Omaha Churches Will Ring With Easter Anthems Today

Day of Rejoicing Takes Place of Week of Sorrow.

MUSIC IN ALL THE CHURCHES Glad Alleluias and Anthems to Ring Out the Joyous Fidings that Christ is Risen from the Dend.

Easter lilies and paims and the throbbing strains of the exultant alleluias mark the great festival of the resurrection of Christ in the churches today. The funeral trappings of the passion and the mournful cadences of Boty Week give place in the churches to splendor of golden vestments and rich melody that wakes in the heart of christendom yearly in commemoration of the greatest mystery of the Christ life. Throughout the ritual of the churches the change prevails from sorrow to joy, from gloom to gladness, from the plaint of the miserers to the exultation of the allelulia In all the churches of the city the celebration of Eastertide will consist of rites distinctively in their impressiveness.

The feast of Easter will be observed at St. Cecelia's pro-cathedral with unusual solemnity. Solemn pontifcial mass will be celebrated at 6 o'clook by Right Rev. Bishop Scannell, Rev. D. P. Harrington will be assistant priest and Rev. Isaac Bosset, S. J., and Rev. A. R. Wise, S. J., will assist as deacons at the throne. Rev. The right reverend bishop will give the papal blessing to which is attached a plenary indulgence for those who have received hely communion. Low masses will be celebrated at 8, 9 and 10 o'clock. High mass at 11 o'clock. Special music will be rendered by the choir under the direction of Father Glesson.

The hours for mass at St. Mary Magdalene's church on Easter Sunday are 6, 8 and 10:30 o'clock. Father Grebmaler, who was recently ordained by Archbishop Christie, will celebrate the last mass. Father Benediction Grebmaler is on his way to Germany, where he will further perfect his studies.

The services on Easter Sunday at St. Philomena's church, Tenth and William streets, will consist of a high mass at 6 o'clock, a low mass at 8 o'clock, and a selemn high mass at 10:30. The senior choir, under the direction of Miss Mary McShane, organist, will render the music at the 6 o'clock and 10:30 o'clock masses.

The hours for mass at the Holy Angel's church on Easter Sunday are 7 and 10 Recitation o'clock. Special music will be sung at the Duet o'clock mass by the children's choir, and by the senior choir at the 10 o'clock mass. A sermon will be preached on the resurrec-
