It is on the north side of the chapel, twelve feet underground. Rins Gets His Carpet—City Attorney Rins is happy. He has secured his carpet for which he and his assistant, Ignatius Dunn have been contending for a long time. The old carpet in the city attorney's office in the city hall were full of holes. An attempt was made without avail to get a new carpet. Mr. Dunn solved the carpet problem by having the one with holes removed and walked on the bare floor. When Mr. Rins was elevated to the attorneyship the effort was renewed and they have now been rewarded, for the contract has been let to Hayden Bros. to install a new haind hainolium carpet.

THIELMAN PLEADS GUILTY

Member of the Mabray Gang Admits His Guilt. SENSATION IS NOW PROMISED

Member of the Mabray Gang in the Penitentiary Makes a Statement Implicating the Police of Seattle. Darby Thielman, professional base ball player and wrestler in the employ of the Mabray gang, pleaded guilty in United States district court at Council Bluffs Tuesday morning. He admits guilt under the general indictment charging use of the fists in Seattle. Developments in the federal prosecution of the Mabray gang at Council Bluffs bid fair to result in a police shakedown and sensational municipal exposures in Seattle. A member of the gang now in prison at Leavenworth serving a term of sentence imposed by Judge Smith McPherson at the annual trial of the gang last year has given the authorities information which is now being put before the grand jury at Seattle. Several other members of the gang are to appear in court at Council Bluffs. John E. Melkejohn, an Omaha attorney, former assistant secretary of the navy, has been retained for the defense. Eleven Under Arrest. There are eleven Mabray steers under arrest in various parts of the country and within the jurisdiction of Judge McPherson's court, but three of them, Karkeech, Brown and Moore, all in California, have appealed to the United States supreme court. Brown has been in jail for more than a year and Karkeech nearly as long while Moore is out on a $5,000 bond. Those who are reasonably certain of being here and ready for trial are Ryan, the Hot Springs, Ark., saloonkeeper, who was caught in California; Wright, who was arrested in San Antonio, Tex.; Tom Davies, who has been in jail in Oklahoma; L. B. Hindmard, the "Honey Grove Kid," who was caught and jailed in New York City, and John C. Smith, the Steiner, Ill., steerer, and R. E. Thielman, who was arrested in Seattle some time ago and brought to Council Bluffs recently. Thielman is the only one of the whole bunch who is really on the ground and he is safely locked up in the county jail here. There are still two others, Philpotts of California and another in jail in California, whose names cannot be recalled until the full list is submitted to Judge McPherson. The case against Ben Marks of Council Bluffs is yet on the docket. At the time of the trial of Mabray and associates, Marks was reported to be desperately ill. He was granted a continuance after much discussion among the attorneys for the defense and the prosecution. Efforts are being made by his attorneys to gain dismissal of his case at this time.

SEATTLE POLICEMEN INVOLVED

Charges Are Under Investigation by Washington Jury. SEATTLE, March 14.—During 1906 and 1908 Seattle was one of the fields of the Mabray gang, fake boxing and wrestling matches being held in a house boat on Lake Washington. The game yielded thousands of dollars to the gang. The grand jury now in session here is known to be investigating the alleged connection of the Seattle police with the Mabray gang. One of the Mabrayites is said to have given sensational testimony and it is reported that another, now in Leavenworth, Kan. federal prison, will come to Seattle to testify.

Council Will Again Ask Bids on Gas

New Solution Will Be Presented at Session Tonight—Some Bidders Expected. A resolution asking for bidding for lighting the streets of Omaha with gas, will be presented to the city council tonight. The resolution will be drawn similarly to that declared irregular by the committee of the whole Monday afternoon. The new resolution, which the city attorney is preparing, differs from the previous one, in that it will ask bids for periods of three and five years, instead of three years, as the original measure intended to provide. Bidders will be asked to submit offers under different specifications, such as furnishing equipment, maintenance and combinations of these with and without gas. The Omaha Gas company will be asked to bid under its franchise to furnish gas and equipment. The council anticipates bids from the same companies whose bids were rejected, when the resolution was declared irregular. Four concerns bid. The Omaha Gas company offered to furnish gas and maintenance for $25 per lamp per year. The American Street Lighting company of Baltimore bid $20.50 a lamp per year for equipment, maintenance and gas, while the Weisbach Lighting company of America bid $20.50 under the same conditions. All submitted offers on a three year basis. The Omaha Street Lighting company offered to furnish equipment and maintenance for $20 a lamp per year, the city to furnish its own gas. HE SHOOTS; BUT ROWDIES FLEE

Officer Fires on Men Running to Avoid Arrest—One Is Captured. Shots fired near Twenty-fourth and Hamilton streets last evening aroused the neighborhood, but it turned out to be Officer Woodbridge firing in the air to frighten some youths who were running to get away from him. A report was made that a party of young men had broken into a saloon in the neighborhood the night before by kicking in a panel of the door. Woodbridge found them in a shoe repair shop. When he entered the boys all broke through the windows and ran. Woodbridge fired to make them stop. They all got away. "Fifteen thousand Japanese troops landed at Magdalena, Lower California," chattered the tickers on the Omaha Grain exchange. Then a seven-eighths advance in wheat followed. Bulls grasped at the suggestion of war prices to further their efforts in the fight against sentiment in favor of the bears based on the large stocks and bright crop prospects. The Japanese war talk was felt by the market suddenly. The advance came just at the close. The dispatch telling of the landing of troops by the Japs came over Postal wires from Kansas City. It could be traced no farther here. The same influence was felt in all of the big markets.

He described the timepiece as being of a heavy gold case with a picture of birds flying from a nest filled with eggs on the back, and a picture of birds flying from an empty nest on the front. The new resolution, which the city attorney is preparing, differs from the previous one, in that it will ask bids for periods of three and five years, instead of three years, as the original measure intended to provide. DON'T PULL OUT THE GRAY HAIRS

NO LONGER NECESSARY, SAYS A WRITER. "Pull out one gray hair and a dozen will take its place" is an old saying, which is, to a great extent, true, if no steps are taken to stop the cause. When gray hairs appear it is a sign that nature needs assistance. It is nature's call for help. Gray hairs, dull lifeless hair, or hair that is falling out is not necessarily a sign of advancing age, for there are thousands of elderly people with perfect heads of hair without a single streak of gray. When gray hairs come, or when the hair seems to be lifeless or dead, some good, reliable hair-restoring treatment should be resorted to at once. Specialists say that one of the best preparations to use is the old-fashioned "sage tea," which our grand parents used. The best preparation of this kind is Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Hair Remedy, a preparation of domestic sage, and sulphur, scientifically compounded with later discovered hair tonics and stimulants, the whole mixture being carefully balanced and tested by experts. Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur is clean and wholesome and perfectly harmless. It refreshes dry, parched hair, removes dandruff and gradually restores faded or gray hair to its natural color. This preparation is offered to the public at fifty cents a bottle and is recommended and sold by Sherman & McConnell Drug Co., and Owl Drug Co.
