The continued success of The Bee is the new thorn in the flesh of the Worried-Herald. Regardless of the fact that the measurement of the Worried-Herald's total advertising space must of necessity include advertising, which would not exactly pass in polite society and which The Bee excludes from its columns—The Bee shows great gains.

Remove from the Worried-Herald the excoiler—eliminate indecent medical advertising and it will be found that even the day by day totals average greater in The Bee than in the Worried-Herald. Consider the
