MADERO'S ARMY ON THE MOVE

Casas Grandes to Be Invaded by the Chihuahua Insurgents,

FEDERAL OFFICIALS SCATTER Leave the City Penetically to Mercy of the Invaders, Who Hope to Take City of Junes Shortly.

(From a Staff Correspondent.) EL PASO, Tex., April 10 -- (Special Cordence.)-Private advices from Pearon, Mexico, verify the report that Madero's army is moving on Casas Grandes. The army arrived in Madera, Saturday night. and is expected in Casas Grandes Tuesday or Thursday. It is believed the insurrecto forces are marching overland, upon the city they once tried to take.

The federal officers at Cludad Juarea, are making desperate efforts to reach General Equis Liz, who is now marching overland from Casas Grandes to Chihuahua, by way of Suas, and turn him back to Casas Grandes to protect the town from the unexpected invasion. At the present time both Casas Grandes and the road to Juacez are unprotected and the field clear for the carrying out of Madero's original purpose of taking Casas Grandes and later taking Juares, a port of entry. It is now believed that the demonstration at Chihuahua was in the nature of a feint on the part of the insurrector to draw the federal forces into Chihuahua and then make a quick movement to the north, If this was the plan, it is working beautifully.

Abandoning the City. What few Mexican officials remain at Casas Grandes have given the residents ermission to leave with their families if they so desire, and they are taking advantage of the privilege and are scattering in all directions. Smallpox has broken out end many Mexicans are offering large sums to anyone who will convey them out of the entry. With the federals and prisoners on their way to Chihuahua went Donaciano Mapula, recently appointed jefe politico. His departure completed the municipal disorganization. Apparently Madero and his nain command will not meet opposition when it marches into Casas Grandes.

Modest Girl Rebel.

Among the passengers on a train from Casas Grandes to Juarez, Saturday, was Patrocina Vasquez, the 16-year-old girl who fought heroically in the battle of Casas Grandes and was captured by the federals. General Equia Liz gave her her liberty before he left for Chihuahua, saying that he did not wish any woman to suffer the hardships of the march to Chihuahua with the other prisoners. In the attack on the town Miss Vasquez is said to have fought madly, discharging two big army pistols in the port upon it, but no further action was faces of the federals when they surrounded had. the small band of rebels and cut off re-

Famine Threatens Now. Conditions are repidly shaping themselves in the states of Chihushua and Sonora for a crisis more serious than death n battle. Americans in these two states declare that unless the rebellion is ended very soon that all northern Mexico will experience a disastrous famine. Many of the cities have been deserted by federal troops. Cananes has only a portion of one troop of federals, Moctesuma.

Two of the wounded in yesterday's batde died over night at the Red Cross hospital and two amputations of limbs, necesdisted by builet wounds, were performed oday. In Agua Prieta eleven dead have been placed in a temporary morgue and there are nearly as many in the morgue on this side of the line. The death list is rapidly ncreasing from the finding of bodies of federals or insurrectes in out-of-the-way places. Most of the firing yesterday was from behind sheltered places and the searchers today are now and then coming across the body of a soldier who fell unacticed in the heat of battle.

Americans Unable to Escape. Americans in Douglas are especiali angered over the fact that American citizens who happened to be at the Nacozari railroad station in Agua Priets when the rebel
