Benefit Programs

Benefit entertainments are to be many tomorrow. They are likewise to be both varied in nature and interesting by reason of those who will take part in them.

One of the most interesting of these is the entertainment which the children and young people of the Junior auxiliary and Sunday school of Trinity cathedral will give at the new Jacoba Memorial hall at Seventeenth and Dodge streets, "Wonder World" is the title of the entertainment, which includes tableaux and dances by the members of two organizations drilled by Miss West; a night-school performance by Mr. Frank Martin, Miss Mary Marston and Miss Lenore Williams are in charge of the program and the teachers of the Sunday school, Misses Nannie Page, Dorothy Morgan, Marguerite Stowitta, and Miss West and Miss Gehring has assisted in drilling the performers. The patronesses are:

Friends of Miss Minna Meyer are much interested in the benefit concert which Miss Meyer gives Thursday evening at Temple Israel. Mr. Sigmund Landberg will assist in the program.

For Thursday afternoon the important event is a matinee dance entertainment which is to be given under the direction of Miss Lillian Fitch by the pupils of Miss Cooper and Miss West. A number of well known society women are the patronesses.

Another event for Thursday evening is in charge of the C. Z. club of the First Methodist church. They will entertain at dinner in the church parlors in honor of the Western Glee club, who will give a concert Thursday evening at the Young Women's Christian association. About fifty guests will be present at the dinner.

Wedding Bells

The wedding of Miss Luella Kreyenborg, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Kreyenborg, and Mr. Glen Albert Wilcox was celebrated at high noon today at St. John's church, Rev. T. J. Mackay officiating. Owing to the recent illness of the bride's sister the wedding was celebrated quietly, only the immediate relatives and friends being present.

The bride wore her traveling gown of brown broadcloth with hat to match. She carried a large arm bouquet of jonquils. Mr. and Mrs. Wilcox have gone west on their wedding trip and will be at home at the Hamilton after May 15.

Represents Her People

Mrs. M. L. Baldwin, who is the granddaughter of a Chippewa chief, is now one of the adjusters of Indian affairs in the office of the secretary of the interior at Washington. Until she was 14 years of age she slept in an Indian tepee and lived as all Indians did at that time. Her father was a French Huguenot and was a judge, while his daughter was well educated.

Red and blue, violet and blue, lavender and pink, and gray and yellow are combinations seen in many spring models.

In the Show World

Attractions in Omaha.

"A Bachelor's Baby" at the Brandeis.

"An American Widow" at the Boyd.

Yaudeville at the American.

Burlesque at the Gayety.

Burlesque at the Krug.

Lloyd Ingraham is going to give the public a better chance to see "Everyman" and to do this he has engaged the Brandeis theater for three weeks next week, Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday, and will also give a 10 o'clock matinee on Wednesday afternoon, presenting the wonderful morality play that has been preserved through centuries because of its strength. Mr. Ingraham will have the assistance of nearly all the company that recently presented the play for the benefit of the Credit at the Lyric. He has given personal attention to the necessary rehearsals.

One Omaha woman, who has had considerable personal experience with babies, having raised three to adult maturity, says that Mrs. Wilson's complaint of saying that she is surely has studied children and their ways. Otherwise he would not have been able to present the delightful picture of innocent childhood he gives us in his play at the Brandeis. The scene between Tom Beach and Martha Calvert Beach is the result of a deep and understanding knowledge of the nature of a child, and agrees that Francis Wilson in his real life is anything but a foe of children.

Miss Lang really begins her farewell bill this evening when she will change to the second comedy of the week at the Boyd. It is a genuine farewell that the organization is taking, goodbye in fact as well as in name, for the Boyd theater passes into the control of the Shuberts with this season and it is not at all probable Mr. Woodward will again have a stock organization in Omaha. This is not a mere conjecturing reflection, but it is the cold, stark fact that confronts the folks who have had so much pleasure at the performances of the Woodward stock company in the past, and during the long season Miss Lang has played at the Boyd in particular. If you want to see the Woodward company in action you have just what is left of this week for a chance.

Bourke Park is to be the scene of a real bill game this morning when the members of the Yankee Power, highland company and the employees of the home club with Jack Haskell for umpire. It will be some ball game too, for that bunch of husky "grips" has a fine working knowledge of the game, and the actors themselves insist that they simply can't be beaten. The chore ladies will go out to cheer both sides and make a merry holiday of it.

Out in Denver Mr. Southern dodged a direct question as to whether Miss Marlowe and he are married, and immediately began to talk of the greatness of Shakespeare's art.

Marie Cahill, beautiful and bounteous,

Light Tan Gloves Smartest

QUITE the smartest thing in gloves for afternoon, whether the gown be cloth or velvet, is a light tan firm in its old place, but darker gloves are now decreed for the day-time.

When tan gloves first came in again for afternoon only suede was worn, but now the smooth leather, which is so much pleasanter to wear and lasts so much longer, is equally in favor. Long gloves for elbow sleeves, as well as the short gloves, are fashionable in the different shades of tan, but long dark gloves are appropriate for the smart, for they are appropriate with an elaborate waist, and only elaborate gowns have short sleeves this season. Even with a dark brown cloth or corduroy gown gloves of the palest shade of tan are worn, but with a street dress in the morning the heavy damask and plaid gloves are of a darker tone than usual.

The exact shade for a tan glove must naturally be determined principally by the color of the costume which it complements, and the shades to be had are graded in color from palest coffee to deep ecru, with every tone of corn color, mustard, yellow, gold, champagne and a score of others between. There is no color of which a gown can be built with which one of the soft tan tones will not harmonize and look better than hard white. White gloves, of course, may look attractively trim and neat when first put on, but ten minutes later will have lost their beautiful whiteness and even dark brown will look better with the lightest shade of costume than soiled white. Black gloves are smart only in the morning and must never be worn with anything but black. With a street costume, no matter how dark a shade, there will be some tone of brown leather or gray suede or castor that will look better than black.

White and yellow wash gloves will be worn straight through the spring with all mourning costumes.

Model Hotel for Horses.

A model hotel in which teamsters and peddlers may house their horses has been established by a number of charitable women in New York City. The purpose of this establishment is primarily to take the poor beasts who stumble about the streets all day and stand all night in ramshackle and unprotected places into the comfortable stables.

The woman in charge has a strong, well-cared for horse which acts as a substitute when one of the boarders is deemed unfit for work and in need of a rest. They also have a rest farm out from New York City to which the horses are sent for the tonic of good food, good air and rest.

Many of these horses now hauling truck carts about were once the high stepping steeds that drew the "widow coaches of the gilded folk" and they show appreciation of the new comfort offered them in their old age.

Trading Stamps Win Victory in Court

Bill in Legislature Held to Be Unconstitutional in the State of Massachusetts.

BOSTON, Mass., April 19.—When in doubt as to the constitutionality of a proposed law, it is the privilege of the legislature of Massachusetts to refer the bill to the justice of the supreme court. The fact of the bill is then in their hands. In accordance with that prerogative the present legislature referred to the supreme judicial court a bill aimed at trading stamps. The court has just handed down its decision, which holds that bill unconstitutional on the ground that it would forbid transactions that are not different in principle from the contract of sale which always have been held within the constitutional right of persons in every state to possess and acquire property, to transact legitimate business and to buy and sell and get gain.

The court then cites many decisions in support of its opinion and proceeds to say, "There is nothing in the conduct proposed to be prohibited that necessarily appals to the gambling instinct nor involves an intent of chance. Such statutes and ordinances have been held unconstitutional in the highest courts in a large number of states."

HOW AUTOMOBILE CHANGED GREATLY IN ITS REAL VALUE

Automobile Dealer Has a Little Sport with a Lawyer, with Assessor as Third Party.

"Hello, have you an automobile for sale?" "Why, I don't want to sell." "You would sell if you got your price wouldn't you?" "I might." "What is the least you would take?" "Well, $1,250 is the inside." "It's worth it, is it?" "Every cent of it." "All right, old man, I'll keep you in mind. I've been stinging you. I'm the assessor and I see you have listed your machine for $250." The instrument was hung up and a prominent lawyer was doing some thinking and an automobile dealer who had sold the machine and put up the joke was figuring how he could get a box of cigars out of it all.

LE TRIBUN.

"Le Tribun," a new three-act play of unusual dramatic power by Paul Bourget, was produced at the Vaudeville theater, Paris, a few days ago. Lucien Gutry plays the part of a socialist prime minister, who wishes to annihilate his conservative republican opponents by proving them guilty of fraudulent use of public funds. The proof is furnished by the stove in a check book, giving the record of the disposition of the money. This check book was sold to the republicans by the minister's son, who needed money to save the bankrupt husband of his mistress. Bankruptcy of the husband would have caused the seizure of the young man and the wife, rather than denounce her son, the minister drops the prosecution and leaves himself powerless to put his socialist doctrine into practice.

S.S.S. NATURE'S TONIC

The need of a tonic in the Spring is almost universally recognized. Bodily fatigue, fickle appetite, poor digestion, nervousness, lack of energy, etc., prove that the proper amount of nourishment is not being supplied to the body through the circulation. The stomach, bowels, and digestive members are sluggish from lack of stimulating nutrition, and in consequence the entire body suffers from the effects of a poorly nourished constitution. The use of a real blood-purifying tonic when the system is deranged from lack of nourishment, will often prevent the development of some serious sickness, because weak systems cannot resist disease, while healthy, well nourished constitutions are able to ward it off. No medicine is of value as a tonic except one which purifies and enriches the blood, for until this is done the body will not receive its required stimulus and disease-resisting powers. S. S. S. is the best Spring tonic because of its genuine ability and worth as a blood purifier. It builds up the depleted system in the true way, by purifying the blood and supplying an increased amount of nourishment to every portion of the body. S. S. S. removes all impurities from the circulation, and overcomes the unpleasant physical ailments of Spring. S. S. S. is for sale at drug stores.

URIC SOL THE CONQUEROR OF RHEUMATISM.

If you have tried every other known remedy for rheumatism do not despair. You still have Uricol, the practical certainty of CURE, and the absolute certainty of material and lasting benefit to fall back on. Uricol is not a cure-all. Its special field is rheumatic diseases and it cures them by removing the cause. Everybody nowadays knows that rheumatism is caused by an excess of Uric Acid in the blood. Local applications may relieve, but they cannot possibly get at the seat of the disease. Uricol is just what its name implies, a solvent and eliminator of Uric Acid. Remove the cause and the disease is gone. Uricol not only cures the common forms of rheumatism, but it does what no other remedy has before accomplished: IT DISSOLVES AND ELIMINATES DEPOSITS IN THE JOINTS, WHERE THEY HAVE BEEN ACCUMULATING FOR YEARS. Records are in our possession of not one but many cases where the joints of the fingers were so thickened as to be practically useless; where the hip or the knee joints were so filled with the deposits as to render the victim wholly unable to walk; yet the patients were completely restored to health and activity by the systematic use of Uricol. In this way Uricol has been a genuine RENEWER OF YOUTH! We can truthfully claim the remarkable record of 90 per cent. of cures where a proper opportunity is given our remedy to accomplish the result. We will gladly supply testimonials. Write for folder. If your druggist does not have it, send one dollar to The California Chemical Co., 325 New High St., Los Angeles, Calif., and we will send you a bottle prepaid.
