Entries for the Dog Show Close Tuesday--Other Spring Sports are Starting Well

Tuesday is Last Day When Local Dogs May Be Listed.

Will Vie with the Dogs to Attract Pepular Attention During the Week of the Show at the Audirovium.

Envelor for the first annual Omaha Bench show close Tuesday. Although the show does not begin until March 25, the entry list is closed a week previous to the opening date because the But of dogs and cats entered must be by the hands of the American Kennel club registration committee before the show begins.

Big done, little dots, white; black and brown dogs dogs fluff; and dogs smooth, and in fact every kind of known dog will be entered in the show by Tuesday night.

The Omaha Kennel club members have been working hard for some time past in from all over the middle west here at the

It will be the test of the BEATRICE HIGH WINS THE CUP hounds to see if they can run down the man, inside of a stipulated time.

Many Omaha people own blooded cats and in the various cities of the west there are champion felines. The plan of the show committee is to have a special section for the cats and a judge will be appointed in the near future.

The Omaha Kennel club, under whose auspices the show is to be held, is planning all manner of comforts for the canine pets, which will be shown. Attendants will be on hand all day and night, and special care has been provided in case any of the dogs become ill

Young Howell is getting the Neale delivery down to a nicety. Takes down a majority of the pets among the Boosters. The Garlow alleys are some tournament affairs, you have to hit 'em to get 'em, but I guess most of the boys found that out. The Hospe team welcomes the return of Bushnell, as they needed him very badly. The team was lost without the old regular. Olum Johnson is better with age and is rated with the top-notchers on all alleys. It's scratch for him from now

Hook Moran is still one terror and makes the younger boys thing he is a genuine Vorhels and the inventor of curve balls. Where was Habe Dudley in all this tournament shooting. He used to be a terror, when it came to pulling down the Chadd and his tigers must have met a lion on the way up. At least they seemed scared to death, when the gong

Lepinski is going to take one of the big trucks over to Garlows and shoot it down with the intention of getting a 300 The Derby Woolen Mills bunch miss that fellow Schoenman. He certainly is a closter and has won many a close contest for them.

Jabez Cross thinks more of his bowling team than he does of Jeffries, one is and the other was, he is always on the side of Steady old Andy hit into a bunch of hard luck in his singles, it wasn't poor bowling by a long shot—unadulterated tough breaks.

The Cross team are going to make trouble for both the Metz and the Storz bunch and with Mose Yousem in the team
