THE BEE: OMAHA, WEDNESDAY, FEBRUARY 8, 1911.

The Beers Home Magazine Page

Pursuing an Idea Across the Ice with Shivery Music.

Where 'Is the 'canger' sign"' asked ottle, me my shates described a splendid curve and I hit the ten with force enough to see a lat-saf are lights the park didn't pay the

'Your love grows rold.' I complained, renaining where I dant' manded. Do you think that's an ice at-

I didn't choose that I mourned. "Circum stances ofer adden I had no control bringht me for this towly position

"I throught it was yout shp which did sim corrected

"The slip should have the usual rejection formula that no lack of merit is implied." -igned. "I'd prefer an editor's relection o to the

Why of the list

"Because H would let me down easy." groaned, rising. "That ice must have been of hard water. I always prefer soft wate

I prefer temon or brange ice, but I sel dom get an invitation," she reminded. "The lee invited my sole, as the writer ear." I added. I read in the deportment column that invitations by telephone are now regarded with less disfavor-especially if they're invitations to affairs you want to attend,"

she observed. Would you refuse a telephoned invitation to a party " I inquired.

Not if it was on a party telephone," all siggled. "Why do you skate, anyway"" That's the way I usually do-anyway."

I admitted. "To reduce my weight." "Your weight came down about a hundred and afsty pounds just then, didn't it?" she tittered, much amused at her own con ceit. At that moment one of her skates toward the sky line and the other slipped after. "One simply cannot skate in a bobble skirt." I cackied as I assisted her to arise. In doing so I slipped and we clung desperately for a breathless instant before the ice straightened beneath our skates.

"Do be "careful or people will take us figure?" she haughtily demanded. for aviators," she warned.

"Why?" I queried. "Trying to fly across water," she dia grammed. McCurdy must have been an awfully inemperate man-passing over water for al-ist a mondred miles." I cogitated.

Jumping to Conclusions

Because two and two have a habit of interested in his caller's business. The making four everybody in Three Pines un- caller had thought nothing of it then, but derstood all about it when Martin Pidcoe's of course, the unhappy lawyer had been body was found early one morning in the trying to distract attention from that in-alley back of the Security bank with a kit criminating paper, which no doubt conof burglar's tools, a stick of dynamite and tained an estimate of the wealth he hoped a dark lantern beside it. A live wire to gain nefarlously.

ordering the window wall accounted for Everybody agreed that his apparent good qualities had been only a blind with which his sudden death It was the best piece of scandal the town Martin Pidcoe had covered the blackness ever had, for Martin Pidcoe had been born of his nature. So people were amazed that and raised there in one of the weathy Edna Wayland mourned for him instead of homes, was a leading young lawyer and a offering up prayers of rejoicing at her favorite, was president of the Men's club escape from a lifetime of misery. They and the most envied person in town. And said it was ridiculous sentimental non-he and Edna Wayland were to have been sense for her to say that she still believed in Martin. married in the spring. Therefore it as most upsetting and con was that this atworse. tempt to break into the Security bank fol- fusing when the sheriff of the next county lowed close upon two burglaries which had shot a burglar in the act of breaking into startled the town. Another bank and the a bank and the robber made a deathbed chopped off, which leaves the disagreeable, one want to sit down on the couch and and-a very important point-the dye will shoe factory safe had been entered. It was confession, clearing up the Three Pines perfectly awful that everybody should mystery. He said that Martin Pidege had have been so decrived, people said, as they trailed him into the alley back of the Security bank and caught him breaking in athered in little knots and discussed it. it just shows you can't trust no one;" the window and in the struggle that folsaid Ben Scrimiger, who ran the feed lowed Pidcoe had ben pushed against the store. . I'Way, when he was a little tad, live wire and the robber had made his Mart used to, come in here for grain for escape,

Harmony the Secret of Happiness

Harmony is the keynots to happiness. | "Third, when little unpleasantries arise, Take, for instance, the case of the three sit down and count twenty before you girls in the flat overhead, writes Estelle speak.

Kegler. Only two days ago they gave me "Fourth, if the disagreeable habit of the distress signal, and such a melee as I Margaret or Edith annoys Ethel, let Ethel fact that bleached cotton is known to be found in those two day rooms dignified by think of one of her own negligences that composed of very nearly pure cellulose. the name flat! Why, even the pictures on may grate on Margaret or Edith. the wall were awry.

"What's wrong, girls ?" I asked, catching contribute her part of the finances with thread of cellulose extracted from spruce sheet lightining flashes of discontent, "Has out fail or even 'putting off.' These are wood. New England cotton spinners are the maid absconded with your favorite bits the rules respectfully, submitted by the exceedingly optimistic about the discovery of wardrobe, or have you been trying a board of arbitration. Do you strikers and with material manufactured from this agree to their adoption?" "Margaret left the window open and it and fast rules that must be observed on Ethel was preparing salad dressing for ters.

girl flat dwellers.

proach this flat every evening with the "Welcome, fairy flat reformer," they

Greediness and Good Looks

Many a beauty is ruined by overeating, meal fills the bill quite as well and does try anything in the line of a peace pact. I can in on them unannounced has night than cotton in the bala only great artists can be temperamental. For a minute I thought I was in the wrong In addition to this cardinal advantage.

Mere folks have the last seven letters flat. This room, fitted up all snug, made the new material can be dyed any color, be Coacy on $8 a Week." Edith, who is trate I'm going to insist on a few hard tear in the lace of Ethei's petilcoat, and most all." said an expert on clothing mat-

It was the most delicious cup of tea 1

"Now that you've called me in to arbi- clever with the needle, was mending a up-to-date attire within the reach of al-was reading aloud an article on "How to flammable.

The Bee's Junior Birthday Book

Year

	Rarem Camer, 1414 bourn Intercentin Section 11
	Nella Doedyno, 4603 North Twenty-fourth St Saratoga
	Cecil H. Dickey, 1425 North Seventeenth St
	Sena M. Ernst, 3502 North Twenty-eighth St Howard Kennedy., 1900
	Ruth Marie Evans, 2000 North Tenth St
	Ralph Fisher, 2815 Spalding St Druid Hill 1904
	Fay H. Fox, 1504 South Twenty-sixth St Park
	Elizabeth Fleckenstein, Forty-fourth and Ohio Sts. St. Joseph 1899
	Vorice Freeman, 809 North Twentieth St
	Rose Goldner, 507 North Sixteenth St
	Gwendoline Gaines, 2914 Erskine St
	Alice Goff, 1116 Arbor St Castellar
	Paolo Gilbelino, Fourth and William Sts Pacific
	Irene Guenet, 2818 Meredith StSaratoga
	Alfred Hansen, 4410 Pierce St Beals
	Ruth Hunziker, 1214 South Tenth-St
	Ernest Klostermeyer, 2709 South Sixteenth St Castellar 1905
	Alfred R. Katsman, 1715 South Tenth St Lincoln
	Frances B. Larson, 3468 Grant St Franklin
	Rudolph Larsen, 2614 Franklin St Long
	Mary Leslie, 2118 Burt St
	Ernest R. Lundgren, 5010 Webster St Webster
	Florence R. McWilliams, 4134 Hamilton St , Walnut Hill 1901
-	Edith McCarter, 2328 Poppleton Ave
-	Harold McKerma, 3320 North Thirtieth St Roward Kennedy 1896
3	Paul McCoy, 524 South Twenty-seventh St Farnam
. 1	Ellen Menzies, 2714 North Twenty-fifth St Howard Kennedy 1903
1	Nicholena Pane, 2209 Pacific St
	Trendrome a marty what a martine and the second sec

	The state of the state state and a second of the state of Edith McCarter, 2328 Poppleton AveMason
	Harold McKerma, 3320 North Thirtieth St Roward Kennedy 1896
	Paul McCoy, 524 South Twenty-seventh St Farnam
	Ellen Menzies, 2714 North Twenty-fifth St Howard Kennedy 1903
	Nicholena Pane, 2209 Pacific St
	Dorothy Parsons, 5303 North Forty-second St Central Park 1900
	Hugo Ploss, 1315 Oak St Vinten
	Minnie R. Phalen, Florence
	Henrietta A. Printz, 3307 Sherman Ave
	Millard Rogers, 3718 Dewey Ave Columbian 1901
	Ethel Sweet, 1941 South Twenty-first St Castellar
1	Morris Savad, 411 North Twenty-second St Central
	Harold F. Stubens, 1503 Park Ave Park 1905
	Margaret Spellman, 2215 Locust St Sacred Heart 1897
	Helen Studholm, 1414 South Seventeenth St Comenius
	Howard Studholm, 1414 South Seventeen'h St Comenius
1	Imogene Waller, 1509 Cuming St Cass
1	Alice West, 3623 Jackson St
1

Wooden Clothing

burrow into the bright pillows. Margaret not fade. Lastly, the material is non-in-

Club tea, our own special brew, Miss Peace fact, the discovery should revolutionize the

Are you wearing a wooden waiatcoat? If not, probably you soon will be. Clothes made literally from wood are the latest sartorial venture. The discovery of this new process is largely due to the Working on this basis, scientists have "Fifth, and most important, let each girl discovered a method of manufacturing a

"They do," chorused the trio, willing to prices far below those now charged. The finest product will, it is said, be cheaper

"This new process should bring the best tracted from spruce wood, I can see no reason why all the rest of one's suit would

English Ebulitions

"Yus, I 'ave. 'Tain't 'cause I'm beat though, but I've-I've got a nasty 'ead-

First Loafer-Wot I likes abat startin'

a noo year is that all the disturbin' rush o' not be made from a similar material. In

LOVELY ARC

"I suppose aviators will be able to muggle over cigars by the air route," she "I hope so."

effected. 'And why, pray " I wanted to know. "Maybe my men acquaintances will be able to smoke real Havanas," she retorted. "Why, I only smoke domestic cigars to how my domestic inclinations." I defended. believe in patronising home goods." "Is that why you're so patronizing around ny home?" she countered.

"I you came to skate, why pass the ice?" questioned.

"I thought I could put on my old gray hobble skirt and have a nice skater pull me around the lake. But you must prefer indoor skates," she criticised. "Are you trying to shop me-sort of skat ng shoos?" I said, crossly.

"No, but I do wish you'd move around, skate a little and not get blue on the nose, she replied, pointedly enough.

"I thought the modern girl skated to acquire the correct figure," I blurted out, rashly.

"Do you mean that I haven't the correct 'Oh, just referring to cutting figures on the ice." I amended, hastily. "Can you cut our initials?" she asked nollified. "I'd rather let a jeweier do it." I re sponded coyly

Copyright, 1911, by the N. Y. Herald Co.)

his pigeons-and to think he'd turn out There is scorn in Edna Wayland's somfirm determination to see only the good sang as I entered. Have some Harmony ber eyes nowadays when she walks down like this" "To think he pulled the wool over our Main street and sees the people who knew and pretty things here. eyes so." agreed Doc Stacker. "He had Martin from childhood and yet thought such an honest look and such a way of him capable of turning thief. for each of the other two girls during the ever tasted and is hereby gratefully rec-"That girl," Ben Schrimiger said one day slapping yeh on the shoulder, as though he really was interested in yeh and wasn't after meeting Edna and being withered by evening-something to make them more ommended to all discontented bachelor just pretendin'! Why, he could make yeh a glance, "gives me the shivers! She acta comfortable or happy. believe black was white. Mart could, as if we were the dirt under her feet! Of when he stood up and talked and laid course, none of us really believed it of down the law! And him giving the boys Mart-so she needn't act that way."-Chiadvice on 'how to make a success of life' cago News.

and things like that!" When they had time to remember Edna Wayland all the women called on her mother to weep over the poor girl and find out how she was taking it. "How, thankful," Mrs. Lawyer White said impressively. "that poor deceived girl aught to be that she found out in time what a criminal he was!" erous gases-which they do by exhibiting Edna's mother looked confused. "Edna." uncasiness or by dying-has suggested the she said, "doesn't seem to look at it that way., She says Martin never did it!" "Poor shild!" jubilated the neighbor women in rapturous dismay. "But she'll got over, it' Give her some herb tea; it's possibility or likelihood that there may be to habitually overeat.

good for the nerves." Tell her that she gas in the workings down below. There must bear up, and be sensible about this may be much gas or little gas; or there may dreadful blow! be no gas worth mentioning. The rescuers, about Martin which they had not noticed men sent into the depths with heimets and and freshness. particularly at the time they occurred. oxygen apparatus have, of course, no One man had, seen him the year before means of ascertaining.

caning over the rail of the bridge at midto carry with them little cages containing much food. night smoking a cigar and apparently looking at the moon, which was full and two or three white mice. If the latter show reflected on the water. No doubt even no signs of distress the the oxygen ploneers then he had been planning his series of telephone back to that effect and then the three heavy meals a day. crimes instead of being asleep like a re- mmbers of the life-saving corps who are spectable person. Somebody had come without protective apparetus are enabled to upon him suddenly one day when he was rush in fearlessly. figuring on a sheet of paper and Martin had seemed stalled and had shut the paper "Come along! It's all right!" orles the away briskly and had acted as if deeply mean lives, is saved.

STRIKING'SIMPLARITY.

Ever-notice the resemblance between get ' g married and making a call-you go to adore, ring the belle, and give your name to the maid."

"Yes and then you are taken

Mice as Life Savers

The use of white mice on board sub-marine

All of us take more food than we need, not make you a nuisance to your friends. and if there is the least taint of greediness Who does not know the woman you Christmas is hover! boats give notice of escaping and dang- woe betide complexion and figure. If you couldn't drive into eating a bit of breakadoption of a like expedient in coal mines. with a consequent yellowing complexion every one she can corral. When an explosion occurs in a coal mine and leathery skin. The surest road to Others expect to live to a prime, old age rained in on my magazines."

protested.

penalty of immediate expulsion. First, ap- tomorrow's dinner.

"Second, on your way from the car try to Commissioner."

"We're all nervous," excused Margaret.

hink of one service you are going to do

"Yes, and irritable." I added.

Girls girls."

if true, word 'temper.' "

the great danger to rescuers lies in the heaviness and lost suppleness of youth is by foreswearing lunch. That's all right, but don't look reproachful when the appe- for your health, professor. No woman can hope to keep her good the of your friend is heartiest in the middle figure who loves her food overmuch. If of the day, she does not get fat, she will probably The latest fad is to go dinneriess. "Eat People recalled all sorts of odd things in any given case, are unable to tell; and ruin her digestion-and with it goes health your breakfast and lunch, if you will, but been a change for you?-London Opinion. the how of the boat prodded us in the the comical sight. Mrs. Marsh had if you would be a sylph, a wit and a Overeating brings stomach trouble, which stranged to the doctor, do not dally at the is the worst foe to beauty. Many a red dinner table." is the slogan of these en- erence, and did yer hear av the joke me The latest idea is for the helmet men nose and watery eye can be hald to too thusiasts.

Yet worse are the benighted ones who this morning? Flabby muscles and sagging flesh are have eschewed the family board entirely. His Reverence-No, indeed, I didn't; and the swiftest followers in the train of and are trying to convert the world to what did your brother do?

tabloids and predigested foods. Almost The Delighted Quarryman-Oub, the ari- it was while the collection was being ashore after my melodious calls to "Comebestial and they certainly take big chances Sketch. As beauty is not alone coloring and form. on beauty, but they are not deadly bores .helmet man through his portable telephone but expression, remember that greediness San Francisco Chronicle.

-and his mates follow. By this means soon gives an earthy look to the face that "I would die for you." said the rich much precious time, when minutes may is a horrid tell-tale. Don't be an unbalanced faddist who suitor. thinks overeating the source of every "How soon" asked the practical girl - And bid you wake and rise to fight and success by a mining company in Pennsyl- known will. Ordinary moderation at each Lipplincott's.

HAD HIM THERE.

there may be yellow eyeballs.

of about forty pounds.

Musical Repartee. Zeke Brown an' me done had er little apute. Zeke rampaged round, an' den he stopped an' said, 'Look hyar, ol' man, don' yo' go actin' dute;

This plan has already been tried with vania . One of its incidental advantages lies in the fact that the men do not wear helmets, and are thereby relieved of a burden

Else Ah'li piay tunes on yo' ol' wooly haid!" An' den Ah say, "Whut's dat yo' sez 'bout how Yo' 'll play tunes on mah haid. Ah'd lak to know! Ef yo' does dat. Ah tells yo' hyah an'

Ah'll mek yo' dance to dat dar music.

sho'!"-Charles C. Jones in Lippinott'H.

A Wise Father.

"What comes after a million, pa?" asked the boy who was just learning to count. "Generally some bogus nobleman," answered his millionaire father.-Buffalo Express.

so wise. He had a thousand wives."

"Huh! He learned his wisdom from them."

"I never met with a disappointment in my lite Probably you never looked for anything but trouble" opposite.

intelligent girls in this vicinity.

Entertaining a Bride

"Now hurry up! Be sure to dress warm | back. After one vicious jab, Mrs. Marsh Also, since waistcoats are to be either!" With these words in the dim dis- closely following, and f also was kept busy manufactured of this cellulose thread ex- tance we ran up the hotel stairs, and I dodging the peaky thing.

wondered what the next day would bring In camp that evening. Mrs. Marsh kept forth: for I was detailed to go on a camp- waltzing around the fire to keep warm. ing and fishing trip to entertain a friend "Why, I freez my back while I warm my of hubby's, also his bride, rusticating for hands'", she complained to her husband, the time, neither of whom I had ever met. who was rude enough to say. "You writes Mrs. J. Holman in Outer's Book. wouldn't listen. Put a horse blanket on My tom-boy girl, called Hob by habit, and play Indian!" In pity and desperation (though Roberta was given to her in dis- at last I ventured to say, "I think I could appointment) was all enthusiasm, as this make you more comfortable if you were was her first outing, and was in favor of not too tony to use my methods!" and dressing up in honor of the bride, but I she was so miserable she readily listened. "Bob produced her father's rain coat and promptly vetoed that project; her old fishing rig was speedily donned, and in a pile this was topped off with a black fur colof dirty socks and rubber boots, a dis- larette. By the ald of a Butcher knife I reputable old Stetson was found-just the backed a hole in those wool nocks that her French heels might have room, and these finishing touch to my outfit.

When Mrs. Marsh, the bride, appeared, were pulled over the dainty footgear. Next she wore a swell tailored suit, toque to I emptied the grub box for a seat and hung match, silk waist and petiticoat, patent a horse blanket from a grape vine behind Second Lonfer-Ah, same 'ere. An' wiv leather Oxfords and above all else filmy her, and then with fears as to the result would be beautiful restrain your appetite. fast? You could stand it if she starved three 'und'ed and sixty-five days ahead on lace hosiery on a cool September morn- tendered some spiritual consolation from Greediness means an overworked liver, slone without forcing her theories on yer there ain't no call to 'urry over nuf- ing. With one accord three voices ex- the "emergency flask" (She did not leave "You're not dressed warm a drop!). She now produced a paper novel ciaimed. enough"' but she firmly insisted that she from inside her jacket, and declared she was, and J did not know her well enough could enjoy herself, that I could go roamto argue. My fair guest and I rode on the ing if I wished, and she would tend that wagon was properly, behaved; but when we On returning when near senough to see Gushing Lady-Really! that must have got to the bills, particularly going down, over the wind-break, I held my breath at wrapped a red and yellow horse blanket around her, and scated on the grub box. head against a tree, was fast asleep, while at her feet I could discern the smouldering remains of her love story: My laugh woke her; in fact, they heard it in the fishing boat on the lake and when they came

Did you ever see a keen, alert eye in better-for others-the greedy who frankly ful dyvil! He had a stick av dynamite in taken up at a recent meeting held in the back with the matches," the first words the heavy eater? Besides the dull look enjoys their food. They may be rather his pocket when he was run over .- The Broadway theater under the auspices of the were, "Tell us, so we can laugh, too," but Woman Suffrage party that a little woman she implored me not to tell.

. The next week I received a letter with of the platform and announced she was this astounding information "My nose alarmed over the news that Colonel Roose- blistered and is now peeling?"

twins who posed as Cornelia's Jewels in tableau given in Maxine Elliot's theater for the benefit of the cause, and the audience applauded when she added, "No man is to be trusted with a child." "There was Abraham." she continued 'the best man of his time. But what do you suppose Sarah's feelings were when she saw him going toward the mountain

"Now I don't want to be irreverent, but there again was Calvin, another pre-eminently good man. Do you imagine I would rust Calvin with one of my children? He condemned all unbaptized babies to eternal

Daily Health Hint

Plenty of oxygen in the blood is espeiaily needed by elderly persons. Without i the internal fires cannot be made to glow. It must be taken in through the lungs by breathing an atmosphere which contains if in abundance.

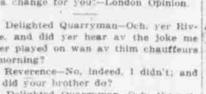

"Do you think men are man clever than women?" "Some men are." "Who are they?" "The single men, my dear."

He-I will get married when I meet a woman who is my direct

She-There are many wealthy,

Opportunity. win.

Gushing Lady-I hear you've been away Musical Lion-Yes. I've been to Marien- rear seal, and on level ground that boat fire.

The Delighted Quarryman-Och, yer Riv

They do me wrong who say I come no more When once I knock and fail to find you in; velt was about to turn his attention to the hild tabor laws. It was Mrs. Pearce Haily, mother of the with isaac and a meat axe?

fire."-New York Sun.

THE WISE ONES.

in a coral velvet frock advanced to the edge

Can't Trust the Man

fink -Punch.

price of all cotton goods."

"Ave ye 'ad enough?"

ache."-Tatler.

prother played on wan av thim chauffeurs.