

LAWYERS TALK OVER BILLS

Measures Before Nebraska Legislature Up for Discussion.

MEMBER GROSSMAN IS PRESENT

Denounces Present Method of Selecting Jurors and Opinion Expressed that New Law Will Remedy Some Evils.

Consideration of certain bills now before the legislature, in particular one to provide for a jury commissioner to pick the jurors, brought forth some lively discussion and serious charges at a meeting of the Omaha bar association at the Paxton hotel Saturday night. The meeting, which was the regular monthly affair, was preceded by a banquet. Several members of the legislature were to have been present for a conference with the association over the bills in which it is interested. However, John Grossman, a Douglas county representative and a member of the judiciary committee of the house, was the only one able to be in attendance.

Mr. Grossman was warm in his denunciation of the present system of selecting jurors and accused the association of sleeping on its rights in not having pushed the jury commissioner bill harder than it has. "I am fully aware how this crooked work is done here," said Mr. Grossman, "there are many lawyers in Omaha and good ones, too, who have lost their honor and their manhood in the box who had no right there. There are certain men in Omaha in business who see that they can get on the jury. You can't get rid of this rottenness until you change the present system."

The speaker made no specific charges and did not name names, but he lectured in accordance with the sentiments of Mr. Grossman. Some evidenced much dissatisfaction, however, with the jury commissioner bill now on the general file. The original bill instituted by the association some time ago and forwarded to Lincoln called for a key-number method of picking jurors from the poll lists and operated wholly by lot. The jury commissioner bill provides for a commissioner appointed by the district judges and choosing the names himself for the lists from which the jurors should be drawn.

Patrick Secured Change. It was changed in the committee, according to Mr. Grossman, on the solicitation of W. R. Patrick of South Omaha. Mr. Patrick appeared before the committee and gave the inference, at least, that the Douglas County Bar association was in favor of the jury commissioner idea, saying that Judge Redick and others were strongly for it.

John A. Rine, city attorney, took occasion in a few remarks vehemently to denounce the jury commissioner bill, calling it a "bull-dozing" idea and pointing out where it was open to the same abuses as the old system.

It was pointed out that at this late date it would be exceedingly hard to get a new bill through, and would probably mean no result either, save a new one to be introduced. As it seemed to be the sentiment of the association that the commissioner idea was at least a step in advance of the present system, a special committee was appointed to aid the regular committee and to go to Lincoln to do what they could in getting the bill through. The committee consists of Frank Weaver, president of the association, and C. J. Smyth. Other members of the association will accompany them. Fremont Benjamin extended the association an invitation to be present at a banquet to be given by the Pottawattamie County Bar association in Council Bluffs Monday evening in honor of the Hon. Walter I. Smith. The invitation was accepted. The banquet is to be at the Grand hotel at 8 o'clock.

Dr. W. W. Stookey, president of the college, responded to a toast on "Opportunity" and C. M. Wilhelm, a most accomplished after-dinner speaker, told of "The Troubles of a Trustee."

The other toasts were all made by members of the two classes and were responded to as follows: "In a Broader Sense," Miss Elsie Huber, "Bellevue," Glen Rice, "Under-Classmen," Miss Grace McNamara, "Then and Now," H.
