efforts made to keep him alive.

August 5—Identified again and two more

Argust 19—Identified as Sazonoff.
August 21—Identified as Matveyeff and death sentence commuted.
August 22—Reidentified as Sazonoff.
August 22—Officially declared not dead. According to the best informed revolutionary circles the truth of the matter was

Order for Delivery.

It was on the night of August 30 that both the chief of police and the governor A Russian woman who spoke German of the prison where Sazonoff was confined fluently forgot that language; an English were called by special summons to repair woman wanted to teach everybody her to the palace. Ten minutes later two tongue; one woman thought herself a liv- gendarmes presented to the deputy govinsisted on searching for an object she had to them the person of Sazonoff. The order lost, and several women could not stop was of course carefully scrutinized, but as laughing. One woman ran to the telephone it bore the signature of the chief of police, and put her tongue out at the receiver as together with the official cipher, the though exhibiting it to a doctor. A female prisoner, heavily manacled, was handed over to the two gendarmes, who bore loaded revolvers in their hands. An hour later the visitors. A male visitor busied himself and angry from his fool's errand, only to counting imaginary bank notes, while anasked to be confronted with Sazonoff. The order was shown to him and was instantly ronounced to be a forgery.

Subsequently the police produced a perbed room and emptied the liquid on the son whom they declared was Sazonoff, and pillows. A doctor was sent for and ex- in that name the man was sentenced to be in Geneva, Paris and in London, and friends of his declare that he has been seen quite recently,

CONFESSES BY INTERPRETER

Was a Catholic, but a Protestant Clergyman Helped to Shrive Him.

MADRID, Jan. 7 .- (Special to The Bee.)-One of the most unusual and amusing in- A strange incident has occurred in a hosidents of the election has been the voting pital at Huelva. An American was dying, y a 4-year-old-boy for one of the can- and, not being able to speak a word of didates for the Biggleswade division of Bed. Spanish, made signs that he wished to refordshire. The boy's name is Harold Sidney ceive the last sacrement. Thinking he was Walter Francis; his father's name is a protestant, the authorities had a Church Charles Francis, but the name of Harold of England clergyman called in, but the

Since no Catholic priest could be found who understood English, the man made his confession and received absolution through the intermediary of the protestant clergyman, who acted as interpreter and took as oath to observe strict secrecy regarding what he had heard.

DALAI LAMA TO GO ABROAD

Sacred Personage of Tibet Will Proceed to England from Cal-

CALCUTTA, Jan. 7 .- (Special to The Bee.) -The Dalai Lama will leave Darjoeling on measure is a clause enacting that colored the visits he has received from persons January 12 and proceed to Calcutta. After plemented by works of the highest class members of the church in Cape Colony from all parts of Egypt who formerly a stay at this city the Dalai Lama will England.