ROURKES TIE WITH BOSTON

Game Called in Tenth Inning, with Score One to One.

SOME MAGNIFICENT PITCHING

Durbia Works in Midsummer Form, as Does Also Karger-Graham Plays a Great Game at Second Base.

With a 1 to 1 score hung up and a man on second base, for Omaha, the game with the Boston Red Sox No. 2 yesterday afternoon was called in the tenth inning.

Perfect weather and Omaha's defeat of the Red Sox Saturday brought out over 1,500 fans to watch the Colts attempt to duplicate their stunt of the preceding day.

Up until the ninth inning no errors had been chalked up against the Red Sox, but when Anderson eluded a liner in Friepke's direction at the beginning of that inning he fell in trying to reach for it and when he grabbed the ball it slipped through his mitt.

King Shines in the Field.

The work of the Omaha center fielder was beyond criticism. He had five chances put to him and carried them away with ease.

Graham, playing at second for the Colts, was in rare form and handled seven chances without a miss.

Arrelanes, who was not seen in the Saturday lineup, came into the game and himself a favorite with the fans by his brilliant work in the center garden.

Knauer's play well in all probability remain on the Red Sox regular squad, according to Acting Manager Larrigan, handled fourteen plays without an error.

The work of the Omaha team yesterday, taken as a whole was good and with more practice games they will be in a good condition to battle for the long end of the opening day game.

All the youngsters worked hard in an endeavor to play the early season crowd of fans and showed that they were made of the penmanship signing stuff.

During the last two games it has been demonstrated that Omaha not only has a good team of fielders, but they also bat well.

The Red Sox secured the first run after Meyers had clouted out a two-bagger to left field.

Omaha came back in its half of the eighth, with Schlake taking first on a clean hit to center.

Statesman Anxious to Have Walter Johnson Come Back

Breach Between Twirler of Washington Americans and McAleer Agitates National Capital.

WASHINGTON, April 9.—(Special Telegram.)—The overhanging question in Washington is not reciprocity, or Latin or Mexico, nor is it the tariff or international peace, or the question of whether William J. Bryan is coming back.

The real question is whether Walter Johnson, the great twirler of the Washington Americans, is going to make up with Manager Jimmy McAleer, or if he is going to bury his glory in Coffeyville, Kan.

"Did Johnson do the right thing, or did he make a fool of himself?"

This is what they are all asking. For President Taft, "Old" Murdock, and other statesmen, down to the old colored boot-black at the corner of Fourteenth street and Pennsylvania avenue.

Opinion is widely divided, but the controversy is raging all the way from the Capitol to the White House.

The truth is that about the only gleam of relief statesmen perceive for themselves this spring and summer is in going to base ball games of an afternoon.

It is the only oasis in a desert of tariff, reciprocity, presidential politics and troubles.

McAleer may be victor over Johnson, but there is going to be a big slump in the gate receipts if he doesn't get the man from Coffeyville back.

Johnson is the "Matty" of the American league.

FIGHT MADE ON "BEST MANAGER"

"Dez" Interests Said to Be Opposed to Earl Eager for Re-election as Head of Cornhusker Athletic Teams.

LINCOLN, April 9.—(Special.)—After years of waiting the University of Nebraska is to have a added field for football games, the work to be done during the coming summer.

At the next meeting of the athletic board, which will be held April 17, the committee on building and grounds will submit a report of the bids for sodding the field.

The work, however, will not start until later in the spring, as the constant use of the field by the cadet battalion and the base ball men would probably result in injury to the sod.

The field will be carefully taken care of during the summer and upon the arrival of the players in the fall it is expected that the grounds will be in the best of shape.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 8.—(Special Telegram.)—Confinement behind prison bars at the county jail fails to keep the spirit of Jack Johnson from taking flight into outer realms.

THREE MASKED BANDITS

Stand Six People Against the Wall While They Rifle Till in One Place.

DES MOINES, April 9.—Three masked bandits in night entered the grocery store of Mrs. Brock, 121 East Sixth street, and six people against the wall and rifled the cash register, securing $100.

They then proceeded to the W. B. Kill store drug store nearby and fired upon the clerk when he refused to open safe.

None of the bullets took effect. Soon afterwards they appeared at the store of Stewart & DeYoung, where they secured $100 and escaped.
