JUDGMENTS

HE year 1311 may be the last season for the Western league as now constituted. Recognition of this fact has instilled new energy into many team owners. Next year they bring the long expected invasion and the American association, maintaing a third major league, as its spachine expires at the end of 1911. The Chicago Cubs have loaded up with a lot of new material for 1911. They have three shortstops besides Joe Tinker, Manager Chance's idea being that what he needs to do now is to make the old men hustle up to the maximum every minute. If Tinker's speed should be increased much more Chance would have to get a whole new team, with one or two exceptions, to keep up with him. There is not much chance for one of these brushers to nose Joe out of his job this year. But the plan s not a bad one, though very expensive. For a team like the Cubs, however, where it is necessary to station armed guards at all the entrances to fight the crowds back. expenses cut little figure. Among the new roster are several third basemen who will race it out for poor old Steiny's shoes. Their permanency is not so uncertain as is that of those shortstop candidates, for sport, probably. If Evers' leg heals properly nobedy will have a look-in at his job. Chance and Murphy have had their Scotch and Irish, respectively, raised by the lamming the Athletics gave them and evidently are going in for their greatest fight this year. than that of curing RHEUMATISM with S. S. S. Forty years is a long time, and when a remedy consistently performs any work for such a lengthy period there can be no doubt about its value. This is the record of S. S. S. in the treatment of Rheumatism. For nearly a half century it has been curing sufferers of this disease, and has more living witnesses as to its curative virtues than any other remedy. Each day's mail brings letters from men and women who have been afflicted with this trouble, telling us that S. S. S. has cured them, and they are once more free from its aches and pains.

Rheumatism is a blood disease, due to an excess of uric acid in the circulation. Its primary cause results from weak kidneys, constipation, indigestion, etc. In other words the eliminative members do not carry off all the urea and refuse matters of the body, and these impurities being left in the system soon sour and ferment, causing uric acid, which passes from the stomach and intestines into the blood. When the uric acid gets into the circulation it causes a partial fermentation of the blood, which changes it from a thick, rich fluid to a thin, acrid stream, whose nourishing properties are greatly impaired. Through the circulation the uric acid is carried to every muscle, joint and nerve of the body, and then the pains and aches of Rheumatism commence. The longer the blood is allowed to remain in this acrid,

One day while reading a paper I saw an advertisement of S. S. S. for Rhenweakened condition the more severe will the disease become; gradually the muscles harden and lose their elasticity, the joints begin to stiffen, and frequently calculous deposits collect and form lumps and knots at the finger joints. The pains of Rheumatism can sometimes be temporarily relieved by the application of plasters, liniments, hot cloths, etc., but such treatment can have no possible curative effect on the disease because it does not reach the blood where the real trouble is being harbored.

There is just one way to CURE Rheumatism, and that is to cleanse the blood of the uric acid poison. S. S. S. goes down into the blood, and attacks the disease at its head, and by removing every particle of the cause and PURIFYING the circulation cures Rheumatism permanently. S. S. S. climinates the uric acid because it is the greatest of all blood purifiers. It filters out every trace of the sour, ir Jammatory matter, cools the acid-heated blood, furnishes the material for multiplying the rich, nutritious corpuscles of the circulation, and by its fine tonic effects assists the system in rapidly overcoming every effect of the disease. S. S. S. contains no minerals but is made entirely of botanical roots, herbs and barks. It may be taken, therefore, by any one without fear of the bad effects that so often follow the use of medicines containing mineral salts. It has cured thousands of cases of Rheumatism and it will cure you. Special book on Rheumatism and any medical advice free to all who write.
