BUTTER SLUMPS IN OMAHA

For First Time it is as Low as Quotations at Elgin.

NINE CENTS BELOW LAST YEAR

Other Prices Are Following the Cut Made by Big Reductions in the East Because of Storage Excess.

As a result of the general tumbling of food prices throughout the east, butter went down 2 cents in the Omaha wholesale market Tuesday, and for the first time in the memory of local produce men the price is even with that at Elgin. The quotation is 27 cents per pound, whereas the price had been 30 cents. Hitherto for years the Omaha wholesale price has always been 1 cent higher than that quoted at Elgin.

At the present value butter in Omaha is 9 cents lower than it was this day a year ago. According to records issued from Elgin butter was being sold at 35 cents wholesale on January 17, 1910. Likewise all other produce prices are going down in remarkable fashion. The retail prices, which always ranged from 2 cents to 3 cents higher than wholesale, were reported quickly following all over the city the de-ascension in the wholesale market.

Following are the comparative quotations on butter for the last two years:

At Elgin:

January 3, 1911, 29 cents
January 17, 1910, 35 cents
January 18, 1909, 32 cents
January 20, 1908, 30 cents

At New York:

January 3, 1911, 29 cents
January 17, 1910, 35 cents
January 18, 1909, 32 cents
January 20, 1908, 32 1/2 cents

Thief Lands in Jail Twice—Dead Goose

Curse of Dead Fowl Seems to Be Hanging Over Charles Allen.

The curse of a dead goose hangs over Charles Allen, who escaped from the city chain gang while serving a sentence incurred because his room was full of feathers. Mr. Allen was sentenced to twenty-two days in jail by Judge Crawford Tuesday morning when Mrs. Harry Wetner, testified that the fugitive had attacked her in retaliation for his first conviction.

Allen returned to the Welner home after his escape and stirred up trouble and cut Mr. Welner with a knife and inflicted other injuries, but he hurt Mrs. Welner worse.

She was hardly able to stand when called as a witness in police court and came near fainting before the case was completed.

NO NEW DEAN FOR A MONTH

Bishop Williams Says that No Nominations Will Be Made for Thirty Days.

Bishop Arthur L. Williams of the diocese of Nebraska announced Tuesday morning that the appointment to the deanery of Trinity cathedral would not be made for thirty days.

"The question of a new dean is now in a state of inquiry. We have not focused our attention on any one man for the place as yet. Of course, the nomination will come from me and I can safely say that no nominations will be made within the next month."

The quicker a cold is gotten rid of the less the danger from pneumonia and other serious diseases. Mr. E. W. L. Hall of Waverly, Va., says: "I firmly believe Chamberlain's Cough Remedy to be absolutely the best preparation on the market for colds. I have recommended it to my friends and they all agree with me." For sale by all dealers.
