IMPACT OF CARS HURTS FIVE Runaway Crosstown Car Crashes Into

Hanscom Park Trolley.

BRAKES FAIL, CONTROL IS LOST Accident Occurs Shortly After Seven O'clock This Morning at the Corney of Twenty-Pourth and Caming Streets. Five were injured in a street car collision at Twenty-fourth and Cuming streets at 1 % o'clock Thursday morning. A northbound cross-town car on the Twenty-fourth street line, refused to respond to the brakes and erashed head-on into the side of a southbound Hanscom park car turning east at the intersection. The Injured.

first street, scalp wound. The two women injured were passengers on the cross-town car. The men who received hurts were riding on the Hanscom Injured May Recover.

Mrs. Hjelam is the most seriously injured. She may not recover in the event that later examination proves that she incorred a fracture of the skull. She was taken to the fire station nearby the wreck, and there treated by Dr. B. G. Willis and Dr. O. C. Bishop, police surgeon. Mrs. Hjelam was removed to her home in South Omaha in the police ambulance two hours after the accident.

All other victims of the wreck were taken to their homes.

N. Nelson, motorman on the Hanscom park car, was bruised about the hands and wrists. A. E. Cooper, conductor on this car, escaped injury.

The members of the crew of the crosstown car are E. C. Johnson, conductor. and Elmer Willis, motorman. Neither was Cannot Stop Car. The crew of the cross-town car did everything in its power to stop its flight, but the steepness of the hill, and the wet, slippery tracks made the brakes of no use. When Motorman Johnson of the crosstown car saw that the brakes had failed him, he opened the window of his vestibule and began to yell excitedly and wave bis arms in an attempt to attract the attention of the motorman on the other car. His affors, however, were unsuccessful.

The Park car was thrown over on its side by the force of the collision and badly wrecked. The gross-town car remained on its trucks and on the track, although the front vestibule was also badly wrecked. Traffic on the fines was blocked for upwards of an hour.

There were ten passengers on the park car, three of whom were women. There were three passengers, all of them women, on the crosstown car.

Many of the passengers on the park car, which was turned over on its side, crawled out through the trap doors in the bottom of All were badly jarred. Israel Lobett of 2102 Lothrop street says that it seemed to him as if the car turned over about three times and that when it finally settled down a fellow passenger was sitting squarely astride his neck,

The woman most badly injured, Mrs. Louise lijelam, according to the latest reperts of the doctors, stands in very little danger of a fractured skull or internal injuries, as at first was feared.

STATE MOVE FOR GOOD ROADS

Omaha Men Return from Convention Reld at Lincoln-Recommendations to Be Made.

George McBrids, county surveyor and J W. Hedford, chairman of the county commissioners, returned Thursday from Lincoln, where they were in attendance with the joint committee of the house and senate, looking into the question of good reads. About sixty members of the States Good Roads association were present, including Dan V. Stevens, president.

Three questions which it is hoped may be incorporated into bills were taken up. First it is desired that a county highway commissioner be appointed, who would have entire charge of all roads, bridges and ditches in the county.

Second, efforts will be made to have a state highway commissioner appointed who would appoint a state engineer who would act in an advisory espacity to any county in the state desiring his assistance.

Third, a state aid road bill is wanted making a levy of one-fourth of a mill to which be added a state automobile tax, to be used in state aid for the building of good roads throughout the state. According to Mr. McBride, the joint committee was favorably impressed with these ideas and asked the good roads commitsioners to prepare a bill containing these ideas, which could be used in a bill which the joint committee will probably draft covering these subjects.
