NAVY'S FINE YOUNG MEN.

Today it is not a matter of finding men who are willing to enlist in the U. S. Navy. It is a matter of selecting from among the thousands of young men who will enlist in every way with the high class men who are in the service. The Navy's standard of requirements has been raised only gradually, but the increase in the number of applicants during the last few years has enabled the department to set this standard now at the highest point in the history of the Navy.
