Charity benefits are first in interest just now. The several entertainments planned abaseh the time of those who are to assist in presenting them. Likewise the preparations of the entertainments demands time from those who assist as promoters of interest.

In a greater degree than is usual the pre-Lenten season is this year given over to entertainments for the sake of charity. In fact, the many smaller entertainments are taking the place of the one large ball.

The first of these entertainments is the one to be given February 11 at the Lyric theater in benefit of the Social Settlement. The program includes aesthetic dancing by young society women and the singing of the song cycle "In a Persian Garden." It promises to be an entertainment of much charm. is usurping a great deal of the participants

She will entertain again on February 2.

A topic of interest over the testables at present is the coming coronation of King George and the plans for the ceremonles which, it is said, are to be even more elaborate than those arranged for the coronation of Edward. Many Americans, of course, are making their plans to go over for the event and, as the period of the festivities will extend from June 19 to June 30, prospective visitors are just beginning to realize that it is quite time to make all the needful plans. Lodgings, naturally, will be at a premium and it behooves the early bird to engage accommodations forthwith While there has been no confirmation of the rumor society is much interested in the report coming from London that Mrs. Ava Astor is engaged to William Lehman Ashmend Bartlett-Burdett Coutts, a member of Parliament, a writer, a philanthropist and formerly the husband of Barones Burdett-Coutts, who left him a large fortune.
