"Jim Crow" Bill to Fath. The railroad committee of the hous tonight gave a hearing on the "Jim Crow" bill to segregate perfect on atreet cars in the state. McKisick of Gage, the introthe state. McKisick of Gage, the introducer, explained it, declaring it was not an attack upon the negro race, but was for merely an effort to separate them while on vehicles of transportation. John Grant Pegg of Omaha headed a delegation of Omaha people who talked in opposition to the measure.

It is recognized that the bill will not get very far and that if the committee does not kill it it will probably be withdrawn. Chief Clerk Henry Richmond, who has been backing it, has given this intimation.
