ALDRICH PLAN IS APPROVED

Secretary MacVeagh Says System Deserves Cordial Consideration.

REFORM SHOULD NOT BE DELAYED

Effective Reserves Cannot Be Had Without Some Form of Centralization—Banks Should Have Foreign Branches.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 19.—General endorsement of the principal features of the Aldrich plan of financial revision and high praise for submitting to the public mind a basis for criticism of monetary reform were conspicuous in the numerous addresses today of the business men of the convention of the National Board of Trade.

Secretary of the Treasury MacVeagh, speaking at the banquet of the conference, declared that there is no final report of the committee yet to come, as worthy of a friendly and cordial consideration of whatever they may either tentatively or finally propose.

Secretary MacVeagh deplored the various acknowledged faults of the present money system, but said the country was not in a condition of inability to wait reform.

Secretary MacVeagh laid particular stress on the inadequacy and lack of system of the money power of the country.
