Lincoln, brought in all seven of the tallies in the fourth inning. Wolverton, poorly supported in this inning, allowed the Colts to get to him for six bits. Schoonover and Graham helped the cause by timely three and two baggers. Except for the fourth inning, when the visitors lost their game, the contest was a clean pitchers' battle, with both sounds working hard to support their man. And although the Omahas have three errors chalked up to them to the Antelopey one the local team showed that in connected work and inside base ball, it was far ahead of Don Despain's squad.

More than 2,500 enthusiastic fans, unable to await the five days to the opener, were put to see their team work. Sunday was the best baseball day Omahii has seen this year, and the Engley growd took full advantage of its opportunity Pickering started the fun in the fourth with a hit and his example was followed by King, Kane and Schloke, and Graham got a two-barger. Schipke's single brought in Pickering and King, and Graham's double scored the Skipper and hig Kane. Ward sacrificed to Cockman, and Gonding to Cole. Durbin walked, Schoonover hit a three-bagger and Durbin and Grahum came home. A hunt by Pickering, which Cockman foozled, gave Schoonover his The score:
