HUNTER SUCCEEDS DAVISSON

Norfolk Superintendent of Schools Heads Agricultural School.

BOARD OF REGENTS TAKES ACTION

Number of Changes Made in Faculty -Clerk Richmond Gives Out Statement He Will Not Take Money Away from State.

(From a Staff Correspondent.) LINCOLN, April 18.-At a meeting of the regents of the State university held in this city today, Fred M. Hunter, at present superintendent of the Norfolk schools, was elected to succeed the late A. E. Davisson, as principal of the university school of agriculture.

Mr. Hunter is a graduate of the uniersity in the class of 1905 and while in college was known as a crack foot ball player, a scholarly debater and one of the most popular men in school. Since his graduation he has been superintendent of schools at Fairmont, Ashland and Norfelk and last year was president of the Nebraska association of superintendents and principals. No announcement has been made whether the position will be accepted by the Norfolk man, but it is thought by his friends that he will not turn it down. The appointment is to take effect September 1. Other items of business were transacted by the regents, among them being the following announcements of faculty

Myron H. Swenk, assistant professor of entomology to be associate professor. Charles B. Lee, instructor animal hus-bandry to be adjunct pyrifessor. P. K. Slaymaker, assistant professor ap-
