The Bee's Home Magazine Page

The Tired Business Man

Tells Friend Wife We Are Tolerant to All We Can Tolerate.

like that one in Paris," observed Friend Wife. "Just imagine our secretary of state

"Many plays have been stopped by the incident for packed houses in the next | gether? big town. But the mayor of New York whoop' away. 'It seems, however, that the trouble with the audience is if it gives up two dollars they had to give it the book.

"Of course it's well plan impossible to first place. A manager or author can't lowed to exist. change its sets, to say nothing of its "Oh, we do night they put on new stuff. I think the with the green whiskers. management could have solved the whole . Also that some states have laws which ernment closed the theater. say, stand-pat republicans would hop up thing we can tolerate." in the stage boxes and commence howling 'I thought maybe it was something and adventures, interpellating a few tin- Friend Wife. "What is 'Apres Mot?"

"If the ushers and the policeman on the said the Tired Business Man.

"Odd that a prime minister would bother carpets leading to the boxes with the with so small a thing as stopping a play goatalots, I believe an indignant audience which had paid its money to see the show including the song boosters, would hurl the noisy ones through the front and side exits

"But supposing somebody squared then knocks," replied the Tired Business Man, or they got away with that and sat down dwelling on the last word with double until the scene came where the villain o meaning. "Of course, not Philander Chase, the other man was about to play a tune on but others of the knocks family. And I've the triangle and when everybody's nerves heard of performances in this land being were tense, some, say Tammany hall folclosed on account of ministers, although lower, would rise and set off a bunch of they may not have been prime or even parior fireworks. Would the disturber ever primed. Usually when they do so it is in look the same again, or would be resemble some one-night stand, and the press works a figuraw puzzle after he had been put to-

"Over here we don't use such violent 2d not disdain to tell one show to roll its methods to kill a play. There are several easier ways. Why should volunteers work themselves into a lather when they can this show wasn't so much the play as the have it done for them by deadly critics, audience. Few managers care how bad who, armed to the opera hat with hammers, can beat every spark of hope out and upward at the gate. But this audience of a playwright and his play? Or, if they was the worst production ever put on and don't do it, there is always a fusty band of ruffians at the door beating back timor ous persons seeking to enter. They are rewrite an audience if it isn't right In the of general speculation why they are al-

"Oh, we do it much better here. elimax and denoomong. The Bernstein course, my memory, not being in training. play, 'Apres Mol,' couldn't compete with accommodatingly refuses to run back to the rival attraction. The Men in the the time when we mobbed the Sherry sis-Boxes,' for the simple reason that every ters and rotten-egged the 'Irish comedians' thing simply by closing the stalls, thus prevent our venerable avuncular friend, cutting out the horse-play, but they kept Thomas Shalby, he of the primitive log the barnstormers working until the gov- domictie, from going too far south to die and see the angels descending in red fire I would like to know how far any clique and pink tights. We are a calm, well would get away we any of that rough balanced people, and when our box holders work here, say at a Broadway theater. don't approve a production they don't pay Imagine the heroine just nestling up to hoot it, but merely order the piece against the hero's manly soft white shirt thrown out, as was 'Salome' not so long front and artist's cravat when a bunch of, ago. We are a tolerant people—to every remarks about the dramatist's past life wrong with the play or the title," said The deluge-if I remember rightly, beat weren't quick enough to dust up the (Copyright, 1911, by the N. Y. Herald Co.)

Revival of the Eton Jacket

NEW YORK, March 10.-In the illustra-, few inches shorter, while in addition to tion herewith is shown one of the smart- the eton, there are also separate jackets est of the new, short coats. It was part trimmed fancifully and reaching no of a pongee suit designed for a trip to further than the hips, but for separate Bermuda. The bedy and sleeves of the coats there are no in-between lengths coat were cut in one a significant indica. In some models the back is plain, in tion of the continued popularity of the others there is a high empire beit of soft peasant blouse. The closing was outlined folded or rolled satin. The front of this with a band of blue satin and this ma- coat generally fastens over loosely with terial was used to trim the skirt and for a large buckle or flat button about at the fashion authorities, have been predicting crushed beneath it. the return of the waistline coat, but mi-weeks, and now she suddenly finds that her neighbor and her neighbor's daughter are wearing Eton costs. So she immediately procures one of the new models and registers a mental vow that "next time" she will not disregard her modiste's

The present style of short jacket with coat of the suit with one of the other gowns in the outfit, and makes essential the providing of a long wrap in the wardrobe decided upon for the first days of spring. When it is within the range of but for the same reason that they too often tates, the well gowned woman will select the food and beverage are so palatable. at least two and perhaps as many as five There are occasions, of course, when it is satin or lightest-weight cloth fashloned in that is needed. But stopping a thirst is spected a number of models, such a model, that it will be suitable for such pleasant pain, says the New York. "A well-trained chauffeur is quite to the hem of the skirt or are but a drunk-never.

waistline. The majority of these wraps Of course, in the matter of coats, no are fashioned with the sleeve in one piece lady has accepted the prediction with a and lengths is the favorite finish for all sewing society and I have de- some horrible way so it couldn't be lost. I caught in seams that had ripped or some grain of sait until within the last few coats, and even a long wrap shows no exception to this rule. On a black satin coat, white is most often used for collar and white is most often used for collar and cuffs, but a bright shade of blue or a deep gold yellow are seen on a number of the newest models, and when the lining corresponds in color, the effect is undeniably smart. When the coat is of a decided shade, as sapphire blue, scarlet, green or one of the fashionable tints of purple or mauve, black satin collar and cuffs are sometimes seen, while again a lighter shade of the color of the wrap is employed and it is difficult to say which is the more

So Considerate

He was a fussily important society man, and he had no use for women of college education. But on one occasion he invited a young college graduate, the daughter of an old friend, to his house, to take afternoon tea. It was a windy day, and the girl arrived at his suburban home with her skirts blown about and her hair tumbling over her cars, a state of affairs of which she felt guiltly conscious for the whole of her visit. The lady of the house, Mrs. Society, poured tes and discoursed of girls in general. "I agree with plear James," she said.

preparation for the future life of a young oman." She peered into the cups to see if the maid had left them in good order, and glanced at her guest, who cowered in her seat, feeling intensely her disheveled condition, and dimiy wondering if it were due to her college education.

Mrs. Society, seeing that the offending maid had left dust in the cups, frowned "I think a college education usually unfits young women for the finer duties of domestic life," she said, and blew first in one cup, and then in the other, to remove the

At that the college girl felt her spirits rise to the skies. "For." as she explained afterward, in telling the story, "we did sometimes blow the dust out of the cups, when we gave tea parties, but we usually did it before the guests got there."

Liver Seat of Hunger

is your liver hungry?

Recent scientific investigation indicates that hunger appetite does not start from the stomach, as all believe, and as we all feel when hungered, but the call for food really comes from the fleshes of the whole body. They are useless now. body, mostly from the liver. This is held to be proven by the fact that people who have had to have their stomachs taken entirely from their body still have the aba coat and skirt costume absolutely pre- sent old stomach growl and yell three cludes any possibility of ever wearing the times a day for meals—something like prople having finger pains and pleasure in hand that has been cut off for years.

It is stilly to deny that a good many people often drink not because they are thirsty, the dress allowance to buy as fancy dio- est when they are not hungry, because or six wraps of different weights and desirable to take with the beverage a styles for her spring costumes, but she stimulant or a substance which relieves who must order with greater care will fatigue (beef ten), but for the purpose of purchase a long semi-fitted wrap of black satisfying a mere thirst pure water is all Jinksby?" asked Harkaway, as they in-The long half-fitted wraps fall either it again. In Berlin plain water is never Harkaway, without any heritation what style departure has come with quite such with the rest of the material, and it is me, as I do such poor sewing). I told said they really had to saw. startling suddenness as the revival of the necessary to leave the arm opening wide Johnnie about it and he said he thought Duton jacket. Ever sloce early last fall the so that the most delicate sleave will not be it was a very good idea and he'd bring If you neglected to bring thimbles, and different asylum every year. Last season The sailor collar in all imaginable widths away. Mrs. Dangerfield is getting up a you with your work, that was ticketed in them, as four children had got their limbs

Ye Getting Of Ye Goat Ga

MAKE A LITTLE PETTICOAT FOR AN ORPHAN.'

the best. Cousin Anne has a sewing club said she belonged to that one last spring.

Our "Remnants"

The "ductless glands"-thyroids, parathy-roids, thymus, pituitary, pineal and sup-

The "third or wisdom tooth," of no use inflammations and serious disturbances.

quadrupedal to a very great extent.

The "concyx" or queer "tail bones" at the base of the spine form a striking relic of herbivorous than he it at present.

rarenal tissues.

more powerful jawa.

Dear, me, Lent is here and I shall have | French lessons the days cousin Anne pro- | said that Mrs. Dangerfield had bought

There was absolutely nothing else to do. around some things for me to mend right needels, and thread, they were handed to the asylum they made petticoats for sued if she got up a sewing bee the members would sinve.

Elsie said at Mrs. Dangerfield's they played bridge and took some of the dues and bought the duckiest prizes for the real game they had on the day of the last meeting. They considered they owed it to themselves as a reward for their hard labor, If the members didn't feel like bridge, she always had the latest papers and magagines on a center table. Then at 5 o'clock she had tea and sandwiches and punch and a few men were asked to drop in.

Agnes said a lot of men were scared to teath at the mere suggestion of coming to a sewing society, but after they were persuaded to give it a trial they came in droves. Mrs. Dangerfield said there was no use in intruding their work or talking shop to outsiders, and Elsie said no man would have dreamed of how busy they had been. She said the only trouble was that toward the end of Lent nobody came at all before 5 o'clock, except two sisters She isn't going to ask them again at all. ness; I've known him all my life."

to sew for the poor. (Just the thing for posed having the meetings this year. She some awfully pretty striped finnnel and lace edge, and if a girl wanted to she could

I SHALL HAVE TO SEW FOR THE

the Mayhew girls. One wears glasses and get up a sewing class, and be the only had but seized the coveted volume when the other has something the matter with member, and he'd drop in to keep me com- it fell from her hand and, but for me, her face. They're dandy girls and live out pany. I believe I'll do it. His gloves need would have struck the floor with a dull. of town, and Mrs. Dangerfield said, al- mending awfully, and he's an orphan, so sickening thud. I chanced to be so close though it was an awful inconvenience, she it makes it all right. As long as I'm going to Mary that I dexterously caught the that a college education is not the best meet at her house every season and Elsie they had to take the 5 o'clock train home. I-Oh, well. I like Johnnie a little. Good-tude and blushes. And I knew why. My Altoona schoolboy. She said if she were me she would have I saked Agnes what they made and she (Copyright 1911, by the N. Y. Herald Co.)

Junner.' "

"I used to think that the finest of all wedded the widow of Colonel Harrison Pike

"Gall bladder," useless to the human of Pink creek. "But I came across the other day a still machine, but a fruitful source of cancers, better colonel than this. He was rather "Harelip," a frequent deformity, that seedy, and, handling me a solled visiting dates back to those fishlike and reptilian card, he asked me in a low voice if I could days when the jaw was built in five pieces.

"Hernia," a dangerous accident caused by weak places in our abdominal walls Colonal William Melcher Dana. that are echoes of the days when men were in the army?"

Hundreds of trophied and useless ofly of 'sebaceous glands' can be found over the The 'little" or "fifth toe" is another vestige of prehistoric life.

a previous existence. "Eustachian tubes" are remnants of the "gill sitts" that were a part of the makeup of our fishilke ancestors. The "tonsils," a peculiar tissue whose growth and increase in the middle throat leads to that distressing affection known na adenoide.-St. Louis Republic.

An Expert Optaion. "What do you regard as the two most desirable features of a first class car.

"A wall-trained chauffour in the driver's day or evening wear, as occasion demands. Press, that we stop it and stop teest and a nice girl in the tonneau," said ever.-Harper a.

Latest Kink in Titles

"We Americans," said Simoon Ford, the famous after dinner speaker, at a banquet in New York, "are justly famous for our The "vermiformis appendix," a curious titles.

survival of the age when man was more our titles was that of Colonel Abraham Hardgrass, who told a questioner that he to any human being, still appears as a was neither a regular nor a volunteer relic of an age when we had longer and colonel, but a colonel by marriage, having

"I glanced at his card. It was inscribed

"You are, I presume," I said, 'a colonel

'Yes, sir,' said he. Regular or Balvation? I saked. " Neither, sir, he answered. 'Army of the

Daily Health Hint

It is better not to drink water until an hour or two after eating. Water taken immediately after meals is liable to wash the food from the stomach into the intestimes before the action of the gastric juices is completed.

Morals of Marcus O'Ptutt. If you would rise above the mass.
To lefty and commanding station,
Your fondest dreams will come to pass
If you will take up Aviation;
But have a care the more you rise
Above earth's rude and noisy revel! "How did you know I wanted prunes?" 'Tis he alone who wins the prize Who's always on the level!—Harper's.

School Boy English

"What is the most incorrect sentence any of your children ever get off?" abked a school teacher recently at the School-responded a teacher: 'It sin't hisn like, but yourn." "My best," another teacher, "ran something like this: 'Rare roast beef if meat what there ain't none what's any under-

"One of mine got this off not long ago,"

The best one of the afternoon was furnished by a third teacher. "Here is one," he said, "which has the old classic 'He seen his duty and done it noble,' beaten forty ways: 'Lewtenent Grant hearn the enemy in his bed, but he snuck up on him and killed him without knowin' who, where or what he was."

Puffing Prunes

Charles H. Fullaway, assistant superintendent of the division of finance in the Postoffice department, was on a Chesapeaks & Ohio railroad train on his way to Washington from Chicago. When he sent to breakfast in the dining car he was delighted to see that one of the items on She had been graduated from Wellesley the bill of fare was stewed prunes.

He looked up to becken to his waiter out east wind. and tell him to bring an order of the prunes. But he did not have to give the afternoon as of the pretty chance that order, for the waiter was hurrying down the aisle with the saucer of prunes on the that when it grew dark we began sitting asked Fullaway in surprise. Besides. I'se a phenologist."- that are too wise, too gold! Popular Magazine

March 13, 1911. Name and Address. School. Agnes Beal, 5825 Florence Boulevard ...... Sacred Heart .... 1896 Hugh Francis Brainard, 2814 North Nineteenth St. Sacred Heart ..... 1900 Florence Barber, 3542 North Twenty-eighth Ave. ... Lothrop .......... 1895 Margaret Boggs, 3015 South Sixteenth St........... Castellar .......... 1900 Marjorie Chrisman, 2509 South Twentieth Ave ..... Castellar ........ 1902 Morley Combs, 4606 Dodge St........... Saunders ............. 1901 Gladys Dulnson, 2016 Sherman Ave......Lothrop ...............1961 Catherine Digilis, 1026 South Twenty-third St..... St. Philomena.... 1895 William Clarence Grimm, 3316 Taylor St........ Monmouth Park... 1902 Ruth Harris, 1715 North Twenty-sixth St..... Long ........... 1899 George P. Ives, 2610 South Twelfth St..... Bancroft ....... 1902 Carrie Jensen, 1113 Dominion St...... Forest ................ 1903 Jessie La Chapelle, 2711 South Fourteenth St. .... Bancroft -..... 1901 Albert Lutz, 2601 South Thirteenth St........... Castellar v.......... 1895 Evelyn E. McDonald, 619 North Forty-fifth St. ... Saunders ........ 1899 Walter Mann, 305 North Twenty-seventh Ave. . . . . Farnam . . . . . . . . 1901

George Mathews, 2422 Sprague St...... Saratoga .............. 1900

Mae Stalnaker, 2911 Bristol St. . . . . . . . . Lothrop . . . . . . . . . 1903

Oscar Sander, 5118 North Fortieth St...... Central Park.....1899 George Saalfeld, 2731 Blondo St...... Long ........... 1896 Helen Sanford, 4820 Florence Boulevard......Saratoga ........1896

Carrie Strom, 2767 South Tenth St. . . . . . . . . Bancroft . . . . . . 1905

Alfred Vetzu, 1517 Chicago St......1905

Mollie Woef, 416 North Twenty-first St.......... Central ........... 1897

Willie Wheeler, 1413 North Eighteenth St...... Farnam .......... 1964

The Bee's Junior Birthday Book

is is the Day

e Celebrate

MONDAY,

Amours of Amethyst Jones

When Amethyst Jones' eyes narrow down | For the sake of Mary Dean I would have to almost nothing, and then open very been willing to live forever in Boston. It wide, quite filled with a dreamy, opal- was but a cruel chance that took me for a scent light which is like the light that little time away from Boston, and Mary." lies in a woman's eyes when she watches her sleeping babe, we know that he will sighed deeply. At last he overreached tell us of a love that made a deep impres- bimself. He introduced Mr. Garcon to sion on his soul. He is living again some Mary Dean. Of the result he said: sweet experience which Time has mellowed, which years have made beautiful. | the New England character is a keen, unof distance, one may dispel frigidity, The to marry-Septimius Garcon. Which result is as charming as the discovery of may add, was accomplished without rerare jewels, shimmering half hid, let us sistance on the part of Mr. Garcon. say, in a fairy drift of immaculate snow.

too high for her to grasp easily, and she book," eyes had caught the title of the book: " 'Love in a Library,'

by

Septimius Garcon.

"I say the lady blushed. The blush of a demure Boston girl is fairer, more delicate than crimson, more radiant than lilies in the sunlight. The most glorious colors of the universe-soft scarlet and matchless

"As I handed back the book I slipped my card between its pages. In those youthful, haloyon days I was apt, inventive. quick to conceive, rapid in execution. She placed the book securely under her arm. her lovely eyes looked into mine. Their violet glory caused me to believe that until you," she said,

"Her voice was soft as the murmur of a er's. woodland brook. In those two simple words there was music sweeter than had ever heard. You are welcome,' I answered intensely.

"We hesitated, each of us. The New England temperament is judicial, deliberative, and always as calm as possible un- took it away from me."-Washington Star. der the circumstances. The eyes of New England see. She had seen my card. " 'Mr. Jones," said she, 'Miss Mary Dean would be pleased to have you call upon her at 1716 Summit avenue at 4 tomorrow afternoon, if you are at all bookish. I may add that Miss Dean and myself are identionl.

"I bowed. Never had I bowed more perfeetly. The native grace and dignity of Miss Dean was an inspiration. The next afternoon I called upon her. There was no east wind in the abode of Mary Dean. the year before and knew how to keep

"We talked, not so much of books that had made us acquainted. I well recall on the sofa. When it became quite dark her head was upon my shoulder. Neither of us had ever loved before-like that. It "Aw, I knowed it," said the waiter, was sweet, entrancing, wenderful! Speak 'Ev'y man wif o healthy-lookin" haid cats not to Amethyst Jones of Boston maids

"Mary Dean became the love of my life.

Amethyst Jones' eyes grew dim. He

"Now, you know, the chiefest thing in "I shall tell you." said Amethysk "of dying, undenlable sense of justice. When one of the dearest and altogether the most Mary Dean met Septimbre Garcon, the surprising love episodes of my young man- author of 'Love in a Library,' she was ood. I say surprising, because she was so overwhelmed with the thought that she Boston girl. Boston girls are popularly was indebted to him for having been the supposed to be distant and frigid. Allow primal cause of the great love that-thatme to say, that if one can get the better she decided at last that it was her duty

"But Amethyst Jones possesses, to this "I first met sweet Mary Dean in a day, a farewell letter from Mary Dean library in Boston. I saw, first of all her which is so awset, so noble, so just, that slender and dainty and irreproachable feet. his eyes sometimes grow wet when be as she stood on a little step ladder placed reads. The memory of Mary Dean is like beside shelves of books. Mary was like an a faded rose clasped between the leaves angel, as she reached for a book. It was of a precious book. We all have such a

> The Retort Natural. Judge E. H. Gary, at the steel men's recent dinner in Chicago, said:

"There has sprung up among us a class stayed home at two meetings, as she to work so hard for the orphans, I don't volume at the precise instant, and restored of demagogues who seem to think that didn't quite like to leave them all alone care so much about Mrs. Dangerfield's. I it to the lady as she stepped lightly down, a rich man is necessarily a bad manthe early part of the afternoon. And then think I owe it to myself to work for one. her wonderful cheeks suffused with grati- that a millionaire is as non-moral as the

"Tommy, his teacher said to this boy, do you know the difference between rights and wrong?"

"'Naw,' Tommy replied. "'Wall,' said his teacher, 'suppose you took your little brother's cake from him. what would you be doing?" "Eatin' it, said he."

Preponderance of Evidence. "Borry," said the constable, "but I'll have arrest ye-you been drivin' along at the rate of fifty miles an hour." "You are wrong, my friend," said the driver. "I say I wasn't and here's a $10 bill that say's I wasn't." "All right," returned the constable pocketing the money. "With eleven to one that moment I had lived in vain. "Thank against me I ain't goin' to subject the county to th' expense of a trial."-Harp-

Pressure Applied.

"It is said that you gave money to the "Another untruth!" replied the man who was being investigated. "The legislature

Why is Claude getting sound

"I shink he is bent on mee lage."