governor. Prince's reply was that there could be no situation in which the governor could know what the people want better than they know for themselves. The board as demanded in both party platforms was to be strictly a nonpartisan affair, but Prince succeeded in getting his bill passed from the four. The fact that it makes the board elective makes it merely theoretically nonpartisan. The only dissenting votes came from Matrau and Jones.

(From a Staff Correspondent.) LINCOLN, March 17.—(Special.)—The house today took the following action on bills up for passage:

MANUEL WILL ASK FOR INQUIRY

Superintendent of Industrial School Wants Charges Investigated. KEARNEY, March 17.—(Special.)—Superintendent C. B. Manuel of the State Industrial school here, upon reading the report of the public lands and buildings committee to the legislature, in which they asked for the abolition of the school if it could not be placed in proper condition for the training of the young men placed there by the state, said he would be pleased to have an investigation of his methods made and locate the cause of the "waste" of the people's money. He considered the charges made by the committee unjust and groundless, but refused to make a detailed reply at this time.

KEAYON ALMOST ELECTED

Iowa Republican Within Nine Votes of an Election.

SENATORSHIP HANGS BY THREAD

Six Votes Will Go to Him Whenever They Are Sufficient to Elect—Legislature Passes Bills.

(From a Staff Correspondent.) DES MOINES, March 17.—(Special Telegram.)—The senatorial deadlock seems as firmly locked up tonight as ever in the history of the legislature, though the friends of Judge Kenyon believe that tomorrow they will make another gain for him and may possibly elect a senator. It is understood that the six members who voted for Kenyon once before would do so again in case it meant election, but at least a dozen votes are needed to elect. The democrats will remain here for the Saturday session and compel a full vote of all members.

No Prison Reform.

The house today voted down a measure to reorganize the method of caring for prisoners in county jails, leaving it to the boards to provide by contract for the feeding of the same.

Terminal Tax Bill.

Senator Saunders had the senate make a special order for next Thursday of the terminal tax bill, which contemplates taxing the value of railroad terminals where located instead of distributing the value along the right-of-way on a mileage basis. The committee of the senate on mines reported favorably the Clarkston bill for revision of the mine laws of the state.

Keokuk Girl Hunting Parents.

Governor Carroll today received a letter from Blanche Cole, aged 12, of Los Angeles, requesting that he aid in locating her mother from whom she was kidnaped by her father at Keokuk, Ia., thirteen years ago. Just prior to his death in Los Angeles, recently, the father confided to the girl the history of her earlier life.

Requestion for Mrs. Brewer.

Governor Carroll has issued regulation papers for the return to Des Moines of Mrs. Maude Brewer, who has been arrested in Oklahoma City. Mrs. Brewer is wanted on the charge that she swindled John Hauser out of $1,300 by pretending that she would help him find a treasure buried in his cellar.

Father J. T. Sanders Made Monsignor of Sioux City Diocese

Hundred and Fifty Priests Attend Service of Investiture and Banquet at Fort Dodge.

FORT DODGE, Ia., March 17.—(Special.)—St. Patrick's day, 1911, was notable among Fort Dodge Roman Catholics and to the Iowa Catholic clergy as the date of the formal investiture of Father John T. Sanders of Fort Dodge, with the robes of the honorary office of monsignor. Several hundred visitors are gathered today for the event. One hundred and fifty priests of the Sioux City diocese and from Davenport, Dubuque, St. Louis and Chicago were present for the ceremony. At the completion, Father Sanders will be monsignor as well as vicar general of the diocese and pastor of Corpus Christi parish in Fort Dodge.

Army Officers and Diplomats Watch Test of Aeroplane

Secretary of War and Military Attaches Witness Tryout of New Curtiss Machine.

WASHINGTON, March 17.—With representatives of War and Navy departments and naval attaches from a number of foreign legations here, looking on, the aeroplane just purchased by the War department was given its initial and successful demonstration early today. The machine, which is what Curtiss designates his "military type," was given a thorough tryout by J. A. D. McCurdy, who made two ascents, each time circling several times the big lot to the south of the state, war and navy buildings. So close did he sail to the building that the whirr of the war-bird's propeller was heard plainly in the office of the secretary of state.

THREE THOUSAND MEN READY

Upon War Commission. (From a Staff Correspondent.) WASHINGTON, March 17.—(Special Telegram.)—On March 9 a telegram was sent from the secretary of war to the adjutant general of militia of the various states requesting the designation of a limited number of officers of organized militia to attend the maneuvers now in progress at Fort Myer, continuing the purpose of observation and instruction. In response to this invitation by the War department every state, with the exception of Wyoming and Kentucky, has responded by sending names of officers who will be glad to avail themselves of participation in the contemplated maneuvers. Up to March 16 a total of 3,277 names of officers have been sent to the department by the adjutants general as being ready to take part in the maneuvers along the Mexican border and glean knowledge in the war game.

Commerce Commission Announces Rulings

Long and Short Provision Applies to All Rates—Same Kind Should Be Compared.

WASHINGTON, March 17.—Announcement of certain rulings of the Interstate Commerce commission today, in long and short haul provision of the existing interstate commerce act was made late today. The commission says the provision applies to all rates and fares, but in determining whether it contravenes, rates and fares of the same kind should be compared with one another that is transportation rates with transportation rates; proportional rates with proportional rates, etc.

MILITIA OFFICERS WILL NOT REPORT BEFORE APRIL FIRST

Each Will Be Attached to Man of Corresponding Grade and from Same Arm.

WASHINGTON, March 17.—None of the officers of the state militias who are to join the army in Texas to receive instructions in military maneuvers, are to report to the instruction camps before April 1. Each officer from the militia will be attached to an officer of corresponding grade and from the same arm of the service. The War department is waiting to hear from General Carter, in charge of the maneuvers, before deciding how many officers from the militia will be allowed to attend the instruction work at one time.
