$10 per Acre strangers are invited to visit the Young Women's Christian Association building at Seventicenth street and St. Mary's avenue, where they will be directed to suitable boarding places or otherwise assisted. Look for our traveler's aid at the Union station.

I am in Omaha during the land show and am prepared to show plats of fine Kansas land for $10 an acre.

This land is a part of the tract which sells for $40 an acre. It is unimproved. The black dirt is from 5 to 15 feet deep. Pure water may be obtained from 60 to 100 feet. Annual rainfall is from 20 to 25 inches.

This land produces 35 bushels of wheat per acre and more. It produces 500 pounds of broom corn per acre. One erop on this land will pay for the land. This is the section where sick people get well and well people get rich.

Kansas is where independence blossoms and men are their own masters.

Kansas is where renters find homes and clerks safe investments.

I shall be glad to meet every one of you at my booth in the auditorium to tell you of this land and to sell you

NASHVILLE, Tenn., Jan. 24-Striking at W the psychological moment today won for Luke Lea the United States senatorship in the fight before the legislature for the scat soon to be made vacant by James B. Frazier.

When the last name had been called on the roll call of the joint session he lacked one vote, but a member who had refused to vote went into the Lea column and later two were changed, giving him two more than the necessary sixty-six to elect. TRENTON, N. J., Jan. 23.-In the conference held here tonight by the democratic members of the legislature the following vote for United States senator resulted;

Katzenbach, jr., 1; absent, 1. An effort to have the vote made unaniious was offered by one of Mr. Martine's supporters and was unanimously opposed by the Smith men.
