BENEFITS OF NAVY TRAINING.

Have you ever observed a young man who has been trained in the navy? Notice how well he carried himself, how erect he stood?

The training received in the navy makes a man self-reliant, alert and practical. He is taught to do well and quickly the duties required of him.

He has an opportunity for learning a trade, and as he becomes better fitted for his work he is advanced in rating, with corresponding increase in pay.

The navy is a just employer. If a man behaves himself he is certain to earn advancement. Besides assured promotion, rewards of many different kinds are offered-for excellence in performance of duty, good conduct and continuous service; while extraordinary herolem is always smedially duct and continuous mervice traordinary heroism is always specially recognised. Old age, sickness and disability incurred in line of duty are liberally pro-Parents are asked to consider the many advantages of the naval service for their boys. Steady employment, a practical training, a good chance for advancement, a life amid healthful surroundings and a liberal education acquired by travel. Boys of good character are accepted who are over seventeen years of age.

Apply at the navy recruiting station, postoffice building, Omaha, Neb., for full information, and for examinations, or write to Bureau of Navigation, Box 208, Navy Department, Washington, D. C.*

DON'T BE A "Tomorrow Man" Or Woman

Don't let the "putting-it-off-until-tomorrow" idea creep into your character.

Don't do it-if you don't want to be a failure.

Right now within your soul glows the desire to SUCCEED. You've the right ambition—the right aim. All you need is the RIGHT START RIGHT NOW.

You can't win success if you become a "tomorrow man"—an "after-a-whiler."

And you can't achieve the GREATEST success possible for you if you do not get the right start.

BOYLES COLLEGE

will give you the right start in either the day of NIGHT SCHOOL

It has given a right start to thousands who are today conspicuous successes in the business world—because they didn't put off the right start for business success. Our Business Course Makes highly trained, highly valued, highly PAID business assistants. That's why we have more calls from business houses for our graduates that we can possibly supply, large as our enrollment is.

Our Stenography Course produces the kind of Stenographers whose sound, sure knowledge of every detail of shorthand writing and whose lightning-like dexterity in Typewriting enables them to gain and retain positions paying the highest salaries.

Our school is Official Training School for the Union Pacific R. R., and as such positively and unequivocally guarantees that you will be given a telegraphic position immediately upon your graduation.

This the great Union Pacific R. R. also guarantees.

Our college has a complete equipment of the very newest text books on the United States Civil Service examinations and this department is supervised by an instructor who has passed in all branches of the Civil Service relating to Railway Mall Transportation.

In fact, all of our instructors are as practical as our courses. And this fact is of untold henefit to our students.

Now—what can you gain by delay? Why not start NOW for success? Why not throw aside this dangerous "putting-it-off" habit and start in right now to find out all about the advantages our college offers you? Honestly—don't you owe that much, at least, to yourself?

End this delay? Call, telephone or write for our catalogue. It is free.
