Commercial Club Calls Meeting to Consider the Charter.

MOTUED QUESTIONS ARE UP
Charles Brown Gives Himself Up, Alleging He Robbed His Employees in Harrisburg, Pa., of Sum of Money.

At the meeting of the Commercial club yesterday afternoon it was decided to have a meeting of citizens Saturday afternoon at 3 o'clock in the city hall to consider the charter bill now before both houses of the legislature.

There are three propositions the meeting will be asked to consider. The commission board appointed by the governor, giving representatives to each of the parties, with the mayor of the city. Although the meeting is called by the Commercial club, it should not be understood that the body is committed to any of the propositions.

There is a strong divergence of opinion upon at least two of them, but it was thought advisable that the club should make itself the medium of the ventilation of public sentiment upon these important questions. So far as the committee itself is concerned it will in its arrangements be left entirely to the citizens and, therefore, it is completely up to the people of South Omaha to determine what their charter shall be.

Confesses His Crime.
The city detective force is investigating the case of Charles Brown of Harrisburg, Pa., who gave himself up yesterday. Brown is a young man about 22 years old, and appears to be down and out. He told the police that he had robbed his employers at Harrisburg of $24, which he took out of the till. When he came into the police station he had only 5 cents in his possession and seemed as anxious to get back to Pennsylvania as the detective force was to get him as a fugitive from justice.

Carter Puts in Bill to Aid Contractors

Will Permit Settlement in Accordance with Equity When Unavoidable Loss Occurs.

(From a Staff Correspondent.)
WASHINGTON, Feb. 3.—(Special Telegram.)—Senator Carter today introduced a bill authorizing the secretary of the interior to settle controversies arising under the contract for the performance of contracts under the reclamation act. The bill provides that where it appears to the satisfaction of the secretary of the interior that loss has been incurred by a contractor on work, such loss being due in part or whole to an unusual increase in the price of material or labor, unforeseen difficulties connected with the work or interference by the elements, he is authorized to settle any claim growing out of the contract on principles of equity and good conscience, and such settlement shall be binding upon the parties thereto when approved by the attorney general.

Hearing on Reciprocity

Ways and Means Committee Listens to Gloucester Fishermen.

MANY REQUESTS ARE PILING UP
No Hearings Will Be Permitted to Delay or Embarrass the Measure—All Must Appear at Once.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 3.—The accumulated demands for hearings on the provisions of the Canadian reciprocity agreement broke upon the ways and means committee of the house Thursday when that committee of its first hearing on the measure. Fishermen and fish packers from Gloucester had been accorded an opportunity to present their reasons for objecting to the reciprocal agreement upon fish and before the meeting was concluded requests had been made for hearings on wool pulp, paper, lumber, barley and other schedules.

To open hearings on all of these matters in the opinion of the committee members will endanger the passage of the agreement by the present congress. After a short executive session late today it was made plain that hearings will not be permitted to delay or embarrass the measure.

In answer to telegrams from paper men, Chairman Payne said they had been invited to come at once if they insisted upon being heard. The barley interests of the northwest, he said, had not been heard before the committee in the framing of the Payne tariff law and they also will be given opportunity to present their case. The committee does not propose, however, to open hearings on subjects covered in hearings two years ago.

These facts were brought out in a debate in the committee room before the Gloucester fishermen completed their case. Representative Champ Clark precipitated it by asking Chairman Payne if the reciprocity agreement was to be reported to the house before the first of next week. Mr. Payne saying he did not know, but indicated that the request of several persons to be heard will be taken into consideration and the bill will probably remain in committee until about next Tuesday.

Chairman Payne also said the discussion among members of the committee would be carried on later in executive session. After that session members of the committee said that while some hearings would be given they would not be such as to delay the reporting of the agreement.

Editor of Liberator Asserts King George Was Whitewashed

James Calls Trial of Head of British Empire Illegal—No Indictment Returned.

PARIS, Feb. 2.—Edward H. James, the editor of the Liberator, whose article was the basis of the suit against Edward Mylius, convicted in London yesterday for libelling King George, today issued a statement saying the trial of his British agent was illegal and the proceedings a "whitewashing."

"The statement proceeds: "The trial was illegal because Mylius was not indicted, but was tried under an information ex-officio, which is used only in charges of sedition. It was a whitewashing because the crown had no right to call witnesses to disprove charges when the defendant had refused to offer evidence proving the charges. Mylius having refused to substantiate that his agent was practicing the case ended immediately.

"Mylius refused to proceed because the king refused to testify. If the king had gone on the stand and sworn that the marriage did not take place I would gladly apologize to the Liberator, which under the circumstances can only attack the trial as a violation of almost every principle of English law, evidence and liberty."

Taft Sends Greeting to Convention of Hoboes at Milwaukee

President is Unable to Accept Invitation to Attend and Hopes Meeting Will Benefit Unemployed.

MILWAUKEE, Feb. 3.—A row was almost precipitated at today's session of the Brotherhood Welfare association, made up of a band of the unemployed, when the president James Edna How, in disposing of routine business, offered to read a letter from President Taft.

"I have here," said Mr. How, "a letter from Mr. Taft and also a circular saying men are wanted for the United States army and navy. What is the pleasure of the convention?"

"Taft 'em up and throw 'em in the wastebasket," shouted a voice.

"That's right," shouted the convention with almost one voice. "Taft 'em up. Throw 'em away. If Taft wants to talk to us let him come here."
