Do You Sincerely and Honestly Want to Find Success?

Or Do You Expect Success to Find You?

Young man! Young woman! There are latent success possibilities in you. No, maybe you can never become a Carnegie or a Morgan. But you can succeed in becoming independent—you can succeed in getting high enough up in the business world to be greatly respected; to be the recipient of an income that, properly used, will render you independent!

All you need is the right start. And that requires the right technical training for a business career before you enter the business world.

BOYLES COLLEGE

can give you that right start—that right technical business training.

We hold that no other college in this section of the United States is in a position to give you as thorough a technical business training as Boyles College. But do not be content with our mere statement that this is a fact. Make inquiries. Go into any big wholesale or retail concern in all this section of the country and ask the manager, "Whom do you consider your best business assistants, best Stenographers and Bookkeepers? Whom do you consider worthy of the highest salaries and the most rapid promotion? Whom do you believe among all your business assistants, Stenographers and Bookkeepers will be promoted to positions as heads of departments later on?

Do you know what answer you'll set?

ter on?

Do you know what answer you'll get?

"The graduate of Boyles College that we employ! And nearly all of our business saistants come from Boyles College!"

In one place you'll be told, "See that young man over there? He's Manager of ur Mail Order Department. Came to us as a Stanographer from Boyles college three ago." our Mail Order Department. Came to us as a Stanographer from Boyles college three years ago."

In another place you will be told, "That young lady came to us after graduating from Boyles College Bookkeeping Department a year ago. Now she's Cashier, with two other persons in her charge!"

The history of Boyles College graduates is one long tale of success—for in Boyles College the seeds of success are sown in the very characters and minds of young men and women.

Send for our new catalogue today. Or, if you can, pay us a friendly visit and let up talk this all over together.
