

GRAIN AND PRODUCE MARKET

Primary Receipts About One-Half What They Were Last Year.

CROP SITUATION IS FLATTERING

Corn is a Trifle Dull, Owing to Lack of News to Feature the Trading—Prices Are Ruling Steady.

OMAHA, March 3, 1911. The wheat is more of a debatable market than it has been for some time. The sharp fall in price of primary receipts at this season, will probably give a liberal decrease in the visible supply for the week just ending. On the other hand the crop situation is very flattering, and cash wheat and flour continue to be in demand. The trade seems evenly divided.

Primary receipts were 23,000 bushels and shipments 27,000 bushels, against receipts last year of 44,000 bushels and shipments of 31,000 bushels.

Primary receipts were 41,000 bushels and shipments 45,000 bushels, against receipts last year of 45,000 bushels and shipments of 49,000 bushels.

Primary receipts were 35,000 bushels and shipments 38,000 bushels, against receipts last year of 38,000 bushels and shipments of 41,000 bushels.
