

STOP AT OGDEN ON YOUR WAY WEST

Ogden is the Hub City of the Inter-Mountain West and second largest center between Omaha and Pacific coast. Within trolley ride of the center of the city there is the world famous Ogden Canyon, through which flows the Ogden river. Beautiful resorts built without regard to expense make it the most unique place of summer rest in the world. Visitors from all over the globe declare there is nothing else like it on earth.

Trout are caught in the river, before your very eyes, cooked and served while you wait.

Stop at Ogden on your way west. Go out into the peach and apple orchards that surround the city; take a trip through the factories which make for the wealth and traffic of the greatest railroad center of the west.

Investigate the city, its environs and the small towns about it; every one of which offers to you an opportunity.

There is an opportunity for the promoter, skilled in such projects, to organize and finish a high line canal around the city. This canal would water thousands of acres of land, double and greatly multiply their present value, and PROVIDE HOMES FOR HUNDREDS OF HOMESEKERS. These lands are the BEST ORCHARD LANDS there are in the West. The famous Ogden Canyon, one of the great scenic wonders of the world, sets much like a bellows, the warm winds rushing through it down from the table lands at night, maintaining an even temperature and providing for the wise horticulturist THE MOST SPLENDID OPPORTUNITY FOR THE GROWING OF FRUIT that exists in the whole of the Inter-Mountain West.

The successful flotation of this one project would make the man who "brought it across" sufficiently wealthy for all his needs. OGDEN, UTAH, NEEDS MONEY. Many brokers in the city will guarantee 7 and 8 per cent net on money to be loaned upon approved security. These brokers are glad to give bank references, and it is not unfair to believe that they have the opportunities which they announce.
