Dr. Crawford is not only organizing the alumni, but he is seeking to establish closer relationship between the college he represents and the high schools of the country. It is the desire of the college board that a better understanding be established between the college and high schools, especially with relation to curriculums. In every city visited by Dr Crawford he familiarises himself with the work carried on in the high schools, and upon his return he will make a full report of his findings to the college board.
