pieces in the fourth inning and as a result Omaha took advantage of the loose playing and garnered four runs before the third man was put out.

Stolen bases featured the Colts base running. Four bases were pilfered by the home team, the honors going to Pickering. King, Kane and Schipke. Although Lincoin took three chances on stealing bases from Gonding it failed to get away with any of them.

Lincoln Scores First. Lincoln went to bat first and managed to get one run, which for a while looked to be the only score of the game. Gagnier got to first on a hit to center, went to second on Cobb's out to Kane and came home on Kanes fumble of Millers liner. No more scoring was done by either team until the fourth inning, when Omaha started the fireworks. King went to first on an error of Unglaub, to second on Kane's hit past pitcher, and came home when Stratton threw the ball past first bass. Kane took second on the wild throw. Schipke went to first on a hit past pitcher and was caught on second by a fielder's choice, Graham getting first, Ward sacrificed the two men and both came in on Cobb's error of Gondling's long fly. Gonding came home on Keeley's hit New York......
