Sunday delivery of letters was one of the topics discussed at the meeting of the Commercial club yesterday. A good representation of the business men of the city attended and the concensus of opinion was that there was no necessity for the staff being employed for severat hours Sunday handling the mails, and a committee was appointed to draw up a resolution for submission to Postmaster Lew Etter for transmission to the posimaster general.

The sentiment of the meeting was Baright ball, Nineteenth and Farnam, at strongly against this extra labor imposed on the government officials, and when Five Plumbers Pass Exams Five of Mayor Trainer presented his resolution in the seven plumbers who took the examinafavor of the abolition of the present sys- tion before the plumbing board Friday sleepers filled with homeseekers. The Commercial club also discussed the question of local freight. This is a subject that has been engaging the attention of the club some time, and as Joseph H. Koptets stated. "It is of vast consequence to the community." in view of the establiebment of local industries.

According to the evidence at yesterday's meeting the trouble would seem to arise in the handling of the freight at the Counoil Bluffs transfer. One man gave an ingot there in that many days," he said.

QY a careful perusal of the Piano advertisements of our competitors it will be seen that it is a simple matter to untangle a selfsolving puzzle and thereby secure a coupon good for $150.00 on any piano in their stock which has previously undergone a raise in price equal to that alluring amount.

Likewise it appears perfectly possible, by threatening to purchase a piano from one of these stores, to secure practically anything from a silver mounted quill toothpick to a sixteen story brick block as a slight token of the proprietor's esteem and undying affection. Furthermore it is apparent, judging from these delightful advertisements, that by joining hands with a club of equally joyous purchasers, a piano may be secured at such low price as to cause briny tears to course the cheek of the self-sacrificing merchant.

We Are Not Doing This. Why? Just Because We Don't Have To! See?

The quality of our pianos has never been questioned, and we do not have to propound primer puzzles that would insult the intelligence of a schoolboy in order to show that our prices are the very lowest and our terms the most reasonable possible under existing circumstances.

Speaking of clubs-we neither use them on our prospective customers, nor indulge in them as bait for the unwary bidder who imagines untold bargains because he is one of a crowd. To get the lowest price on pianos in this house one person alone can get the same amount of quality in one piano as 100 or more could get by falling before the so-called and well named "Piano Club." It Is Not What We Will Do-It Is What We Are Doing!

No business is operated for the benefit of the health of the proprietor, nor as a mere means of amusement for him. If he masquerades in this light, it is simple to unmask him.

DON'T BE A MIKE

If an apparently tender-hearted and philanthropic merchant says that he will make you a little gift of a $100 diamond or a $50 watch or a $10 stickpin with the piano you contemplate buying, you may safely bet your last hard, round dollar that this little present is being settled for in the purchasing price of the instrument. You will get what you pay for, and nothing more-sometimes not that much when the effort to secure your custom is so strained.

We Simply Sell Pianos

We are not operating a puzzle department.

We are not walking delegates for a piano club. We are not running a charity in diamonds, watches and stickpins.

We Simply Sell Pianos

We are selling more of them in the western country than any other dealer this side of the Mississippi river, for the simple reason that when you buy a piano from HAYDEN BROS, you get what you want-FULL VALUE in HIGH QUAL. ITY at a LOW PRICE. Our line is as follows:

Whittall's Wilton Rugs : Spring

It is easy to understand the sentiment which attaches to a rug that has journeyed over countless miles of desert-on which its one-time owner prayed at morn, noon and eve-and that has been given the lustre of silk by a century of passing feet. Such were the Orientals of other years. All the best Oriental art is now in museums and private collections. But antique Orientals are reproduced in America, and they possess that rich, lustrous sheen and deep pile that is found in the original Oriental weaves. The mellow sunlight and deep cool shades have been put in and made permanent by American science.

We are showing this spring a line of the famous Whittall's Wilton rugs, reproductions of Orientals, which should be inspected by every housewife. The quality has not been sacrificed for beauty and design, yet harmony, individuality and beauty are retained. The fineness and beauty in these weaves add grace and dignity to home. The range of colors and shadings is the widest. The rugs are adapted to every purse and purpose. They are made in every conceivable size. We quote here only a few prices from an extraordinary stock.
