NAME EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE

Commercial Club Elects Twenty-Five Men, Mostly Young.

ELDER MEMBERS ARE RETIRED

Harry Tulkey, Charles D. Beaton, H. H. Brandeis and F. L. Ellik are Among Victors in Election Held Friday Noon.

Young blood triumphed in the election of new members of the executive committee of the Commercial club Friday noon. Harry A. Tulkey, Hugo Brandeis, Charles D. Beaton, F. L. Ellik and other comparatively young men were elected to membership for the first time in the committee. Some older men were consequently retired.

George E. Haverstick was the high man, receiving forty-one votes. W. F. Baxter was second high, with forty, and the race for chairman is now declared to be between these two. One is banker, the other a retailer. So that for the first time in years the real head of the Commercial club is likely to be other than a jobber.

Brandeis with High Men.

Hugo Brandeis was one of the high men, getting thirty-six votes, the same number as G. H. Kelly, F. L. Ellik was the lowest man elected, his vote being twenty-three. John Steel, the highest losing man, got twenty-one.

Mr. Steel has been until Friday a member of the executive committee for four years. His service has been continuous and in three times as long as any other man's ever has been.

G. H. Wilhelm, F. W. Judson and C. T. Kountze are other members of the committee than those named above.

Except for the individual votes named in the foregoing the number of ballots each winner received is not given out. The list of victors in the election follows:

Edgar Allen	H. H. Brandeis
W. F. Baxter	G. L. E. Bruce
H. H. Brandeis	E. Buckingham
W. H. Buchholz	T. C. Byrne
W. M. Burgess	Geoid Dietz
David Cole	T. A. Fry
F. L. Ellik	G. H. Haverstick
F. L. Haaler	G. H. Kelly
F. W. Judson	J. L. McCague
C. T. Kountze	C. C. Roeswater
G. H. Pickens	H. A. Tulkey
J. A. Sunderland	C. M. Wilhelm

CONDITIONS AT CITY JAIL ARE BAD—SKJOLDBORG

Danish Editor is Studying Social Conditions Existing in This Country.

"Conditions which exist in the city jail in Omaha would not be tolerated in any part of Germany," declared Johan Skjoldborg, who delivered an address to the Danish society at Washington hall Thursday night.

Mr. Skjoldborg, who is associate editor of the Copenhagen Politiken, is touring the United States for the purpose of studying social conditions.

"In all my travels," said the Danish editor, "I have never seen such a deplorable condition of affairs as exists in the city jail. I make this statement after having visited the city jail. In Germany they would not put hogs in such a place as you call your city jail here. I understand the city is to have a new jail, and certainly it needs one."

"Generally speaking, Omaha is well to the front in matters of this sort, but as to the city jail, it is the limit."

Holdup Suspects Viewed by Victims

None is Positive in His Identification of the Four Now Being Held.

The police are now holding four suspects in connection with the series of hold-ups that have occurred during the winter. All are boys less than 21 years of age.

Friday morning the four were lined up for inspection by a number of victims with the hope of identification. As the holdups in the street jobs all wore masks it was found impossible to identify the men, although one or two of the men lately held up stated that they corresponded precisely in the matter of size to the men who held them up.

Theodore Miller of 178 South Ninth street was certain of the size, saying that three of them were identical with the men who held him up, both in build, height and general appearance. However, he said that he would not swear that they were the ones.

At Scholtz of 178 South Tenth street and Ed Anderson of 234 South Ninth street also examined the suspects, but could not definitely identify them, although they said that they corresponded in size.

Anderson, Scholtz and Miller were held up within half an hour of each other Monday night in the vicinity of Tenth and Center streets. As soon as the condition of Heuben Elton, the druggist who was shot in his store by holdups Wednesday night, will admit, the suspects will be shown to him. The police then hope to learn definitely if they have the right men, for the men who held up Elton wore no masks.

Will Use Publicity for Purifying Milk

Health Commissioner Connell Will "Tell On" Dairymen Who Offer Bad Goods.

Publicity as a remedy for impure milk is the prescription written by Dr. R. W. Connell, health commissioner. He announced Friday morning that thereafter on the first of every month the exact results of the tests of the products of every dairy in the city would be given out for publication.

"It has been the practice," said Dr. Connell, "to simply give the dairymen warning when he failed to meet the legal standards. Often the warning has done little good."

"I now propose to fix it so the consumer can see for himself just what his milkman is giving him. If the dairymen does not like the showing made, he can improve it by improving his milk."
