HOUSE OF LORDS IS THRONED

Standing Committee Report and New Bills Introduced. (From a Staff Correspondent.) LINCOLN, Neb., Feb. 6.—(Special.)—Parliament to Friday's adjournment the house opened today at 2 o'clock. Although the session was of but an hour and a half's duration, a record in the introduction of bills was made, thirty and new measures having made their appearance at Chief Justice's throne.

The bills requested by the last session of the legislature for the federal building of this city were again referred to a resolution adopted today which sends the aid of the Nebraska delegation to convene in getting the matter before the proper authorities.

Judge Ben H. Lindsey of Denver will speak in the afternoon starting at 7:30 o'clock to the members of both houses of the legislature and visitors.

Standing committee reports were as follows: H. R. No. 24, by Nier of Hamilton, recommending the term of commission to two years, recommended for passage.

H. R. No. 25, by Barclay of Pawnee, providing that no person shall be liable for damages from accidents caused by defective sidewalks unless notified of such defect within ten days before such accident was recommended for passage with amendments.

H. R. No. 26, by Red Willow, providing for the appointment by the district court of special county attorneys. It is recommended for indefinite postponement.

H. R. No. 27, by McKeiver of Lancaster, calling for authorization of money for agricultural extension work, was recommended for indefinite postponement.

H. R. No. 28, by Gerdes of Richardson, providing that children between the ages of 6 and 12 must receive instruction in English and private religious instruction recommended for indefinite postponement.

H. R. No. 29, the capital removal bill, was recommended for passage.

H. R. No. 30, by Johnson of Johnson, providing for the appointment of a parole officer at the penitentiary, was recommended for passage.

H. R. No. 31, by Talcott, making the birthday of John Howard a public holiday and recommending that institutions be recommended for passage.

H. R. 39, by Albert of Plattie—Provides for establishment of a bureau of child labor statistics, to be under the supervision of the commissioner of labor. It authorizes the commissioner of labor to employ such persons as he may deem necessary to carry out the duties of the bureau.

H. R. 40, by Gorman of Douglas—Provides for taking an appeal and cross appeal in certain cases, and authorizes the court to take an appeal in such cases. It also provides for the taking of an appeal in such cases.

KING OPENS PARLIAMENT

British Monarch Delivers Speech from Throne in Person.

HOUSE OF LORDS IS THRONED

Address is Colorless, Only Two Specific Propositions Being Made and These Are Touched Upon Lightly.

LONDON, Feb. 6.—King George and Queen Mary, for the first time in their reign, proceeded in state this afternoon from Buckingham palace to Westminster, where they majestically read the speech from the throne to the House of Lords. During the ceremony the queen was seated at the side of the king.

Though the day was dark and chilly an immense throng was gathered in St. James' park and in Whitehall, where the gorgeous procession passed. Other thousands surrounded the parliamentary building, their majesties rode in the gilded state coach drawn by eight cream-colored horses caparisoned in gold and purple. The king wore a field marshal's uniform.

As the royal party passed the cheering was unusually fierce. It was the first time since the coronation of King George that the House of Lords was packed when the Imperial procession entered from the robing room at 2:30 o'clock.

A number of peeresses had seats on the floor with the peers. The bishops and abbots with their wives occupied seats at the left of the throne. In the absence of American Ambassador Field, who is having a holiday at home, the United States was represented by William Phillips, secretary of the embassy. Mrs. Phillips was with her husband.

The colonies for the first time were represented by the colonial affairs secretary, Lord Strathcona, high commissioner for Canada, was present in this capacity and with him were the representatives from Africa, Australia and New Zealand. The women were mauve in half mourning.

COUNCIL TO CALL UP YEAGER

Des Moines Chief Will Be Asked to Explain Speech.

SAYS CITY WORSE THAN BEFORE

Speech Made to Ministerial Association City Councilmen—Road to Newton Built by Fraud.

(From a Staff Correspondent.) DES MOINES, Ia., Feb. 6.—(Special Telegram.)—Because Chief of Police Yeager in an address to the ministerial association, recently declared that moral conditions in the city were worse than they formerly were and that the police are powerless to protect girls from vice, he will be asked by the city council to appear and explain what he meant. Members of the council stated when they passed the resolution asking for an explanation that they were under the impression the police department was doing good work, but if what an chief is reported to have said is true, an entire new deal is needed in city affairs.

Schedules aggregating indebtedness in the sum of $7,000,000 were filed in the United States court by the St. Paul, proprietor of M. Stern & Sons, wholesale millinery store, who was forced into voluntary bankruptcy by creditors several weeks ago. The assets are named at $3,000,000.

In a decision filed today ordering the discontinuance of train service on the Newton & Northwestern railroad from Newton to Des Moines Junction, in Story county, Judge McPherson strongly intimates that in the building of the road there was fraud. He gives figures showing that the road cost about $750,000 more than it was worth.

It was built by a professional promoter, built solely to sell and not to be operated, hence it is not surprising that the company fails to pay expenses. A part of the road which was sold and electrified is now paying.

Young Wires to Bourne. Senator Lafayette Young today sent the following to Senator Bourne at Washington, D. C.:

Hon. Jonathan Bourne, United States Senator, Washington, D. C. I have read your appeal for votes for the constitutional amendment giving the people power to elect senators. I intend to vote for such amendment.

Just now the people of Iowa want to nominate a United States senator and you, progressive friends in the Iowa legislature, are refusing to consent to an act for a special primary election. I should like to have your influence and that of Senator Cummins on the Iowa legislature to secure the enactment of a law for a special primary just now.

LAFAYETTE YOUNG, United States Senator.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 6.—A troop of cavalry stationed at Fort Huachuca, Ariz., was ordered to leave tonight for El Paso, Tex., for service along the Mexican border, according to orders from the War department.

DOUGLAS, Ariz., Feb. 5.—Troop 1 of the United States cavalry arrived today from Fort Huachuca, Ariz., and immediately entered into camp with Troop M of the same regiment, already stationed here.

DENVER, Feb. 6.—General W. S. Schuyler arrived here today from Fort Riley, Kan., en route to Fort Huachuca, Ariz., to take command of the United States troops along the Mexican border.

General Schuyler declines to comment upon the situation further than to say his efforts would be confined to enforcing the neutrality laws.

REBELS CAPTURE SAN IGNACIO Town Opposite Fort Hancock, Tex., Occupied by Insurgents. WASHINGTON, Feb. 6.—The capture by the Mexican revolutionists of San Ignacio, a town opposite Fort Hancock, Tex., was reported to the State department today in a telegram from the American consul at Ciudad Juarez.

Laundowne said the United States airplane can discover, General Hoyt, the commander of the Department of Texas will probably soon be in a position to determine the facts as to the activities of the insurgents along the Mexican border.

At present owing to conflicting reports and absurd and exaggerated claims on the part of the different leaders, the United States army officers who are trying to maintain the neutrality law in force on the Mexican border, find the task a difficult one and the troops are constantly making wild goose chases after military expeditions reported to be crossing the Rio Grande, which merely materialize.

Today General Wood, chief of staff, let it be known that at least one aeroplane would be employed in observation work along the Rio Grande.

The War department has accepted the tender of Robert Collier of one of his new Wright biplanes, which will be rushed to the Mexican border and turned over to General Hoyt.

The United States aeronautical reserve is prepared to furnish other machines for military use at short notice and if the Collier biplane proves to be of real service it will be supplemented by at least a half dozen others. It is believed the military in this manner will be able practically to establish an impenetrable patrol along the border.

ARMY BILL IN THE SENATE Committee Adds Six Hundred and Forty-Two Thousand Dollars to the War Measure. WASHINGTON, Feb. 6.—The army appropriation bill, which was reported to the senate Friday in unfinished form, was completed today. It carries $6,678,586, an increase of $622,200 as it was passed by the house. A saving of $1,701,062 is shown from the amount appropriated for the present fiscal year.

Orisco Orders Charge. Orisco immediately ordered a charge to develop the strength of the federals and the latter replied with vigor. There were no casualties on the insurgent side, but two federal skirmishers were seen to fall. Orisco ordered his men to fire a volley into the air to develop what part of the train was occupied by soldiers. He had been warned that many might be on the train.

Men began to jump off the train and Orisco, not being able to distinguish the soldiers and who were not, ordered another harmless volley fired. The insurgents immediately retired to watch the situation until daylight, thus giving all non-combatants and women and children time to get out of the way.

At 6:30 a. m. Orisco saw soldiers on the train. He examined the train and found a guard and a skirmish line out in front and one machine gun mounted behind the train.
