which the form the foundation are asornamental as useful. So simple that even a child can be set to work and find pleasure in accomplishing the task is the making of afternoon ten cloths. Children are especially fascinated if some of their awn special handkerchiefs are employed, and never look upon the stitches as drudgery. Four handkerchief are required, and they are kept apart by strips of insertion and the finishing touches are put by sewing on a border of lace cloth to match the insertion. For a large size ten cloth nine handkerchiefs could be used in three rows of three. The same kind of handkerchief makes a useful mop cap, which the housewife who values her tresses should don when she engages in dusty work Mark a circle bearly as large as the handkerchief, and machine along it the edges of folded piece of fairly wide tape. Pass a draw atring of narrow tape through the fold and draw it up. The a bow with long ends, so that the handkerchief can be spread flat when laundered.

Large sized handkerchiefs of the Prunella make can be turned to account in making an apron of good size for housework, yet of such dainty appearance that it need not be doffed for visitors. Use two handkerchiefs. Cut one in half straight across and sew the cut edge to the other one. Cut off the opposite border of the whole handkerchief and turn it to account for the band. Cut the remaining half of the handkerchief into bib and pockets, and, if possible, arrange also for shoulder straps,

Listen to Reason

Do you suppose that the ordinary sized, "maker controlled," piano dealer could risk purchasing outright, FIFTY Player Planos of one kind at ONE clip? Do you suppose that a plod-along piane concern could scrape up ambition enough to INTRODUCE a "club" like this? Do you suppose that the 'one-store" concern is going to get the concessions, rebates and special deals that WE get with our western chain of over twenty stores and agencies? STRENGTH tells! Our "club books" tell. The additional CAR LOAD of Autopiano Co. products now at the freight depot will tell-that WE ARE and will ever be, the strongest, most aggressive piano concern, not only of Omaha, but of the WEST in general.

The "Club" is growing, growing, members are enthusing, there's MUSIC everywhere!

Think of it! 50 Player Pianos of one kind in one "Club" to SELL in just ONE month!
