GORE CHARGES NOT UPHELD

Special Committee of House Finds No Evidence Involving McMurray

THURSTON'S INTEREST PROPER

Former Nebraska Senator Asserted to Have Been Employed in Case as Result of Service in Senate.

WASHINGTON, March 1.—The special committee of the house appointed last summer to investigate Senator Gore's charges of attempted bribery in connection with J. W. McMurray's Indian attorney contracts in Oklahoma, made its final report to the house tonight.

The majority of the committee finds that Jake L. Hamon actually did, about May 6, 1910, make an improper proposal to Senator Gore respecting the McMurray contracts, and that about June 16, 1910, he approached Representative Charles F. Crozier with an improper proposal on the same subject.

The committee finds no evidence, however, to show that Hamon was acting "by authority of, or with the consent or knowledge of McMurray."

On this ground the committee exonerates McMurray of any connection with an attempt to influence members of the house or senate. It does find, however, that he used "undue influence" to secure the support of Chief Green McCurtain and his son, D. C. McCurtain, in getting these contracts or transferring a contingent interest of $2,000 in the contracts to D. C. McCurtain.

The committee says the report, "further believes that the mental condition existing among the members of the Cherokee and Chickasaw tribes in respect to the good faith of the United States government dealing with them has been largely brought about through an effort by McMurray and members of the tribes financially interested or sympathetically co-operating with him to create a sentiment designed to aid McMurray in obtaining lucrative contracts with the Indians which otherwise would have been impossible."

The committee finds that no member of the house or senate had any interest whatever in the McMurray contracts. The information that Representative Bird S. McCurtain of Oklahoma had some interest is found to be without fact and to have arisen from the friendly relations existing between Mr. McMurray and Mr. McCurtain.

son in the interest of the McMurray contracts, but does not find any evidence that it resorted to corrupt practices or that improper overtures were made to members of congress, except in the case of Jake L. Hamon, who is found to have proceeded without McMurray's knowledge or approval.

The majority report of the committee is signed by its chairman, Charles H. Burke of South Dakota, and by Representatives Clarence B. Miller of Minnesota and Representative Philip P. Campbell of Kansas.

Representative E. W. Saunders of Virginia concurs in the findings of the report, but does not sign the entire majority report. Representative John H. Stevens of Kansas presented a minority report.

The committee's investigations, carried on in Oklahoma and in Washington, went into all phases of the Indian attorney question. The McMurray contracts, which were not rejected by President Roosevelt and which it was proposed that congress should recognize, were supposed to involve contingent fees of about $2,000,000.

The committee found that fees had been paid to attorneys amounting to nearly $4,000,000 and "some of them were exorbitant, unreasonable and in contravention of public policy, notwithstanding the fact that they had the direct or indirect approval of congress."

"Many Indian claims, antiquated and without meritorious basis," says the report, "have been trumped up against the government by industrial attorneys, claim agents and professional lobbyists, until there are now pending in one form or another in the departments and before congress claims of this character amounting to many millions of dollars."

NEW CONSTITUTION APPROVED
House Committee Says Document Is Not Oppugnant to Principles.

WASHINGTON, March 1.—The house committee on territories today unanimously approved the constitution of the new state of New Mexico and recommended its approval by the house. The committee declares it has found the document "to be republican in form, but it makes no distinction on civil or political rights on account of race or color and that it is not repugnant to the constitution of the United States or the Declaration of Independence."

MAY PRENTISS VISITS CITY

President of Buffalo Y. W. C. A. Inspects Local One.

SAYS WESTERN IDEAS LARGER

In Comparing Methods of East and West Miss Prentiss Gives Commitment to This Section; Is on Inspection Trip Over Country.

Although her trip about the country is made to learn how the local associations feel about and are equipped to contribute to the support of the national work of the Young Women's Christian association, Miss May Prentiss of Buffalo, who was the guest of the Omaha association Tuesday, is finding the comparison of the methods of work of value. As the president of the Buffalo association she is interested in the local work, though it is as chairman of the national committee to investigate the basis of support, that she makes the visit.

Asked to express some comparison of the eastern and western associations Miss Prentiss said she thought the western associations had larger ideas. "In the east it has been the home idea that, as a rule, has been the beginning of the association work. The women formed the associations and erected their buildings primarily to give the girls a home and home care. This idea grew to include the other educational work, but it is the home idea which came first. Most of the associations have a boarding home in connection with their work. In the west, on the contrary, it is quite largely true that it is administrative work which comes first; emphasis is placed on it. In many cities, too, we find that there is a boarding home under the direction of another organization. This is what I mean by saying that the western associations, possibly, have larger ideas; they emphasize the big administrative work. Of course, the eastern associations have in regard to these things the same of the association departments so that they are no longer needed. In Bridgeport, Conn., for instance, the department of domestic arts is not needed any more because sewing is taught in the schools."

The object of the basis of the committee's investigation is to find what will be an equitable and possible apportionment of the tax for the support of the national work. But investigators are frequently asked to advise in regard to the meeting of the expenses in the support of the local work. Miss Prentiss thinks that the Buffalo association is one of the leading associations by reason of its method of meeting the matter of expense.

The Buffalo building and its equipment. She arrived from Des Moines Tuesday morning and left Tuesday evening for a visit at Topeka. From there she returns to Buffalo. The report of the committee will be made at the biennial convention, which is to be held at Indianapolis in April.

Noon-Day Club Holds Second Annual Feast

Swedish Citizens From Various Cities of Nebraska and Iowa at Banquet.

The second annual banquet of the Noon-day club was held Tuesday night at the Rome hotel. More than 200 men of Swedish birth or descent were present. Frank Nelson of Minneapolis, president of Minnesota college, who spoke on "New Principles in Our Modern Life," was the principal speaker of the evening.

Albert W. Johnson as toastmaster, first introduced C. Petrus Peterson of Wahoo, Neb., who told about the "Blazers of the West." Joseph M. Swenson of Sidney, Neb., next spoke on "A Young Man's Opportunities," and was followed by Joseph Alexis, who holds the chair of Swedish and German languages at the State university, on "Svensk-amerikanens Framtidsblick." Then came Mr. Nelson and after a fake initiation, which made fun for everyone, Frank Oscar Newkirk sang several Swedish songs.

The following men from out of town were present: Frank Nelson, Minneapolis, Minn.; Joseph Alexis, Dr. Burton Lincoln, Neb.; C. Petrus Peterson, C. E. Tornblom, S. T. Bruce, Wahoo, Neb.; Joseph Swenson, Sidney, Neb.; William Quist, F. O. Peterson, Alf Sar, A. D. Collins, Frank Sedberg, Essex, Ia.; C. E. Quist, Blanchard, Ia.; O. Samson, A. Hammarstrom, Oscar Swanson, Ed. L. Walster, A. C. Holmquist, A. O. Ford, S. P. Lindahl, Dr. H. W. Benson, Oakland, Neb.; E. L. Lindquist, Waterloo, Neb.; Mons Johnson, A. A. Kertter, J. O. Johnson, Valley, Neb.; J. Smith, Red Oak, Ia.; W. F. Nelson, Minneapolis, Minn.; William Fried, Daniel Swanson, Fremont, Neb.; N. P. Monson, Osceola, Neb.; C. E. Lundeen, Taylor, Ia.; C. E. Andersson, Minden, Neb.; Olof Ahlstrom, Council Bluffs, Ia.; L. A. Johnson, Norfolk, Neb.; Charles Warner, Waverly, Neb.; and C. H. Gustafson, Mead, Neb.

Irish Clubs Join; Hold Big Banquet

Frank P. Walsh, Speaker of Honor at Celebration Given by Emmet and Fellowship Clubs.

The first joint banquet of the Emmet Monument association and the Irish Fellowship club was held last night at the Henshaw hotel. More than 200 guests attended.

The principal speaker of the evening was Frank P. Walsh, a prominent attorney of Kansas City. Mr. Walsh talked on "Freedom's Price." He told of the efforts made by Ireland for freedom and the great cost it has brought to her; of the civil war and the loss of lives attending. Mr. Walsh was attorney for the defense in the recent famous Dr. Hyde trial in Kansas City and has taken a prominent part in all civic affairs of that city. He was received by the banqueters last night with great enthusiasm.

M. P. O'Connor acted as toastmaster. The life of Robert Emmet and the great principles for which he stood was talked of by John Rush.

SAYS AMERICA IS BEHIND TIME

S. H. Clark Points Out Weakness in View of Drama.

THINKS PUBLIC SHUNS REALITY

Lecturer at Y. W. C. A. Gives Palm to Tragedy, and Declares America, as Nation, Is Afraid to Look at Life Squarely.

"As a nation we are behind the times in our attitude toward the drama. We are most of us afraid to look at life squarely—in public." Prof. S. H. Clark of the Chicago university gave a lecture at the Young Women's Christian association Tuesday evening on "The Tragic Ideal," and his comment on the American tendency to prefer the play which did not delve too deeply into life was a part of this lecture.

The lecturer declared in positive and telling phrases his belief in the value of literature. He said that literature was greater than life because literature selected and showed the motives of the arts, its pictures, "Literature in its most vital aspect," he said, "is tragedy, the thing we want to run away from. But," he said, "the theater is the place to be stirred. And in this stirring there is a stimulus. For many of us the theater is the only place where in the rush from business to business and back to business certain dormant qualities, finer feelings are touched at all."

His defining of the "tragic ideal" was in reality an appreciation of the tragedy of Shakespeare. His clearcut, forceful retelling of the stories of these tragedies and his quick graphic characterizations of their people gave his hearers a new sense of values.

DOCTORS DISCUSS SCHOOL MEDICAL INSPECTION BILL

No Formal Action Taken, Although Sentiment Favors the Proposed Measure.

The Douglas County Medical society met last night and heard a number of interesting papers. When the time came for transacting miscellaneous business, the bill to require medical inspection of the grade schools was taken up. The sentiment was apparently unanimous in favor of the bill, but a formal vote of endorsement was not taken because the attendance was a few short of thirty-five the number fixed as a quorum by the laws of the society. A special meeting to endorse the bill was talked of.

The bill is the best because it reaches the reading public.
