valuable to the house and to himself-is in direct line for promotion. And the Bookkeeper-what great chances are his! If he has had the RIGHT training in the RIGHT business college, he will get a good salary right at the start-and will be in a position to learn all the important details of the financial opera-tions of big concerns. He will be in direct line for promotion to the splendid salaried positions of Head Bookkeeper-Credit Max, and the higher executive positions. Telegraphy-Lio you know that St per cent of the railroad officials of the country were at one time telegraph operators? What is meant by 80 per cent? It means that four out of every five officers were once knights of the key it means that eight out of ten were once reasoning the art in some little station. It means that of twenty-five railroad presidents twenty of them worked their way up from telegraph operators. operators.

Or, perhaps you have some idea of entering some branch of government employ-ment. If so, you must prepare for the in evitable Civil Service Examination.
