

Oyster Recipes

HIRRED OYSTERS - Chop twenty-five large oysters fine, add the beaten yolks of two eggs, two table-spoonfuls of cream, sufficient dry bread crumbs to thicken, and salt and pepper to taste. Fill the cleaned shells with the mixture. Put little pieces of butter on top and bake in a quick oven until lightly browned.

Boiled Oyster Loaf - One and one-half pounds of round beefsteak and the same quantity of fresh lean pork, ground fine. Add to the ground meat one quart of fresh oysters, three eggs, and eight soda crackers rolled fine. Salt and pepper to taste. Mix all together in a loaf and bake one hour with one pint of water. Baste frequently.

St. Patrick's Day

In all the social entertainments today, St. Patrick's green has been featured. The floral decorations are particularly unique. Shamrocks imported from "Auld Ireland," and a variety of naturally white flowers, such as the white snapdragons and white carnations, but artificially tinged with the green, are prevalent in the decorations.

Annual Banquet

Thirty fraternity men from Lincoln will arrive Saturday to attend the annual banquet given by local members of the Phi Delta Theta fraternity at the Omaha club Saturday evening. Mr. E. C. Page will be toastmaster and Mr. Amos Thomas is master of ceremonies.

Pleasures Past

Mrs. H. Castleton entertained the Up and Down club at her home. Prizes were won by Mrs. B. M. Homan and Mrs. W. Loftus. Next meeting will be at Miss Tille Penner's home in two weeks. Those present were: Mesdames W. Smith, K. Kelly, M. McGaughey, H. Hopsan, Miss Tille Penner.

For the Future

The Junior club will give a dancing party Saturday evening, March 25. Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Howland will entertain at dinner Tuesday evening for the members of the Wood-Howland wedding party.

The Women of Congregation Bnai Israel will give a large dancing party Sunday evening at the Metropolitan club. About 300 guests are expected to be present.

Mr. and Mrs. John Steel, 315 South Thirtieth avenue, will entertain at a large reception this evening at their home from 8 to 10 o'clock in compliment to Mr. and Mrs. Harry O. Steel, who have recently returned from their wedding trip.

Mesdames - Mrs. W. Foster, G. A. Loveland of Lincoln, Misses - May Nichols, Frances Stein of Lincoln.

Personal Gossip

Mrs. Charles C. Rosewater has returned from a few days' visit in St. Louis. Mrs. Frank C. Bolles has returned from an extended visit in New York.

Miss Nell Hayden of Springfield, Mo., is expected today to be guest of her sister, Mrs. Alfred Longwell, at the Sanford. A daughter was born yesterday to Captain and Mrs. David Stone at Fort Sill, Okla.

Mrs. G. A. Loveland and Miss Frances Stein of Lincoln arrived this morning to attend the reception given this evening by Mr. and Mrs. John Steel in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Harry O. Steel.

Several prominent society women of Chicago will act as patronesses for the Lake Forest academy play, "Nathan Hale," to be given in the academy gymnasium Saturday evening. Charles Gardner of Omaha will take the part of Guy Fitzroy.

Postal cards from Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Pickett, Miss Pickett, Mr. Joseph Hayden and Miss Ophelia Hayden, who are with a party touring the West Indies and Panama, report arrival at Kingston, Jamaica, March 8, with a most enjoyable trip to that point.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Updike, who have been occupying the home of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Updike on Farnam and Thirty-sixth street, during the latter's absence in California, are moving today to their former home at Fortieth and Harney streets.

Important and Interesting Store News Facts from Hayden's Clothing Department

News that will appeal to the man who cares for quality, style and the benefit of the purchasing power of ready cash. For the man who is willing to receive in return one hundred and fifty cents worth of merchandise value for every dollar spent.

This Time It's the Serge Suits "True Blue" - We call them a term which in every sense the word means. Over 1,000 of them in one big purchase secured at our own price and not one of them worth less than $25.00--on sale at one price, Saturday $16.50

All our Spring 1911 Newest Styles in shapes and models to suit old or young. Regulars, stouts, longs, stout shorts, stubs and the University models for the young fellows who want something different and distinctive.

How Can We Do It?

Here's the story briefly told. This order was placed some six months ago with the manufacturer by an eastern retail house which has since discontinued business, leaving this big lot of blue serge suits on their hands.

Regarding the Character of these Clothes

They are hand tailored throughout by one of the best manufacturers in the United States. Cloth is the best "Oswego" serge, dyed in the wool, acid tested indigo color--guaranteed full standard weight.

See them in Our 16th Street Windows

We want you to come Saturday. Use your cold, unbiased, unsympathetic judgment, your knowledge and experience of the past and tell us where in that past you've ever seen such values. Pick out your suit Saturday, even if you don't need it just now; pay a small deposit and we will hold it for you, and if in the meantime you find its equal or better value, we will cheerfully refund to you the amount of your deposit.

HAYDEN BROS.

Our Men's Hat and Traveling Goods Dept. Now Located in West Room on Main Floor. Men's Soft and Stiff Felt Hats, in new shapes and colors, at $1.45. Caps--50c and 75c values; on sale Saturday at 35c.

Woman's Work

Activities of Various Organized Bodies Along the Lines of Understanding of Concern to Women. The household economic department of the Woman's club has found this year's plan of work so satisfactory that at the meeting Thursday morning it decided to continue it next year.

April 5 is announced as the date of the luncheon which the women of the first of the various clubs will give in accordance with their annual custom, in honor of the visiting citizens' association.

At the meeting the report of the month's work showed that all visits had been made by the nurses to 96 patients. This compares with 107 of the year before.

Mrs. W. C. Shannon was re-elected president of the Omaha of the Omaha Woman's League held a pleasant meeting Thursday evening at the Schmoeller & Mueller auditorium.

A local painter spent three months on a painting. He spent a good deal of money on models, but the finished product justified all his expenditures and all his time.

The secretary of the Nebraska Public Library commission, Miss Charlotte Thompson, has written to the federated clubs of the state, explaining the way in which the commission will assist them in their work.

"Inquiries which have come in to the office of the library commission during the last month in reference to reserving books for next year indicate that program committees are already busy planning next year's work.

FASHION HINTS

of the help of the library commission, others, perhaps, do not know that the resources of the library commission are at their service. The library commission will send to any club books covering the work of the year.

Miss Alice Howell, head of the department of expression at the University of Nebraska, will give a reading of "The Dawn of Tomorrow" at the Young Women's Christian association Monday evening at 8:35 o'clock.

The Omaha chapter of the American Woman's League held a pleasant meeting Thursday evening at the Schmoeller & Mueller auditorium.

The study class are under the following leaders: Mrs. Nettie Allen, Mrs. J. M. Sturdevant, Mrs. W. H. Howard, Mrs. Jeanette White, Mrs. Carrie Scott and Mrs. J. W. Russell.

Realism in Art. A local painter spent three months on a painting. He spent a good deal of money on models, but the finished product justified all his expenditures and all his time.

Novel Mode of Disinfecting. In the borough of Poplar, London, the experiment is being made of sprinkling the floors of school rooms with an electrolytic disinfecting fluid before they are swept at night.

There is only too much truth in the complaint raised, but it may be doubted if French society is altogether right in blaming Americans or sport for the decadence in the politeness of their men.

order to tilt her hat back is also the precursor of difficulties, because the hat is clamped down with so many pins that it won't lift.

FRENCH POLITENESS MARRED

Americana Influence Held Responsible for Decadence in Manners of the World. The Paris Journal gives a conversation supposed to have been heard at an afternoon tea in the drawing room of the marquis de Gansy on the decline of French politeness due to the Americanization of gesture and a general affectation of brusquerie.

There is only too much truth in the complaint raised, but it may be doubted if French society is altogether right in blaming Americans or sport for the decadence in the politeness of their men.

The impertinence and insolence sometimes seen in French women are almost incredible. The remedy lies in their hands, and if women encourage casual treatment by men it is useless to complain if this is sometimes carried further than they desire.

Green is plentiful in Omaha today. Oh, not only in the buttonholes of the loyal sons of Erin, but in the market places where the garden stuff from the sunny south and smiling California and Florida is displayed.

Green is plentiful in Omaha today. Oh, not only in the buttonholes of the loyal sons of Erin, but in the market places where the garden stuff from the sunny south and smiling California and Florida is displayed.

which is larger, more tender and more plentiful than a few weeks ago, sells at 25 cents a bunch. Wax beans are 30 cents a quart; cucumbers, 15 and 25 cents each; lettuce, 5 and 15 cents a head; summer squash, 5 and 10 cents each; celery, 5 and 10 cents a stalk; turnips, heads and carrots are 3 cents a bunch.

Sweet potatoes are getting a bit scarcer and are now selling for three pounds for 25 cents. Old potatoes are being featured by some of the grocers at 10 cents a bushel, though the regular price remains from 8 cents to 12.50, according to the variety.

Strawberries continue to be gracious in price, though a bit short in flavor, and sell for 10 cents a pint box. The price is three bunches for 25 cents. Pineapples are becoming scarce and the choice sell for 30 cents each. Oranges range in price from 30 to 45 cents a dozen. Grape fruit is 5, 10 and 15 cents each.

Variety of Green Garden Stuff is Featured in Market Today

order to tilt her hat back is also the precursor of difficulties, because the hat is clamped down with so many pins that it won't lift.

Sunday Dinner Menu. Clear Soup. Baked Water Chop. Mashed Potatoes. Green Peas. Lettuce. French Dressing. Wafers. Tomato Water Ice. Coffee.

TOMATO WATER ICE - Put in a saucepan one-half of a can of tomatoes, one pint of water, the juice of one lemon, three sliced apples, three-quarters of a cup of granulated sugar and a pinch ground ginger. Heat slowly to the boiling point, take from the fire, and rub through a fine sieve.

Green is plentiful in Omaha today. Oh, not only in the buttonholes of the loyal sons of Erin, but in the market places where the garden stuff from the sunny south and smiling California and Florida is displayed.

People have been eating a great deal of fish during these last two weeks, but, of course, they have not exhausted the Pacific coast or Atlantic seaports stock, only taxed the local market. Friday's demand is normally large. One of the largest and most popular of the markets averages 2,000 pounds for the Friday trade.

People have been eating a great deal of fish during these last two weeks, but, of course, they have not exhausted the Pacific coast or Atlantic seaports stock, only taxed the local market.

Chickens of continue scarce and spring chickens retail at 25 cents a pound; hens, 17 cents; ducks, 30 cents; geese, 15 cents, and turkeys 28 cents.

Eggs are plentiful now, but price for the fresh country eggs remains 20 cents a dozen. Butter continues to sell for 20, 24, 28 and 25 cents a pound.