MORE MEN GO TO THE BORDER

Members of Hospital Corps to Move to Front at Once.

ORDER COMES AS A SURPRISE

Word Had Just Been Received to Cut Down the Number of Men Enlisted and Take Only Those in Best Condition.

That the mobilization of troops on the Mexican border, not yet over a week ago, when a message was received at the Omaha army recruiting station ordering the members of the hospital corps at the station to San Antonio at once. The Omaha recruiting officer immediately wired to the Lincoln, Grand Island and Wood City stations, which are subsidiary of the Omaha station, to prepare to leave in two days.

The order came as a surprise to the recruiting officers as word had just been received to cut down on the number of men enlisted and to take only those in best condition. This order will affect one officer from the Omaha station and three from the subsidiaries. The Omaha man is Guy I. Snyder, who will leave Thursday morning for the frontier.

The order not only applies to the Nebraska recruiting stations, but is a general one, which is being sent to every health recruiting station. The only members of the hospital corps who will be ordered to the front in compliance with the message will be those from the army recruiting station. The reason given for the call to the recruiting stations is that there are not enough hospital men on the border now. It is estimated that approximately 1,000 recruiting station doctors and assistants will go to San Antonio and El Paso under the order just issued.

Auto Stolen Three Times Before Found

Machine Gives Owner and Police Officers a Merry Chase Before it is Captured.

After having been stolen three times within the course of twenty-four hours the automobile of J. M. Baldrige was found Monday night at Fortieth and William streets. Mr. Baldrige's machine was stolen Sunday night from the residence of Fred Hockstetter, 148 Third Street, where Mr. Baldrige's stepson, Arthur Wolfe, and Willard Smythe were calling. Yesterday morning the automobile was brought to Twenty-seventh and Farnam by two boys. The conduct of the boys aroused the suspicion of a woman living near and she notified the police. Emergency Officer Finner on his motorcycle went to the place at once, but the auto had again disappeared. An hour later the police were notified that the machine was at Thirty-seventh and Farnam and again the emergency officer went to the place to find the auto gone for the third time. Late last night it was found at Fortieth and William and turned over to the owner.

Would Join the Navy to Get Enough to Eat

Youth Without Meals for Four Days Appears at the Recruiting Station.

Many are the reasons given by applicants for enlistment in the navy, but the Omaha navy recruiting station was given a jolt Tuesday morning when Louis Spridgen gave as reason for wanting to enlist the need of enough to eat. When he appeared at the naval station he said he had not eaten anything for four days, and while he was being examined he fainted from hunger.

Spridgen in answering questions said he did not know where his home was, as he had been "beating it" around the country for five years. He did not know where his parents lived, and said he was tired of walking around the country and not getting enough to eat, and he thought that by joining the navy he would at least get enough grub for four years to last him awhile.

After being restored to consciousness from his faint Spridgen was given money to go out and get something to eat, and then instructed to come back. From last reports he had not returned and Lieutenant Post, who supplied the boy with money for a meal, thinks he has been "stung."

Bucket Shops Close Because of New Law

Two in Omaha Shut Up Tuesday Morning—String of Plants Over State Follow.

Omaha's bucket shops did not open for business Tuesday morning. The closing of the bucket shops follows the passage of the Barton anti-bucket shop bill in the state legislature. The bill was signed by the governor under date of April 10.

In that the bill carried no emergency clause and hence is effective ninety days hence, it is the opinion of those in touch with the business that the bucket shop men have "something up their sleeves." The two establishments in Omaha closed in anticipation of the action of the bill are the Lincoln Commission company, Ben Hoover, manager, Board of Trade building, and the George Shugart establishment on the sixth floor of the Brandeis building. The Lincoln Commission company, formerly was operated under the name of Herbert E. Gooch of Lincoln. About a year ago Mr. Gooch, ostensibly at least, withdrew from the business. The Lincoln Commission company has about thirty establishments scattered over the state.

A Reliable Medicine—Not a Narcotic. Mrs. F. Marti, St. Joe, Mich., says: "Our little boy contracted a severe bronchial trouble and as the doctor's medicine did not cure him, I gave his Foley's Honey and Tar Compound in which I have great faith. It cured the cough, as well as the choking and gaging spells and he got well in a short time. Foley's Honey and Tar Compound has many times saved us much trouble and we are never without it in the house. For sale by all druggists."

The Quest for Women's Easter Suits & Dresses Usually Terminates at Bennetts

During the past few days hundreds of new tailored suits have been unpacked and added to the already comprehensive Easter exhibit, and today we introduce to you the "jewels" of the collection. Tans and grays, in handsome patterns of foreign serges; adaptations from the smartest Parisian creations. Here's a tan suit, with long, slender silk lapels that extend nearly to the bottom of the neat little short jackets. The tailor's art has drawn these suits with puffed and gored skirts, narrow effects to conform with the straight mannish line of the coat. Such art and finishing compares only with custom tailor's work and these wear Duchess satin lining, and costs but $7.00. New Foulard Dresses of Unusual Beauty, $29.50, and every woman should have a four-lap dress for Easter. They are so cool and dainty, so convenient, and withal so effective and dressy.
